Dirt-Guessing Contest

YOU want to get in on this—everyone who would like to own a "Hoover."

THIS dirt-guessing contest ends on Saturday, October 29th—only a few more days.

EVERYBODY is entitled to register one guess—No charge.

What this Dirt Guessing Contest is

WE have placed a rug on the sidewalk in front of our store—Hundreds of passers-by will walk on the rug depositing dirt. Each evening the dirt is removed by the "Hoover" and deposited in a glass jar in our window. The last cleaning will be on Saturday night, Oct. 29th.

Prizes three prizes will be given to the three persons guessing nearest to the weight of the dust and dirt contained in the jar or jars.

No Employee of this store or relatives of any employee is eligible as a prize winner.

THE PRIZES The person guessing nearest to the weight of the dust will be entitled to purchase a "Hoover" at half the regular price. The next nearest guess will entitle the guesser to purchase a "Hoover" at one-third off—the next a "Hoover" at one-quarter off. It's an opportunity!

AUCTION SALE

The undersigned will sell by public auction at twelve o'clock noon on Thursday the seventeenth day of November, A. D. 1921 in front of the Court House at Summerside in Prince County all that certain parcel of land and premises situated lying and being at or near Hope River in Lot 23 in Queen's County, bounded as follows:—Commencing at a square post fixed on the west side of the East Line of Road at the south boundary of land leased to Owen McAleer the Elder; thence running west fifty-two chains and sixty-five links; thence south nine chains and fifty links; thence east to the said Road; then along the said Road north nine chains and fifty links to the place of commencement containing fifty acres of land a little more or less and being thence now in possession of Joseph McAleer reserving thereout a small house now owned by Mrs. Pincus. Dated at Summerside this 24th day of October A. D. 1921. NEILL McLEOD, Solicitor, Summerside.

"Hard Times Are Not Coming—Just Soft Times Going" A "spending spree" was indulged in after the war—apparently in an effort to forget its unpleasant associations. Pleasures and luxuries came in for a full share of the money expended—but necessities were not overlooked. But Sober Days Are Here Again and some folks have in their minds ill-will for certain firms that were openly charged with profiteering. This feeling has caused a slowing-up of purchases all along the line. There's no such thing as a buyers strike—it's merely a matter of returning to normal conditions. Prices are adjusting themselves as fast as basic industries will permit—so we urge you to Buy what you need now and contribute to a continuation of good times. Coming right at you—straight from the wonderland of northern wilds—Kazan, the Killer!

By arrangement with Bobbs-Merrill Co. PRODUCED BY COL. W.M. N. SELIG. Directed by Pertram Bracken

GEO. H. HAMILTON Presents

"KAZAN"

The Greatest James Oliver Curwood Story Ever Told

The Call of a helpless girl—"KAZAN!"

"Black" McCready laughed at her cry. The Wilderness of the North stretched around them; the only man for miles lay snow-blind in a hut; and the girl felt her strength ebbing fast.

But—Far down the trail Kazan the Killer had picked up the hated man scent; he knew McCready only as the wielder of whips, the driver of hate; and through the snow the dog came, fangs bared, eyes afire with the killer strain. From the distance Joan heard his bay.

She called—and the wolf-dog sprang!

You'll thrill through every scene of drama and romance in this great tale of a big dog's part in a love story of the wilds.

PERSONALS

Mr. A. W. Hyndman, accompanied by his mother, returned to Halifax Saturday morning.

Mrs. James Gillan, St. Patrick's, is visiting in the city the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Herbert H. Jewel, 192 Grafton St.

Miss Florence Coffin, city, left yesterday on an extended visit to her sister, Mrs. (Rev.) McInnis, Syracuse, N. Y.

Mrs. Mary B. McDonald of Nine Mile Creek is doing as well as can be expected after undergoing an operation for appendicitis in the P. E. Island Hospital.

Mrs. Frank Ramsay and little son, Lloyd George Borden of New London have returned home after having a pleasant trip with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McNeill, Lunenburg.

H. G. WELLS EMBARKS ON LINER UNNOTICED.

SOUTHAMPTON, Oct 24.—Her friends are glad to learn that True to his desire for privacy, H.

G Wells forbade relatives or friends to see him off Thursday when he sailed on the Adriatic to begin the Washington engagement with The London Times and The Mail and Empire. Consequently he got on board quite unnoticed. Later on he was seen on the deck with his friend, M. Chalapin, the Russian singer. When Mr. Wells visited Russia last Winter he spent some days with M. Chalapin in Petrograd, and the singer, during his stay in England visited Mr. Wells at the latter's country home in Essex, where he met Charlie Chaplin.

A Promise that has made good

When KING COLE TEA was in its infancy we associated with it the slogan—"You'll like the flavor." It was a modest statement, yet when you come to think of it, it covers all that you are looking for in the tea of your choice. How well KING COLE has lived up to its promise is proved by the many thousands of users today.

Perfectly packed in bright lead foil and price marked on every package.
