Hoover Flays Moral Recession in Government

FRESNO, Calif., April 26—(AP)—Former President Herbert Hoover tonight appealed to politicians and women for a fight against what he termed "a moral recession" in United States Government.

Loss of moral in government paved the way for the rise of European dictators, said Mr. Hoover before outlining "immoralities" he charged were endangering self-government.

"They must be expurgated from American life," he told the Federation of Republican Women's Clubs. "Government in a democracy can afford some inefficiency. That is the price we pay for self-government, in a democracy cannot be immoral—that saps its very life."

"Somebody has to do a clean-up job in this republic. We are in a moral recession in government."

"Beyond this we have for five years listened to continuous denigration of everything that has gone before. Honest achievement of men has been belittled and attributed to improper motives. Ideals embedded in our patriotism are smeared with contempt.... We are told that we are in ruins and we must begin anew. We are told that government must be for us."

Suggesting that America is enmeshed in a web of fears as much moral as economic, the former president asked how long time we jerk ourselves out of this moral depression?

SQUIRE AND LADY

Squires and their wives will bring parties up from the countries to dance at Grosvenor House on May 4. The ballroom will be thronged with debutantes who a week later will be curtsying at Buckingham Palace at Royal Courts.

A trustee of the nation's treasures, the Earl of Crawford, who holds this position both at the National Portrait Gallery and British Museum, is president of the ball committee of 130 people.

Three of his daughters, Lady Mary Manningham-Buller, Lady Katharine Nicholson and Lady Barbara Lindsay are acting as joint hostesses for him at his sherry party for the ball at his home in Andley-square to-morrow week.

Lady Claud Hamilton, wife of Queen Mary's Comptroller, Lady Harcourt, Lady Elmley, Lady Hinchinbrooke and Mrs. J. R. Rathbone, wife of the M.P., are among those coming.

Mrs. Neville Chamberlain is giving a May party at No. 11, Downing street, for Lord Crawford and his lovers-of-England committee. The 130 will meet there at the cocktail hour on May 2.

One of the ideas for the ball is a program with covers illustrating English beauty spots.

The Perfect Woman has been found.

At least, Mr. Barney Seale, the British sculptor who has been looking for her, believes so.

"She's young, fairly tall, darkish hair," he said. "But I shall take another week to make up my mind."

When he decides he will go ahead with his colossal, statue group "The Perfect Family," 18 ft. high—which will stand in the centre of the British Pavilion in the Empire Exhibition, Glasgow.

His work has been held up because he could not find the Perfect Woman.

After a search which began months ago he has already chosen the Ideal Man, a curly, slim, six-foot Harley-street doctor — and the Ideal Child, a curly-headed, seven-year-old working-class boy.

The Agony Of Eczema

Eczema, or salt rheum, is one of the most torturing of itching skin diseases. The principal cause is bad blood, aided by inactive skin and inflammation. It manifests itself in small, round pimples or blisters which later on break and form crusts or scales, and the intense burning, itching and smarting are almost unbearable.

To eradicate eczema from the system it is necessary to give the blood a thorough cleansing, and for this purpose we would highly recommend Burdock Blood Bitters.

Mrs. JOSEPH B. BERGER, Millbank, Ont., writes: "Several months ago I was troubled with eczema on my hands. I could not help with the milking my hands were so sore and itching, and could hardly put them in water.

After I had taken two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters I found my hands were healing very quickly. I have never found a remedy to compare with B.B.B. for purifying the blood.

Shed Neckties Says Reformer

NEW YORK April 27 — (CP) — Rise, gentlemen—here comes a woman advocating the abolition of neckties and the wearing of the colorful silks and satins of Louis XVI's time.

She is Elizabeth Hawes, the noted New York dress designer and designer in men's clothes. She thinks men's clothes are illogical, impractical. Collars on suit coats should be abolished, she says, because they wrinkle up with nearly every movement and serve no particular purpose.

Shirt collars, she finds, hoppers and recommends a plain band in-

BELIEVES LAXITY LAW ENFORCEMENT

WINNIPEG, April 27 — (CP) — "Subtle propaganda designed to make youth liquor conscious" was deplored by Mrs. James White, Manitoba president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union at the convention here.

"Liquor traffic has been world organized to make youth liquor conscious," she said. "It's lax law enforcement that allows boys under 18 to buy cigarettes and under 21 to enter beer parlors.

"Young people are being persuaded drinking is the fashionable thing to do. Beer jackets copied from uniforms worn by bar-ten-

CANARY BOMBARDED BEFORE VIMY SHOW

MELVILLE, Sask., April 27—Before the capture of Vimy Ridge by Canadians in 1917 the artillery was called into action to kill a canary, Captain R. C. Wilder, president of Melville Canadian Legion Branch related at a Vimy banquet.

Before the attack a tunnelling company was digging a sap under the German positions, using canaries to detect gas. One bird escaped and flew into No Man's Land.

Fearing it would reach German lines and its appearance tip off the Germans that a sap was being driven, a machine-gun was turned on the flitting songster. It went unscathed even when the infantry started firing, but was destroyed when the artillery blasted away.
