MR. HILLARY McAULAY

All the friends and acquaintances express sincere sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. McAulay, Souris, in the death of their youngest son, Hillary, which sad occurrence took place on the 11th of the present month. He took influenza in February last, and never got over it. He was just eighteen years and six months the day he died. There is only one boy and two girls now left them, Joseph, Judith (in Boston) and Mary. The parents are almost heart broken and the boy had such a wish to live, never giving up until the last. It is scarcely four years since their other dear boy was killed now Hillary's death brings his sad one back again to memory. It is certainly pretty hard to bear but, Christian parents as they are, they reconcile themselves to God's Holy Will, fiat voluntas tua. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon, 13th to the Souris Catholic Cemetery, where some fifty carriages followed the remains. He was tenderly laid to rest beside his brother.—R. I. P.

MRS. MARY ANN McDONALD

The sad death took place at her home in Bristol, P. E. I. July 8th of Mrs. Mary Ann McDonald at the age of sixty-seven years. She had been in usual health until a few days before her death when she became seriously ill and in spite of the best attendance she passed away on Tuesday July 8th, fortified by the last rites of the Catholic Church in which she was a faithful member. Her death came unexpectedly and was a severe shock to her relatives and many friends. She was kind and loving and a general favorite with her many friends and acquaintances. Her husband predeceased her only a short time ago and thus her death is a double blow to her only daughter Katie. She also leaves to mourn three brothers Joseph in Boston, John and Daniel at home.

Her funeral which took place to St. Joseph's Church, Morell, Thursday July 10th was largely attended. Requiem High Mass was sung by the Rev. Father G. Coffin. Thence a large cortege followed the remains to the grave where they laid her in the family plot to await the last day. The pall bearers were Angus McDonald, Patrick Sinnott, Lester McVarish, Alex McDonald, John D. Sinnott, Wm. McDonald, May her soul rest in peace.
