

THE WESTERN GUARDIAN

The Taylor Ranch Will Pay Big Profits THIS Year

There are seven pairs of pure bred Island silver black foxes in the Taylor ranch now, two pairs of which are proved breeders. The promoters and directors guarantee a return of not less than 10 young for this year's delivery, which means a profit of from 40 p. c upwards on the capitalization. This fact connected with the equally important point of free ranching up to Sep. 1st, means that handsome dividends will be paid by the Taylor Company this fall.

—INTERESTING MOCK TRIAL.—On Friday evening a very interesting and instructive mock trial was held in the Methodist Church by the Epworth League. The case was that of the Crown vs. the Christian Church. The Rev. J. M. Rice was the officiating Judge. The case for the Crown was ably presented by Miss Ella Sulphant and Miss M. Strong, while the defence was ably conducted by Morley Bell and L. R. Allen. A number of witnesses, representing the different nations, were examined, as follows. Miss Mary Brace for Japan. Miss Etta Calbeck for China. Harold Milligan for N. W. India. Clair Campbell for the Hindus and Arthur Steeves for the African Negro. All of whom gave interesting and instructive information. After carefully weighing the evidence of each side the presiding Judge in a very interesting summing up found the prisoner, ably represented by Mrs. J. S. McIntosh, guilty but allowed her liberty, suspended sentence. The trial throughout was very interesting and much enjoyed by the large audience present.

—WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.—On Friday evening last a very pleasant and enjoyable time was spent at Mr. James T. Waite's, Sherbrooke, when Mr. and Mrs. Waite celebrated the th anniversary of their wedding. The heavy rain storm of the day prevented a good many of their ryon friends from being present, at they were ably represented by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lang and Mr. John B. Wood. A number from Summerside and vicinity were also present. At six o'clock they sat down to a large table laden with the fat of the land. After leisurely doing justice to all, they repaired to the parlour here an abundance of music selected for the occasion was rendered by Miss McEwen and Master Freddie Waite; some readings were given by Miss McEwen and Mrs. Curn of Summerside while Mr. J. B. Wood and others gave short speeches. At eleven o'clock ice-cream and cake was served and when the wee small hours arrived he happy company broke up, all wishing Mr. and Mrs. Waite many returns of the day.

—PLEASANT SURPRISE.—The Rev. J. J. and Mrs. Bamford had just settled down for a quiet evening on April 13th, when one of the members of their church, (Mr. Fred Dennis) appeared on the scene and on looking through the window caught a number of young people were approaching the House. The Rev. gentleman asked, if it was a wedding. The answer was "it is hard to say," what it might end in. However, it proved to be a "Surprise Pound party." The young people of Port Hill had taken it into their heads to give Mrs. Bamford, (on her birthday) Feb. 22nd, but owing to the death of the late Capt. Richards it was postponed until after Lent. There were thirty-two present. The evening was spent in games of different kinds and any one looking on, could see that all were bent on having a good time. About ten o'clock refreshments were served, which was provided by the ladies and at 12 p. m., the party broke up and everyone expressed that it had been the best time of the winter. The Rev. J. J. Bamford and Mrs. Bamford, thanked them all and hoped they would return at some future date.
