An address with a purse containing a handsome sum of money was presented to D. Cameron by the members of Junction Road Sunday School and Normal Class connected with it. The half-yearly examination of Midgill graded school took place Jan. 2nd. The school rooms were beautifully decorated with spruce and pictures. The examination was conducted by the principal Miss Bertha M. Webster and the assistant teacher Miss Josephine McLean in the presence of the following gentlemen and ladies viz., R. J. McDonald M. D., Chas. Wayne, William Cox, Duncan McDonald, Frank Sanderson, Anthony McIsaac, Oliver Anderson, David Anderson, James McIsaac, Adolphus McEwen, James McAnlay, James McEwen, Misses Sadie McInnis of Prince of Wales College and Lottie McLaine. The large attendance of rate-payers prove the interest manifested in educational matters by the people of this vicinity. The pupils were examined in the different subjects and acquitted themselves creditably. At the close of the examination a program consisting of recitations and music was well rendered. W. Cox offered a prize which will be awarded at the next public examination to the best reader in the Third Grade, and Mr. Wayne prizes to the pupils in the primary and advanced departments who will make the highest percentage in attendance. Remarks were made by F. Sanderson, C. Wayne, J. McEwen, O. Anderson and others giving much praise to the teachers for the excellent manner in which the school is conducted.

Worth Reading Not how CHEAPLY but how SATISFACTORILY can I be fitted with glasses? THAT'S THE QUESTION which every THOUGHTFUL person SHOULD ask. Cheap or ill-fitting glasses CAUSE more strain than they RELIEVE. It takes TIME TO CAREFULLY and ACCURATELY fit glasses. Time is VALUABLE and cannot rightly be given for nothing. The EXACTING tests which we make take TIME for which we ask a FAIR remuneration. We give you the BEST POSSIBLE service and are FURTHER improved our future work. DEPORTED FOR SEASICKNESS

Thompson, a woman of means, wife of an English country gentleman, and cabin passenger on the steamer Minneapolis was deathly sick in the great Christmas storm during the Minneapolis passage and this illness left her unfit to temporarily deranged. Although her friends in this country guarantee that she will not become dependent during her contemplated visit here, Immigration Commission Watchman has ruled that as an insane alien she must be deported. She is now in her stateroom on the Minneapolis on which she will start for England tomorrow.
