THIS ISSUE.—The Guardian always has something of interest in every column, and today's issue of fourteen pages is no exception to the rule, page thirteen containing some of the latest local news.

INTERESTING ARTICLES:—The Halifax Herald of New Year's Eve contains an interesting article and photo written by J. E. B. McCready, Publicity Agent, Charlottetown, on prosperous Prince Edward Island. It also contains an item and photo of Rev. R. Osgood Morse, Summerside, entitled The Problem of Our Citizenship.

INTERESTING TRIP.—J. O. Arsenault, Provincial Manager for the Mutual Life Assurance Co., of Canada, Charlottetown, left yesterday morning for Waterloo, Ont., to attend the convention of field representatives from all over the Dominion, which takes place from Jan. 6 to 9, on the occasion of the official opening of the new head office building, Eon voyage.

A RECOGNITION.—An event of more than ordinary moment took place last Thursday night at the home of J. B. Deckieson, New Glasgow, when the Elders of the Christian Church viz. W.H. Stevenson and James Dickieson were waited upon and presented with a donation and a timely address which shows the esteem in which these gentlemen are held and how their efforts for good are being appreciated.—Com. (Patriot please copy.)

CHRISTMAS CONCERT.—The annual entertainment and Christmas tree given by the Sunday School and Mission Band of the Pleasant Valley Methodist Church was held on Monday, evening, Dec. 23rd. The evening was an ideal one in regards to weather and roads. The large Christmas tree, which was laden with an abundance of candy, fruit and presents for the children., was the chief object of admiration during the evening. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity and all listened with rapt attention to an excellent program. Much credit is due to Mrs. (Rev). J. B. Gough who trained the children and young people in her usual capable, manner and the organist, Miss Aletia Murray. Following was the program. Prayer—Frederick Burtram, Chorus—Our Father in Heaven. Recitation—Cassie Sharpe. Chorus—Merry Merry Bells of Christmas. Recitation—Harry Keating. Acrostic Xmas by nine children. Solo—Anna Gough, Dialogue—Knowing the Circumstances. Recitation—May Keating. CALENDAR.— American Beauty Roses is the title of a most artistic and handsome calendar issued by J. M. O'Brien, Proprietor of the I. C. R. Dining Hall, Moncton.

NEW YORK CALENDAR.— The Continental Fish Co., No. 26 Fulton Market, New York, have chosen for their calendar this year a prettily colored water scene mounted on white with a purple background. It is very effective and pleasing.

DEATH IN TAUNTON.—The death occurred recently in Taunton Mass., after an illness of seven months of John L. McKendrick. He was born in Prince Edward Island on Aug 9th, 1860, and had resided in Taunton for almost forty years.

ENJOY CANOEING.—Yesterday afternoon two young men engaged a trip in a canoe in the Charlottetown Harbor and found it just as navigable as in the summer months. This is certainly a rare sport for January 2nd.

SCENE OF WRECK.—Yesterday's beautiful weather was taken advantage of by many Charlottetown citizens to enjoy an outing and hundreds wended their way during the morning to the scene of the train wreck near the Experimental Farm. During the day men were busy clearing away the debris.

OPEN WATER.—The ice which had gathered in the Hillsboro River during the past few days floated out yesterday and left the harbor a sheet of clear water as far as the eye could reach. The Tug William Aitken kept up the communication between Charlottetown and Rocky Point yesterday without the least trouble.

CHRISTMAS TREE.—The annual Christmas tree of the Baptist Sunday School, Charlottetown, was held Wednesday afternoon and a thoroughly enjoyable time was spent. A short program was carried out before the well laden and pretty tree was dismantled. The moving pictures thrown on the canvas were much enjoyed.

POWNAL.—The service at Pownal next Sunday afternoon will be of a very special character. At the recent meeting of the Official Board it was thought that a central service for the renewal of the Covenant would be far preferable to having a series of small services around the circuit. It is this suggestion which will be operated on Sunday afternoon when the congregations from Millview, Mt. Herbert and Clifton are expected to unite with the Pownal congregation in renewing the Covenant and in the Lord's Supper.

A GOOD TIME.—The entertainment and basket social held at Dunstaffnage on Friday evening was well attended. It was previously announced that Rev. Mr. Westmoreland of York would deliver a lecture but a surprise was sprung upon the audience by the news that a few hours before the time for opening the entertainment he had sent word that he could not come. However a few of the young folks got busy and a program was got into shape consisting of short addresses, readings and recitations and best of all musical selections and Miss Crosby and Miss Blanch McBeath of Marshfield, all of which were heartily enjoyed. The sale of baskets brought a snug sum. The thanks of the audience was moved to Miss McBeth and Miss Crosby for their splendid help.

FOR THE OPENING YEAR.

A little more deed and a little less creed,
A little more giving and a little less greed;
A little more bearing other people's load,
A little more Godspeeds on the dusty road;
A little more rose and a little less thorn,
To sweeten the air for the sick and forlorn;
A little more song and a little less glum;
And coins of gold for the uplift of the slum;
A little less kicking the man that is down,
A little more smile and a little less frown;
A little more Golden Rule in marts of trade,
A little more sunshine a little less shade;
A little more respect for fathers and mothers,
A little less knocking and a little more cheer,
For the struggling hero that's left in the rear;
A little more love and a little less hate,
A little more neighborly chat at the gate;
A little more of the helping hand by you and me;
A little less of the graveyard sentimentality
A little more of flowers in the pathway of life,
A little less on coffins at the ene of the strife.

—Stephen Abbott Northrop.

A PASTOR REMEMBERED.

A very interesting and ever welcome function in church life, was held in the Georgetown Baptist Church, Thursday evening Dec. 26th. It was of a two-fold nature. First the devotional service conducted by the pastor. Rev.W. D. Wilson assisted bythe Rev H. S. Erb, Hazelbrook, then J. D. Stewart spoke of the church as he had observed it from its infancy; through its long hard struggle, up to the present time, and of the preservance and faithfulness of its followers and he wished to congratulate the few faithful men and women who for their convictions and principles, had made so much of a sacrafice and were now able to declare their Church free from debt. Rev H. S. Erb spoke on "The Power of a Holy purpose." Rev Mr Bach, who next spoke, made mention of the friendly relations existing between the Christian workers of Georgetown. Rev Mr Bell spoke next on the Climax of the Christian's thought" "When I Shall See His Face." J. C. Manuel, after a few words on the subject so near his heart, lit the mortgage and burned it. What a joy and relief it gave the Church members and workers to see the smoke rise, and for them to feel that their house of worship was free from debt.

The second part of the meeting was more interesting to the Pastor, when Mrs G. W. Hibbet, Georgetown, came forward and read the following address to their Pastor, the Rev W. D. Wilson.

Rev and Dear Sir:—The members of your church and congregation cannot allow this season of rejoicing and self congratulations, to pass without remembering in some tangible way the Pastor who encouraged and ministered to them in the dark hours of discouragement and struggle, the depth of thought, power of interpretation, and grace of expression, mark you as a man of no ordinary ability, and we feel that your pastorate here means to you self-sacrifice for the sacred cause you have espoused.

In your social intercourse with your people your strength of manhood and true Christian kindness of
