

OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

In the later evening hours of Friday, February 5th, Mrs. Andrew Arthur, a very highly esteemed resident of Hunter River passed peacefully away at the age of 84 years.

LOSES VALUABLE HORSE—Mr. Elmer Cotton lost a valuable horse while dredging mud on South West River. Mr. Cotton was moving the digger while the horse apparently stepped on a loose cake of ice and drowned before anyone in the vicinity noticed its plight.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Edward Egan took place from A. H. Hennessey's Funeral Home Saturday morning to St. Joseph's Basilica thence to the Roman Catholic Cemetery. Services at the church were conducted by Father McGardie and at the grave by Father Dalton.

YOUTH Y. P. A. MEETING—The Youth Y. P. A. Society held its regular meeting in the youth hall on Friday evening. Mr. Chester Cumming occupied the chair and the devotions were in charge of Mrs. J. P. Townsend, followed by the regular business session. Miss Meadows gave a paper on the life of several famous composers and the Misses Margaret Davis and Audrey Millard performed piano solos. Miss Meadows sang very delightfully "The Serenade." The meeting closed with a hymn and a benediction.

LEADERS COUNCIL MEETS—The regular monthly meeting of the C. G. U. Leaders Council was held on Wednesday evening, March 10th, at the home of Mrs. E. J. St. John. The minutes were read and approved. Bills from the Valentine Club were passed for payment. The C. G. U. groups would send to the W. E. C. a decision on how to help raise that amount the ladies plan to have a cake sale in their near future. Miss Katherine Gordon was appointed to act as the Secretary at a press conference. The next meeting is to be held in the Central Church Club when Miss Alice Partridge will produce a handcraft demonstration.

His Honour Lieutenant Governor DeLois and Mrs. DeLois are expected to leave about April 18 for London, England, to attend the coronation ceremonies. They will be accompanied by their daughter-in-law and by Major J. R. Paton, A. D. C., and Mrs. Paton. They will return home about the middle of June.

Asked if he was going as a representative of the Government His Honour replied that he did not understand so he was paying his own expenses. The official government representative, as announced recently in the press, is E. B. W. LePage, president of the Executive Council.

His Honour returned Saturday from a week's visit to Montreal. Mr. Angus MacPherson, Little Belton, was injured at Montserrat with severe injuries. He was taken to the hospital where his condition was reported as serious. The accident occurred when Mr. MacPherson was operating a group of neighbors a water supply of firewood. His clothes became entangled in the spinning saw shaft, operated by a gasoline engine. Clutching the framework of the machine with both hands Mr. MacPherson held on until the clothes were pulled from his body. The injured man was removed to hospital at Montserrat.

Prince Edward Island will be honored by visits from His Excellency Lord Tweedsmuir, Governor General of Canada, and his family, according to word received over the week-end by Lieutenant Governor DeLois.

The Governor General first planned visiting the Maritimes early in June, but at that time both the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island Governments would be absent in London, and for this reason the postponement of his visit here in September will follow his trip through the Northern territories, and with favorable weather should give him an opportunity of seeing the island in all the glory of its autumn colours.

This will be Lord Tweedsmuir's first visit to the Province, and it will be looked forward to with great interest by all classes of our citizens.

It is understood that the following secondary school students have been appointed by the Provincial Government to represent the Province at the Youth of Empire gatherings to be held in London, England, in connection with the Coronation.

Quebec County: Miss Margaret Broome, Charlottetown; Miss MacLeod, Royalty.

Prince County: Miss Ruby MacNeil, Miss Dolly Matthew, Summerside.

Kings County: Miss Clements, Montserrat; Mr. Jack Matthew, Souris.

The students have been selected subject to approval by their school faculties and by the Overseas Education League of Canada, which is defraying all their expenses while in England. The students must pay between $300 and $350 to enable them to reach London and return.

From Canada and Newfoundland

approximately 200 students will participate in the programme, which will include attendance at an Empire Youth Service at Westminster Abbey, and a rally of empire youth at the Albert hall.

WIN CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP—Mr. A. B. L. Horne's rink playing against a team skipped by Mr. H. T. Holman won the Tip Top Trophy which is the club championship trophy of Summerside Curling rink. The skips were Ray Tanton, Bob Palmer, Fred Murphy, A. B. L. Horne, J. W. MacNaughton, W. E. Darby, H. J. McGaughan, H. T. Holman, 7-5.

A quiet wedding took place in Charlottetown on Monday, March 1st, when Rev. Ewen McDougall officiated in marriage Thomas Burpee McMicken of Carleton and Pyrlle Margaret Crossman of Cape Traverse. Following a short honeymoon, spent in Charlottetown the young couple have taken up their residence in Carleton, where the groom is a prosperous farmer.

On the evening of the first of February upwards of fifty friends assembled in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Doucette, to join in the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. Addressed were Rev. Ewen McDougall, pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, and the Women's Institute of which Mr. Doucette is a valued member. Appropriate gifts accompanied each address, and the village tailor was at his best in responding to the compliments and gifts extended to them on that occasion.

BIRTHDAY PARTY—A large number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Colin MacKinnon Sr., South West Lot 16 on the occasion of Mr. MacKinnon's birthday. Mrs. Charles Campbell Jr., read an address and Miss Mildred Campbell presented the guest of honor with a large wedding cake on behalf of the Young Men's Auxiliary. Music and dancing was provided by Messrs. John Cameron, Wellington and Sidney Biglow of South West furnished violin music and Mrs. Colin MacKinnon accompanied on the organ. Mr. MacKinnon very graciously acknowledged the address and gifts from his friends. The gathering dispersed wishing Mr. MacKinnon many happy returns.—S.

DEATH OF MRS. W. E. DAWSON—Many friends will regret to learn of the passing of Mrs. W. E. Dawson former resident of North Tryon, whose death occurred at the home of her sister, Mrs. George M. Neth, Lynn, Mass., on March 3rd, at 62 years of age. Mrs. Dawson was the daughter of the late M. C. Delaney and his wife Alta Robinson, North Tryon. After her marriage she and her husband continued to live in North Tryon until some twelve years ago, when they removed to Claremont, New Hampshire, where Mr. Dawson engaged in fox ranching. Their only son Rex Reginald A. Dawson remained on the homestead. Mrs. Dawson had been in poor health for some time, and was on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Neth when she was taken suddenly ill and passed away. The remains were accompanied home by her husband to be buried in the family plot in North Tryon. Her husband and her sisters are left to mourn. Claude Delaney, Albany; Parker Delaney, North Tryon; Mrs. Daniel MacLeod, Beauce; Mrs. Hamilton Gamble, Albany; Mrs. L. B. Crue, Summerside and Mrs. George M. Neth, Lynn, Mass.—S.

THEVES RAFFLE POLICE—Tools found in an automobile last Tuesday, after the machine had been stolen from its private garage and then returned some time later, were believed by police last night to have been used in the three auto store breaks in the city. Two heavy farmers' sledges, a cold chisel and a screw driver were found in the automobile by Mr. N. D. MacLean, the owner, while he was removing his car from the garage in the morning. Further investigation revealed a considerable quantity of the 10 gallons of gasoline he had filled his tank with the same night the sledges, and three attempted breaks were reported and in each case the screw driver found in the car fitted the marks made around locks, police said. An attempt was made to force a lock on the side door of the Ambros Street Garage but was without success. Police believed the thieves were frightened away while attempting to force the door of C. C. Hecsher's drug store. A short distance from the drug store the screw driver was used in an attempt to gain entrance into Michael's grocery store.

Mrs. Emma J. McKinnon, widow of the late Lauchlin McKinnon, a resident of Everett, Mass., for past 23 years, passed away, Feb. 24, at a local convalescent home in Everett following a three months illness. She was very well known in the East Everett district and also in Chelsea where she resided before coming to this city. Mrs. McKinnon was born in Montague, P. E. I. 75 years ago the daughter of the late Daniel and Margaret (McLaren) Vesey, and came to this country when a young woman. She first settled in Chelsea and made her home there and also in Everett and on for the last 30 years. She was of the retiring type of person, devoted to her home and her church and was satisfied to make few intimate but faithful friends. She attended our Lady of Grace Catholic church. Survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Thomas Flaherty, from whose home the funeral was held, a son William P. McKinnon, of Portland, Mrs. Lena Vesey, of Portland, Mrs. James W. McDonald, of Weymouth, Mass., a brother Frank N. Vesey of Montague Bridge, P. E. I. she also leaves seven grandchildren.

The funeral of the late Mr. William R. Campbell of Cape Traverse took place from his residence on Friday, March 5th at 1:30 p. m. and was very largely attended. His pastor, Rev. Ewen McDougall conducted the service both at the house and the grave, the hymns sung being "The Lord is My Shepherd, and several favorite paraphrases. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Russell Clark, George McMicken, James Bell, William Waddell, Charles Crossman and Arthur Campbell, interment being in the Church of Scotland cemetery at Cape Traverse.

On Monday evening March 1, 1937. The Long Creek Young Peoples Society met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. MacPhail, in honor of two of its members, the Misses Evelyn MacEachern and Arnie MacEachern. The president, Mr. Stanton MacPhee, called the meeting to order and Mrs. Wilfred Stretch read an address to Miss Evelyn MacEachern while Mrs. Ernest Turner presented her with a serving tray. Mrs. C. R. MacPhail, the vice-president, then called on Miss Anna MacMillan to read an address to Miss Annie MacPhee and Mrs. Hugh MacKenzie made the presentation of shawl and water glasses. Both the members made pleasing speeches and thanked their fellow members for their thoughtful gifts. "For they are Jolly Good Fellows" was cheerily sung and a very pleasant evening passed in singing and playing games. Lunch was served by the ladies of the Y. P. S. and the meeting as closed by singing "Auld Lang Syne" and the King.

MACKENZIE—MACKENZIE—The marriage took place in the United Church Manse, Beauce, on the evening of Monday February 22nd, Rev. Arthur Organ officiating. The bride was Barbara MacKenzie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. MacKenzie, Beauce, and the groom, Myrick MacKenzie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander MacKenzie, Victoria West. The witnesses were Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Walsh, very charming in a costume of navy blue with accessories to match. The happy young couple will make their home in Beauce where the best wishes of their many friends.

FUNERAL AT PARK CORNER—The funeral of the late Mrs. Cuthbert Montgomery was held from her home, Park Corner, on March 5th and was very largely attended by people from neighboring districts. The service at the home was conducted by the Pastor, Rev. George Somers, Kensington, assisted by Rev. J. M. McLeod, Charlottetown; and at the grave by Mr. Somers and Mr. Williams. Interment was in the Geddie Memorial Cemetery, New London. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved husband and family in the loss of a devoted wife and affectionate mother.

TO ATTEND CONFERENCE—His Worship Mayor Turner leaves Wednesday for Ottawa to attend the Dominion conference of Mayors and the Union of Canadian Municipalities. At the meeting it is expected that a national executive will be elected, amalgamating the two organizations. Cour. George McLeod, chairman of the finance committee, is leaving on Friday to attend the conference. Sessions will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday next when taxation problems, municipal debts, interest charges, house legislation and special municipal problems will be discussed. Mayor Turner while in Ottawa will interview the Minister of Finance and the Minister of Labor regarding the relief problem in Charlottetown.

The 31 philosophy students of St. Dunstan's College yesterday celebrated the anniversary of St. Thomas Aquinas at a dinner in Charlottetown.

Guests of the students were Rt. Rev. J. A. Murphy, Rector of the College; Rev. J. A. Sullivan, Professor of Philosophy, and George Gillespie, Professor of English.

Correct thought based on right principles was the only way out of the confusion in which the world finds itself today, asserted Dr. Murphy in a short address.

Father Sullivan termed the year's progress in philosophy "encouraging," and predicted that a subject of study philosophy was destined to become even more important at the College.

William Simpson, president of Senior Year, presided. Toasts were responded to by Eric Robin, J. A. MacDonald, Jerome O'Brien, Professor Gillespie, Willard O'Brien, J. J. Bedard, and A. P. Campbell.

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS—Mrs. Peter Corrigan, New Haven, is 100 years young today, and, although her sight and hearing are a little dull, is still hale and hearty. Congratulations to Mrs. Corrigan and may she see many more happy birthdays.

The residents of Woodstock District, Prince County were shocked on Monday afternoon Feb. 15th, when it became known that Mrs. Peter Gaudet, an aged and respected resident of the community, had passed peacefully away to her eternal reward at the ripe old age of 87 years.

WEDNESDAY—Ewen Hodgson Macdonald eldest son of the late Samuel Macdonald, Esq., died at his home in Dundas on Friday, March 5, 1937 after a short illness. Mr. Macdonald was born in Red Point twenty-four years ago, and, as a boy came with his parents to Dundas.

A witness of many stirring changes, social, economic and industrial, Miss Elizabeth Le Page of Calgary has started on her 100th year of life. She celebrated her 99th birthday surrounded by relatives and friends at a family party.

Resident of Calgary for more than 30 years, Miss Le Page, a native of Prince Edward Island, was born at Charlottetown. She could offer no recipe for longevity. Perhaps her long life "ran in the family," was her only explanation.

In perfect health, she is keen of mind, interested in present-day happenings and retains a vivid memory of pioneer days. Asked what she considered the most interesting event in her long life, she replied:

"It has all been interesting. I like to remember when I was a little girl."

The death of John Lemuel MacLeod, late of Charlottetown, occurred Wednesday, March 3rd, at the home of his sister Mrs. G. W. Profit of Spring Valley after a long and continued illness which he contracted in the Canadian West about fifteen years ago. Last August when his wife was seriously ill he came to live with her brother, Mr. W. C. MacLeod, Kensington, and later went to spend the winter with his sister, Mrs. Profit, where he suddenly passed away. He leaves to mourn his widow, nee Miss Margaret Sellar of Charlottetown, who tenderly and patiently cared for him these many years until laid aside through ill health on account of which she was unable to attend the funeral of her late husband.

There passed away in the early hours of Friday morning, March 5th at the home of her nephew Mr. Allan MacSwain, Lorne Valley, Mrs. Mary MacSwain (Mary Munro) at the advanced age of 104 years and almost 10 months. Mrs. MacSwain was born in Scotland on May 10, 1832 coming to this province at a very early age. Later she married Captain James MacSwain who she accompanied on several ocean voyages. Her husband predeceased her 70 years ago. She was familiarly known by her friends and acquaintances as "Aunt Mary."

Throughout her long life, she had enjoyed perfect health and was in command of all her faculties to the time of her death. Only shortly after last May did she tell some of her friends she would enjoy an airplane ride.

She had taken for her guide in life her Gaelic Bible which she implored daily up till the time of her death.

Mr. F. E. Lathé, Ottawa, who is to assist in connection with the economic survey of the Province under the direction of Hon. B. W. LePage, president of the executive council, arrived in Charlottetown last night. Mr. Lathé, who is director of the division of research, information, National Research Council, Ottawa, declared in an interview last night that he was "here to discuss technical matters in connection with established or proposed industries more than anything else."

It was expected that the work with which he was concerned would be completed in two days, Mr. Lathé said.

A conference of a private nature was scheduled to open at 10 o'clock today in the Confederation Chamber, Hon. Mr. LePage announced last night. Information would be issued to the press after each meeting, Mr. LePage said.

A Royal Commission hearing into illegal fishing of smelts and lobsters will open this afternoon in Charlottetown it was announced last night.

It had not been decided whether the commission would then move to Summerside or further west to Prince County for the next sessions.

There passed away at Summerside on March 1st after a short illness of pneumonia, Mr. J. William Cronin, aged 68 years, leaving a widow, six sons and four daughters, also one brother to mourn their loss. His funeral took place on Monday morning to St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River, and was largely attended.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Mrs. Mary Ann Macdonald was held yesterday morning from the residence of R. N. Tomlinson to St. Dunstan's Basilica, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the Rector, Rev. P. McMahon, D. D. The pall-bearers were: Dr. Pethick, Messrs S. P. Paoli, J. J. Hornby, H. F. McPhee, John Collins, Louis McDonald, Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. Earl Dalton.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of the late Miss Helen A. L. Spindle of Strathcona, took place on Monday last from the home of her father Mr. Winfield Spindle to Dundas United Church where the minister Rev. Mr. Perth spoke comforting words to the bereaved.

Miss Spindle, who has been in delicate health for over a year, was tenderly nursed by her aunt Miss Annie Hunter, who with the members of her family, her father, three brothers Melville, William, and Winfield, mourn the loss of a loving daughter and sister.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the United Church Manse, Georgetown, on Feb. 24th at 7 p. m. when Clara Edith Llewellyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Llewellyn of that place, was united in marriage to Leonard Oliver Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Campbell, Montague, by Rev. John Stirling. The bride wore a deep blue crepe dress with white satin collar, and was attended by her sister, Janie Llewellyn who wore a wine crepe dress.

The groom was supported by his brother, John Campbell. After the ceremony the happy party returned to the home of the bride where a sumptuous supper was served to over fifty guests. Singing and dancing were indulged in until a late hour. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a shower by her many friends at Georgetown from whom she received many lovely and useful gifts. She was the recipient of other beautiful presents as well. Their numerous friends wish them every success and happiness.—G.

PLANE GROUNDED AT MONCTON—The Moncton-Charlottetown Canadian Airways mail and passenger plane was grounded at Moncton because of freezing rain. Mr. Walter Fowler, superintendent of the service, said last night. The plane was forced to return to Summerside when it met with freezing rain and fog over the Northumberland Strait on the moon crossing yesterday. Two hours later the weather cleared and the machine continued its flight to Moncton where it landed at 4:30, two and a half hours late. Before the plane took off on the return flight freezing rain again began to fall and air officials cancelled the trip. If weather conditions permitted flights will be made to the Magdalen Islands today. Mr. Fowler said.

THURSDAY

HONORED MR. J. E. MATTHEWS—At the recent meeting of the Life Underwriters Association of Canada held in Toronto, Mr. J. E. Matthews, who has been Dominion president for the year 1936, was honored by the members with the presentation of a four-piece silver dinner service. The presentation was made by Mr. J. J. McSweeney at a luncheon held in the Royal York Hotel. Mr. McSweeney paid high tribute to the success with which Mr. Matthews had filled the office of president during the past year. During his term of office Mr. Matthews had visited 16,000 miles visiting all the principal cities and towns in the Dominion and addressing 62 meetings. He also visited the international convention in Boston and addressed a gathering of 3,000 delegates from all parts of the United States.—Brandon Sun.

The death of Clara Stephanie Bertha Ings, beloved wife of A. Bertha Ings, occurred on March 9th last in her seventy-seventh year. Mrs. Ings was the only daughter of the late Dr. Stephen Dodge of Halifax, N. S. She received her education at Mrs. Dashwood's School in Halifax and in Bonn, Germany. For many years resident in Charlottetown she returned here with her family eight years ago after residing for some time in Vancouver, B. C. Mrs. Ings was a member of St. Paul's Church in which she took a keen interest although she had been an invalid for several years.

She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband Col. A. Ernest Ings, and two daughters Olive and Edith all of Port Hill, P.E.I., Jasper of Niagara Falls, Ontario, and two grand children Joan and Walter also of Niagara Falls, Blanchard Dodge of Ottawa and Rae Dodge of Liverpool, N. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robertson, (nee Muriel Dickson) and family, of Kingsboro, P. E. I. have the heart-felt sympathy of their many friends in their sad loss by death of their three months old baby, Elsie Coleen, which took place at midnight of Friday, February 12th, after a brief illness of one week.

The possibility of processing agricultural and fisheries products in this province in place of shipping such products in a raw state was discussed at an economic conference in the Confederation Chamber yesterday. The sessions, presided over by Hon. B. W. LePage, president of the executive council were attended by Mr. F. E. Lathé, M.S.C., Director of the Division of Research Information in the National Research Council, Ottawa. Hon. Mr. LePage is conducting an economic survey of the province.

CARPENTERS DISCUSS WAGE SCHEDULE—Business pertaining to the coming sea-on's work, especially with regard to a proposed new schedule of wages, was discussed at the regular monthly meeting of the Charlottetown Carpenters Union last night. Mr. Harold Bernard, newly elected president of the organization, presided. After considerable discussion the executive was instructed to study the wage schedule and problems relating to it and present its findings at a meeting of the union.

MAGDALEN PLANE MEETS SNOW—Delayed several hours because of fog over the Magdalen, a Canadian Airways twin-motored Dragon took off for the Gulf Islands at 12:15 yesterday and returned to Charlottetown at 3 o'clock. Heavy snow squalls were encountered by pilot Jones on the return flight. If weather conditions are favorable additional flights to clean up accumulated mail and express will be made today. A passenger is here also awaiting transport to the Magdalen.

ISLAND LADY PASSES—Word was received in the city Monday of the death of Mrs. Mary J. Day, wife of Leonard Day, of Arlington Heights, Mass., and daughter of the late Mr. Isaac W. Wadman, Jr., many years an undertaker in this city. The remains are being brought to the Island accompanied by her husband and a private funeral will take place from the McLean Funeral Parlors Thursday afternoon at 2 p. m. to People's Cemetery, Rev. Mr. Denton of the Charlottetown Baptist Church, officiating.

In the closing hours of Monday, February 22nd, she passed to the rest that remained for the children of God one of the most highly respected residents of Graham's Road in the person of Mr. James D. MacLeod. Born eighty four years ago, his whole life was spent in the community. Of a quiet and unassuming manner, and possessed of the highest integrity, he occupied a high place in the hearts of the people. Ever ready to help the poor and needy, and to give assistance to any cause that had for its object the betterment and upbuilding of the community, his place will be hard to fill.

BOARD OF GOVERNORS REPORT—The annual report for year ending January 31, 1937, was presented at the meeting of the Board of Governors, at the Charlottetown Hospital Monday evening. The report showed a substantial reduction in general liabilities. The amount of "free" treatment throughout the year was slightly in excess of $14,000.00. The question of installing a special X-ray machine in the Charlottetown Hospital for treating deep-seated cancer was discussed at length. A special committee was appointed to thoroughly examine the details in connection with the project and report at the next meeting.

Mr. Sellar is a native of Charlottetown and left here about twenty-seven years ago after having graduated as a Student of Law from Dalhousie University and received his degree of L. B. E. He has since then resided in the West.

"Budded on earth to bloom in heaven", may truly be said of the death of little Bobby (James Robert) McAleer, three months old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne McAleer Borden, whom God chose to call back to Himself, and to eternal happiness, rather than to leave him in a world of unhappiness and suffering. Owing to his not having been sick any length of time, his sudden death on Friday, Feb. 12 came as a greater shock than otherwise to his sorrowing parents, to whom much sympathy is extended. Although still so very young Bobby had already found the key to many hearts, and not a few desired to view the little fellow's remains and offer condolences to the bereaved parents.

The funeral of Mrs. W. E. Dawson of Lynn, Mass., took place from the residence of her son, Mr. Reginald Dawson, of Tryon, on March 7th at 2 p. m. and was very largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. T. O. DeWolfe both at the house and grave. Mrs. Dawson was a former resident of North Tryon. She was the daughter of the late Mr. M. C. Delaney, North Tryon. She leaves to mourn besides a sorrowing husband one son, Mr. Reginald Dawson, and two daughters, North Tryon and the following brothers and sisters: Claude Delaney, of Albany, Parker Delaney, North Tryon, Mrs. L. B. Crue, Summerside, Mrs. Daniel MacLeod, Beauce, Mrs. Ham Gamble, Albany, Mrs. George Neth, Lynn, Mass., to whom much sympathy is extended. The remains were accompanied home by her sister, Mrs. George Neth, interment being in the United Church Cemetery Tryon.

The third member of a Prince Edward Island family to die within a year, Mrs. Elizabeth Bell, passed away on February 11th, 1937, at the home of her sister, Miss P. M. Ayers, 115 Fourth Avenue North, Saskatoon, Mrs. Bell had suffered a long illness which she bore with wonderful Christian patience and resignation to the will of God.

Her sister, Mrs. John Drake, died in Kedgewood, Sask., last April, and a brother, Rev. W. N. Ayers died on January 28th in Charlottetown, P. E. I.

In addition to Miss Ayers, there survive to mourn their loss, Mrs. W. E. Leard of Saskatoon, Mrs. W. B. Leard, Souris, Mrs. B. C. Hardy, Union Road, Rev. George Ayers, Summerside, and Dr. J. H. Ayers, Charlottetown.

The funeral service was held in the chapel of the Saskatoon Funeral Home on Saturday, Feb. 13th and the burial was in Saskatoon Cemetery.

She will be best remembered by her Charlottetown friends as the one who in a most self-sacrificing way cared for her aged mother, Mrs. Thomas Ayers, for a period of ten years, after her father had passed away.
