ANCIENT EMBALMING Ancient Egyptians were using bitumen as an aid in embalming as early as 3,500 B.C. Stadium is the Latin form of the Greek word for a standard of length.

Dr. Ichiro Kiyose, above, chief Japanese defense counsel for the alleged war criminals on trial in Tokyo, challenged the jurisdiction of the Far East International Military Tribunal, declaring that Japan surrendered "conditionally", and that the terms of the Potsdam Declaration did not define "crimes against humanity and crimes against peace" as punishable war crimes.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH At the morning service of worship in the Charlottetown Baptist Church Sunday the pastor, Rev. I. J. Levy, B.D., preached on "The Christian Faith and Public Worship" using as foundation for his timely sermon Heb. 10:23, "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together as the manner of some is." This was most appropriate at this season when people start their seasonal neglect of attendance at Sunday worship services. The Book of Hebrews in which the text occurs, is a book both remarkable and mysterious in its authorship and presentation of many teachings but clear and specific in declaring its great and telling theme the supremacy of Christ and Christian faith in comparison with other religions and beliefs and their exponents and upholders. The text points to the necessity of regular attendance at public worship which is a most vital factor in the keeping alive and strengthening the faith of the individual. Public worship with its praise, instruction in things spiritual, meditation upon divine truths and helpful Christian atmosphere and development, brings to mind the meaning and message of the teachings of Christ and their place in the world not found elsewhere. When oppressors, from the time of the Roman Emperor Nero to the present day, have been desirous of subjugating humanity to their own despotic wills, their first object of attack has been the Christian Church and fellowship whose teachings, if not rendered void would defeat their tyrannical aims. While attendance at public worship is not the criterion of Christian expression of faith it avouches a live spiritual interest and furnishes a challenge and encouragement to less interested people to avail themselves of this opportunity for advancement along the Christian way of life. Public worship is a creator of the spirit of goodwill and fellowship. It is exceedingly difficult if not impossible for those who really worship together to have ill-will to one to the other. In no other gathering can be found so many classes socially different and of such varied interests united as one with all differences forgotten, all equated by God's presence as they render praise, thanks and adoration for their creation, preservation and redemption. The pastor stressed the urgency of keeping alive and dominant the Christian way of life. Public worship is a godly living in these perilous days when so many active opposing interests are working to undermine them and argued most effectively and eloquently for regular attendance at public worship to find strength to combat these destructive influences. The pastor's helpful evening topic was "Overcoming Temptation."

Schwartz COFFEE. Say Schwartz - and be Sure! Dependability was one of the wholesome traits W. H. Schwartz inherited from his sturdy Dutch ancestors when he set up his first coffee roaster back in 1841, and made this virtue his life motto. To carry out this policy, his grandsons constantly keep abreast of every development to better their products. Their latest is the Thermo-Roast. By this radically different process, every bean is so uniformly roasted that the coffee is of UNVARYING QUALITY. Be kind to yourself. Try a pound of this newer and finer Schwartz Coffee, now again vacuum-packed for your protection. Make it the Schwartz way and you'll truly have "the cup you can't forget!" But say Schwartz and be Sure!
