HAVE KILLED CHIVALRY.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—The Bishop of London, the Rt. Rev. Arthur Winnington Ingram speaking at Stoke, Newington, said:

"One of the saddest men in England must be the skipper of the trawler which came upon the sinking Zeppelin in the North Sea. The skipper would have liked to rescue the men but was unable to trust the Germans' word. Had he taken the Germans on his ship they might have attacked the crew and the whole German press would have applauded the action as a clever piece of strategy. Therefore we ought to stand by the skipper. The Germans have killed chivalry in warfare."

interest in the social side of life in which she will be greatly missed by her many friends who deeply regret her departure from amongst them but their loss is another's gain and the young people of Morel, the bride's future home, will no doubt take much pleasure in extending to her a most hearty welcome. "SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—The semi-annual examination of the school room January 25th. The school room was tastefully decorated by the teacher and pupils with flags, evergreen, etc. There were thirty visitors present, which shows that the people take a keen interest in the welfare of their school. The pupils were examined in the various subjects by their teacher, Miss Rosella Wood, assisted by Mrs. Edwin McQuaid, a former teacher, and Mrs. Lloyd and Lemuel Jay, they showed very ready answers for the questions carefully taught. After the examination the visitors were entertained by the pupils, with some excellent patriotic and comic recitations, and the manner in which they delivered them reflected much credit on their training. The all present were generously treated to candy, furnished by the teacher and other ladies present. Some very eloquent speeches were delivered by the Secretary, trustees and other ratepayers, all speaking on the progress of the school. The examination was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem. All departed for their homes feeling that they had spent a very pleasant afternoon.

"AN AFFAIR of more than passing interest took place at St. Andrew's Church, St. Andrew's on Tuesday, February the 8th when Miss Tena McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. McDonald, Maple Hill was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Alban Bertram McAdam son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. McAdam of West St. Peter's, the nuptial knot being tied by the bride's uncle Rev. P. A. McDonald of Morel. The bride, who was attended by her sister Miss Annie, looked exceedingly winsome gowned in exquisite blue tailored suit with blue hat trimmed with white ostrich plumes, while the bridesmaid's suit was of blue with hat to match. Mr. Urban McDonald, cousin of the groom, acted as best man. Immediately after the ceremony the happy young couple drove to the home of the bride where a dainty wedding breakfast was partaken of after which the intervening hours were pleasantly whiled away with music and song. A splendid banquet prepared for the occasion in Mrs. McDonald's inimitable style was served at six o'clock and when the guests were ushered to the banquet table laden with tempting viands and choicest delicacies they felt that marriages were indeed made in heaven and that angelic hands were ministering to them. The sumptuous repast terminating short and appropriate speeches were delivered by Dr. R. J. McDonald, St. Peter's Bay, Mr. H. F. Feehan, Ex-M. L. A. Mr. Stewart and Mr. James McDonald of West St. Peter's, all expressing words of congratulations to the young couple to which the groom again ably responded for himself and bride. The remainder of the evening was socially spent in music, mirth and song, the wedding reel being gracefully danced to the delight of the guests the music being furnished by Mr. Aeneas McEachern who is a master musician. Dancing was continued with increasing good will and merriment throughout the evening which was ably assisted by numerous phonograph selections which called forth unstinted applause and admiration the numerous and costly wedding gifts from far and near gave but mute testimony of the popularity of the contracting parties. Among the gifts received were a handsome parlor rug from the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, St. Peter's Bay, a cheque from the groom's uncle, Rev. Gregory McDonald of St. George's, a beautiful painting from Messrs. J. A. Paton & Co., Charlottetown, which all goes to show the high esteem in which the young couple were held. The bride being one of the Miss Stewarts most popular young ladies having been in the employ of Mr. H. F. Feehan for the past three years where she made many friends and gained the admiration of all by her genial and taking manner. She also took a lively

Saved From Paralytic Stroke

BY THE TIMELY USE OF DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD— HAS BUILT UP NERVOUS SYSTEM WONDERFULLY.

Paralysis is not a pleasant thing to contemplate. Even nervous prostration and locomotor ataxia are among the most dreaded conditions. It is always better to avoid these results of neglected nervous troubles by keeping the nerves in health and vigor. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has done wonders for people suffering from the more severe forms of nervous diseases, but we prefer to recommend it as a means of preventing such conditions.

This letter from Mrs. Nichols well represents what we mean, for she was undoubtedly on the verge of more serious trouble when she heard of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and sought its aid.

It is best to be warned by nervous headache, sleeplessness, nervousness and irritability and to apply the remedy in time.

Mrs. Merritt Nichols, R. R. No. 3, Dundalk, Ont., writes: "I take pleasure in writing to tell you the great benefit I have derived from the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I was so nervous I could not sleep and found it hard to get my work done at all, but having no help at the time, had to do the best I could. Finally my left arm became powerless and cold and this continued to get worse until my whole side was affected, head and all. I decided to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and the first box helped me so much that I used several and believe that this treatment saved me from having a paralytic stroke. It has built me up wonderfully, and I can recommend it most heartily, believing that of more Nerve Food were used, there would be much less sickness."

There is no lack of evidence as to the great work of restoration being carried on by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. The sales of this great nerve tonic are rapidly increasing as its virtues are being found out. But this will not help you unless you put it to the test in your own particular case. It is well worth trying, and will not disappoint you. Fifty cents a box, 6 for $2.50 all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

AS GOOD AS A CLOCK

When Rossini, the Italian composer, who was noted for his punctuality, was director of the Theatre Italien in Paris he used to attend the rehearsals every morning. Precisely as the clock struck 9 he came out of his house and hailed the nearest cab. Eventually a certain cabman noticed it and was at the master's door each morning. As soon as Rossini entered the cab the driver would look at his watch and then drive off at a good pace. This proceeding was repeated every day. Rossini often wondered whether the driver looked at his watch to see how much time he had to get to the theater. Finally one day he said to the theater man: "Monsieur will pardon me? why do you always look at your watch as soon as I enter your cab?" "Monsieur will pardon me," replied the cabman laughing, "but I do it to see whether my watch is right."—Novedden Schatz.

A Safeguard for the Family Welfare

The question often arises as to how much Life Insurance a man should carry to properly protect his family. Here is something that will help you to decide. A man earns so much.....he spends so much on himselfaside from what he perhaps saves, the balance goes to the support of the family

Should death occur, this last amount, the balance, is what his family will require annually to live in the manner to which they have been accustomed.

For your own information fill out the following:—

- Total annual family expense is..... $.....
- Deduct amount of personal expenses..... $.....
- Balance being annual income needed to support family..... $.....
- Estate required to yield needed income at 5 per cent..... $.....
- Deduct net cash value of your estate to-day..... $.....
- Balance estate not yet created..... $.....
- Deduct amount now covered by Life Insurance..... $.....
- Additional Life Insurance needed..... $.....

At death Life Insurance takes your place as an income producer.

$20,000 at 5 per cent interest, earns yearly..... $1,000
25,000 at 5 per cent interest, earns yearly..... 1,250
30,000 at 5 per cent interest, earns yearly..... 1,500

The poorer a man the more he needs insurance. The rich man requires insurance to protect his estate. The Company acting in the capacity of Executor and paying regular monthly or annual instalments as desired, thus safe-guarding the principal.

The Great-West Life Policies give the most protection for the least money and pay the highest dividends to policy holders.
