THE RUSSIAN BATTLESHIP MUTINY ODESSA IN FLAMES, FIERCE FIGHTING

Volunteer Cruiser Sunk, Shipping Burned and Crews Join Mutineers—They Land Machine Guns—State of Siege Proclaimed—Russian Government Panic-Stricken

ODESSA, June 29.—(Special)—The mutineers still hold the battleship Kniaz Potemkin and destroyer, flying the red flag.

Another fire is destroying the shipping in the harbor and the buildings along shore.

In the streets the continuous rattle of small arms is heard.

The military are shooting into the crowds which are panic-stricken and rushing hither and thither for shelter. The number of victims is large.

The mutineers have landed with machine guns and are behind barricades fighting with the strikers against the militia.

The crews of other vessels arriving today have mutinied and joined the battleship, which is the most formidable ship in the Black Sea being of the largest size, the newest and swiftest Russian warship in these waters.

The foreign consuls have applied to their governments for protection.

The volunteer fleet cruiser Saratoff has been burned and it is feared much greater damage will be done.

Admiral Kruger's squadron is expected from Sevastopol to-night and is anxiously looked for.

His orders are to summon the mutineers to surrender and if they refuse to sink the ships they hold.

The Emperor has declared Odessa and the district in a state of war and the commander of the troops in this district has been invested with the rights of military authority for the purpose of securing order.

Reports from St. Petersburg indicate that the Government is panic-stricken over affairs here and fears that the mutiny will spread to other ships of the fleet and to the army.

LIEUT. COL. F. S. MOORE.
Commander in Chief of the Island Militia.

WORSE THAN ALL OF THEIR DEFEATS

Intense Excitement at St. Petersburg and the Authorities are in a Panic—The Mutining Battleship is the Most Powerful of the Squadron—Reports of Mutiny Prevalent for some Time.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—More serious in its effects than all the defeats in Manchuria, or the destruction of Rojestvesky's fleet, was the news which reached St. Petersburg early last evening that the standard of open rebellion was floating on the harbor of Odessa, and that with shot and sword the crew, headed by four officers, was holding the ship against all-comers.

The authorities are in almost a state of panic, and at the Admiralty consternation reigns. Admiral Wrenius, chief of the general staff of the navy, said that the Admiralty had received advices regarding the mutiny, but that he was unable to give details. He confessed that the situation was very grave, and he did not know what to expect.

The Black Sea Squadron which left Sevastopol Tuesday under command of Vice-Admiral Kruger was due to arrive at Odessa last night and a battle with the mutineers may occur at any moment. The Kniaz Potemkin is a more powerful ship than any in Kruger's fleet, and the gravity of the situation is increased by the fact that the city is practically in possession of the strikers who have already been encouraged to open resistance by the mutiny of the sailors who were erecting barricades and fighting the police and troops in the streets.

The body of the sailor Omitchuk, lying exposed on the quay in view of thousands, and the story of his cruel death, evidently fired the imaginations of the workmen, who in Odessa are of a particularly turbulent character. Should the sailors of Kruger's ships join the mutineers the Government would have to face open revolt, which would spread like wild fire to other towns in the Black Sea. The workmen of all these towns from which sailors are largely recruited, are imbued with the Socialistic and Revolutionary propaganda. At Sevastopol less than a month ago disorders were suppressed with difficulty.

Ever since the war started reports about the crews of the Black Sea Fleet have been current. Men have been shot and even officers court-martialed for disobedience, and yesterday at Sevastopol twelve sailors were condemned to three years imprisonment for mutiny.

EASTERN TEACHERS ANNUAL CONVENTION

The 6th. Annual Convention of the Eastern Teachers' Association met at 11 o'clock yesterday. About 45 were enrolled.

After enrollment the President P. M. Grant gave an excellent address. He outlined the advance made in educational matters during late years and spoke warmly of the Consolidated school system.

A vote of thanks to Mr. Grant was moved and passed. The question box was well filled with questions by the teachers. These were held over to be answered at another session. Appointment of committees followed. The following committees were appointed:

Nominating Com.—G. J. McCormac, T. Wright, W. Vernon Crockett, Miss Ada Underhay, Mollie McLeod.
Introduction Com.—G. J. McCormac, Miss Maffally, Miss Watts, Mr. Monaghan, T. L. Lavers.

Bye Laws.—T. Wright, J. S. McDonald, P. M. Grant.

Finance.—T. L. Lavers, Miss Fraser, Lambert Cheverie.

Credentials.—J. S. McDonald, Katie Mooney, May Dumphry.

The session adjourned to meet at 1.30 p. m.

The afternoon session of the Eastern Teachers' Association opened at 1.30 p. m. A very able paper entitled Defects of the School Act and How to Remedy Them was read by J. F. Macdonald. He deplored the provisions of Section 13 of the School Act saying it gives the teacher a method of obtaining any shortage in his salary which he does not care to adopt. Also summer holidays should be made compulsory and parents should be present at the time of the Inspector's visit. This paper was ably discussed by J. L. Kennedy, T. Wright, W. V. Coffin, G. J. McCormac and others.

The usual vote of thanks was tendered. The next item was an excellent paper on Composition in the classes by Miss Jennie Morrow who afforded a subject for a very interesting discussion.

Another paper contributed by an absent teacher T. J. Lynch now of Ottawa was read by Inspector McCormac. It showed how school life might be made more pleasant by the school house being kept in a neat condition and by the planting of trees and flowers in the grounds. It was moved that the thanks of the meeting be conveyed to Mr. Lynch.

A number of questions were answered after which the meeting adjourned to meet in St. Patrick's Hall at 8 o'clock. At the evening meeting there was an excellent attendance. J. G. Sterns presided. An admirable address was given by A. L. Fraser, also by Rev. F. C. Simpson and the chairman. The music included solos by Miss Clara Macdonald, Vernon River, Miss Annie McLeod, Georgetown; Dr. McDonald, Souris.

THE PRIDE OF CHARLOTTETOWN

The great auditorium over the Market House filled with the school children of Charlottetown on Thursday morning made a beautiful picture worthy of remembrance.

Beginning with the wee ones who were in the front seats, and flanked on either side with the older and sturdier boys and girls the great room glowed with the beauty and intelligence of the coming men and women, who in only a few years more will in turn sit upon the same platform and review the scenes that they are passing through now.

One feature of this interesting assembly of the little folks, which held our admiration, and showed that the masters and teachers had been careful of their duties was the absolute cheerful obedience to the word of command.

Filing out without disorder, it was quite astonishing how quickly this body of 100 young people passed in military order through the several doorways and formed in company lines in the broad Market Square.

Health, activity, and intelligence, were the three graces that ruled in this throng of happy Charlottetown children, and we were filled with as much pride in watching them as if they were our own.

It was indeed inspiring to hear these children at the close of their school year's exercises, giving forth with their clear, fresh young voices "God Save the King!" with a fervor and a sweetness that aroused the visitors to a feeling of patriotic enthusiasm.

We who have passed the meridian of life must become interested and centered in the children of our day, and the methods and work that will teach and direct them in the primary paths of education, that slowly lead to the time when they must assume the reins of action and of government.

Charlottetown has a right to be proud of the admirable school work so clearly shown today in its results upon the children.

Just What Everyone Should Do.

Mr. J. T. Barber of Irwinville, Ga., always keeps a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at hand ready for instant use. Attacks of colic, cholera morbus and diarrhoea come on so suddenly that there is no time to hunt a doctor or go to the store for medicine. Mr. Barber says: "I have tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which is one of the best medicines I ever saw. I keep a bottle of it in my room as I have had several attacks of colic and it has proved to be the best medicine I ever used." Sold by all druggists.

THE GUARDIAN LOCAL NEWS

Whooping Cough in Jamaica

Mr. J. Riley Bennett, a chemist of Brown's Town, Jamaica, West India Island, writes: "I cannot speak too highly of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has proved itself to be the best remedy for whooping cough, which is prevalent on this end of the globe. It has never failed to relieve in any case where I have recommended it, and grateful mothers, after using it, are daily thanking me for advising them." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

SUPREME COURT.

W. P. Colwill vs. Henry Horne, Action of ejectment.

Mr. Morson, K. C. for plaintiff. Chief Justice gives judgment for the plaintiff for the whole of the land claimed.

Ramsay vs. Craswell.—An application on the part of the defendant to have a judgment marked satisfied, he having paid principal and costs in full. It was admitted by both parties that no legal interest could be collected on the judgment. The plaintiff claims that he still has the right of damages for the detention of the money.

McQuarrie, K. C. showed cause against the rule and Mathieson argued in support. The Court took time to consider.

NATIONAL COUNCIL'S MEETINGS YESTERDAY

The National Council opened yesterday morning with devotional exercises led by Mrs. Lord, after which the roll call, followed by an address of welcome read by Mrs. C. C. Gardiner of the Local Council.

Mrs. McNaughton of the Montreal Local Council replied very happily in an eloquent address.

Mrs. Thompson President, in the report emphasized the need of systematic organization, and referred to what had been accomplished in the formation of societies for the improvement of sanitary conditions and general health of the community.

Invitations were read from the Golf and Lawn Tennis Clubs, offering use of their grounds to the members. A special sermon will be preached in St. Peter's Church, Sunday morning by Rev. W. B. Sisson. On Monday there will be a drive to the Consolidated School at Hillsborough.

At the evening meeting Premier Peters presided very happily and with him on the platform were the Lieutenant Governor, Dr. Anderson and the officers of the National Council. The meeting was devoted to a conference on Act and Handicrafts. The two addresses were given by Mrs. Orr of Ohio and Mrs. Dignam of Toronto. Mrs. Orr's paper evinced much research and conveyed the greeting of the American Federation of Women's Clubs, a great organization of which she is a member of the Advisory Board. Though Mrs. Orr has spent recent summers on the Island at her home in Tracadie, this was her first appearance in a public way before a Charlottetown audience. Mrs. Dignam at the conclusion of her excellent address invited those present to inspect specimens of art work which she had brought with her. These awakened the deepest interest. A very hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Mrs. Orr and Mrs. Dignam on motion of Miss Ritchie, Halifax, seconded by Miss Hill, Toronto and warmly supported by F. L. Hazzard, K. C., and Premier Peters. A number of musical selections were rendered during the evening. The National Council adjourned till 10 o'clock this morning.
