—The surveying ship Gulara was in Summerside yesterday.

—The S. S. City of Ghent was in Summerside yesterday on her usual weekly trip. She had large cargoes both inward and outward.

—Miss Mary Yeo, Summerside, has returned to her home after visiting for some time in Northam, the guest of John E. and Mrs. Yeo.

—There were eight hundred bags of cats and one hundred lbs. of oysters among the shipments of the Empress from Summerside yesterday morning.

—The Sunday School Association of Prince Edward Island, which meets in Summerside on Oct. 15 and 16, will hold its sessions in the Methodist Church.

—A sad drowning accident took place at Tyne Valley yesterday morning in which Roland, four year old son of William Sheehan lost his life by falling into the millpond a short distance from his home.

—There will be a united service of the Christian and the Baptist churches in the Baptist church, Summerside, tomorrow evening. Rev. Mr. Blaney will preach, subject, the new birth, the initial symbol of human sonship and divine fatherhood.

—Quite a number of harvest excursionists arrived home Saturday night last. In the sections in which they worked they report the harvest as well through. Wages were not so good as in former years possibly owing to the large number there were to do the work.

—Tomorrow will be observed as Rally Day in the Methodist Church Summerside, and a service of special interest will be held in the church to begin at 2.45. In addition to other good things, Dr. Rogers of Sussex will give an address to young men and women on the life that now is. All interested are cordially invited.

—Divine service in the Summerside Baptist Church at 11 tomorrow, sermon, "Poor for our sakes." The ordinance of communion will be observed. Service in Bedoune Baptist Church at three p. m. Sermon "The Church." Reception of new members and communion, and in Summerside at seven p. m. Sermon "The greatest force in the world."

—W. A. Cunningham, left yesterday morning for his former home in St. John. Mr. Cunningham came to Summerside several years ago, during which time he was engineer of the Summerside Electric Company, and for the past season has been engineer of one of the tugs working on the Summerside breakerwater. It is understood Mr. Cunningham has secured a good position as engineer on a steamer running on the St. John ferry service. Mrs. Cunningham and family will remain in Summerside until the spring.

—At Emsdale recently in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties, a quiet wedding took place, when Mary L. eldest daughter of Wm. C. McNeill was united in marriage with John Herbert Stewart. The bride becomingly attired in a princess dress of cream silk, entered the room leaning upon the arm of her father. Amid profuse floral decorations and before an arch of beautiful autumn leaves, the marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Wm. A. McNeill, during which, Miss Jessie attended the bride, while the groom was attended by his cousin Ramsay Hardy. Many valuable and useful presents were brought by well wishers. On the next morning the happy couple, followed by the best wishes of a large circle of friends left for their new home in Harding, Mass.

—The old favorites the Boston Comedy Co., opened a three night's engagement in the Market Hall Summerside last night to a large audience notwithstanding the down pour of rain. The play presented was a three act drama, entitled the Little Detective, the different parts of which were exceptionally well taken by the several members of the company. The reception received by Mr. and Mrs. Webber on their first appearance on the stage went to show that they had lost none of their popularity in Summerside. Tonight they present the act drama entitled the White Slave.

—Millinery—Our display of autumn millinery takes place today. The new fashions in fall headwear are represented here in great profusion, gathered with great care from all the best fashion sources. Particularly beautiful are the handsomely trimmed felt hats copied after the latest New York patterns. The shapes have a distinctive style this season, while the trimmings are made up of an endless variety of beautiful wings, fancy feathers, ostrich feathers etc. We will be pleased to have you come in today and view our display. ARTISTIC AUTUMN MILLINERY

We beg to announce that we have now in our show room, a large variety of the newest models in Fall Millinery. That they are beautiful and artistic goes without saying, as our milliner Miss Walpert—after a most successful spring season—is well known to the ladies as an exceptionally clever artist in the millinery line.

Owing to an unusually large stock of Furs, and ladies' Mantles, which necessarily take up a great deal of space, we will hold no formal Millinery Opening this season, as it would result in an uncomfortable crush. However a large display of unusually attractive models are now ready, and the ladies are cordially invited to come at their convenience and view the latest authentic styles as prepared by Miss Walpert and her clever assistants.

The change in the seasons styles, not only includes new shapes, but new materials as well, and introduces new colors and combinations. The fashionable hat is large—very large—with high crown, and brim which droops slightly, or flares high to right side. Hats with sailor brim are also good, with wide high crowns which display to advantage the new fancy bandeaux, large wings, Ostrich plumes and tips now so much in vogue. A great number of the smaller shapes are on the turban order, and these are expected to be very much worn.

Satin plays an important part in the new millinery, as also Ottoman silk and lustrous velvets, with which the striking large Directoire shapes are plainly covered.

The most fashionable colors are Peacock blue, Smoke grey, Empire green tans and Brown. All black hats are excellent style, and jet effects, tinsel bandings and soutache braiding much used. Fancy hatpins are still modish on the plainer models, while on the more elaborate hats buckles—some extremely large—are much used.

We have an unusually splendid assortment of shapes in Felt, Satin, Velvet and Fur, and Miss Walpert, after her recent trip to the millinery centres is better prepared than ever to cater to the millinery wants of our customers.

We guarantee you artistic work—up-to-date materials—fair prices—and correct styles; you can ask no more, and we give you no less. Leave your order
