Is A Business Proposition.

The Principal Asset of the Successful Business Man.

The head of the largest meat packing industry in the world, for many years, prior to his death, never traveled without his physician; every where he was accompanied by his medical adviser; he hired him for his exclusive attendance by the year and considered the large salary paid for such service as a part of his business investment. He did not do this because he was a hypochondriac, in constant fear of illness and death; on the contrary he was an exceptionally robust man, but he realized that the principal asset in his enormous business was his own personal health, to keep physically and mentally well and strong was a business proposition, pure and simple.

It is so with every business man and woman. A slight cold in the head or throat may pass off in a few days, or it may develop into Pneumonia, Chronic Catarrh, or an irritating throat trouble; in any event its departure should be hastened by some simple anti-septic preparation like Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, which are dissolved in the mouth and thus reach and destroy the germs of Catarrh Pneumonia, Consumption, before they have a chance to propagate and thrive in the inflamed mucous membranes of the nose and throat.

To burden the stomach with drugs and stimulants is a foolish and often dangerous way to combat a cold, because stimulants are always followed by corresponding depression and where there is any tendency to Pneumonia increases the danger by increasing the heart's action.

A popular school teacher in Pittsburg writes:—"I am a walking advertisement for Stuart's Catarrh Tablets; the change from a crowded steam heated school room to a raw, chill out doors kept me nursing colds in the head and throat from fall to spring. Throat irritation made it difficult for me to read or speak and conduct my classes. My druggist with whom I spent a large part of my salary for cough lozenges and potash tablets one day advised me to try Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and I shall never cease to thank him. I still catch cold occasionally but I stop it in a day or two with the tablets, and I have done missionary work with my pupils to such an extent that coughs and colds are almost unknown amongst the youngsters in my room."

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY FOR CANADA.

A Strong Company Being Formed in Montreal

BOTH RAPID AND CHEAP

All Parts of Canada to be Connected Commercial and Press Business to be Done.

MONTREAL, Dec. 7.—First steps towards the institution of a system of wireless telegraphy through Canada, which will be a commercial rival to all existing telegraph systems, were taken in the offices of Greenshields, Greenshields & Heneker, advocates, this morning. For two hours Messrs. Willard R. Green and John D. Oppe, representing Marconi, were in consultation with Mr. J. N. Greenshields, immediately after the consultation Mr. Green stated to a Herald reporter:—

The Canadian Marconi Company will soon be an accomplished fact. We have been engaged this morning in drawing up the incorporation of the new company. The meeting will be continued this afternoon. As soon as the details have been arranged the scheme will be given publicity. At present all that can be said is that the formation of the company is well under way. The company's headquarters will be in Montreal. We are at present looking for offices. There are a number of prominent Canadians financially interested in the new enterprise. Their names will be given out as soon as the work of organization has been completed.

"We are confident that the enterprise will be a financial success."

"Will it have any effect upon the existing systems of telegraphy?"

"That remains to be seen. We are confident at all events that the undertaking will be a commercial success." Within the next few months, if Mr. Green's prognostications are correct, wireless telegraph messages will be flashing from the summit of Mount Royal to every quarter of the Dominion. The company will be prepared to accept commercial work of any description. Mr. Green also firmly believes that the near future will see press despatches sent from all parts of the Dominion right into the newspaper offices by means of wireless telegraphy much more rapidly and much cheaper than by any existing system.

Mr. J. N. Greenshields is enthusiastically optimistic regarding the future of the Canadian Marconi Company.

"There cannot be the slightest doubt about its financial success. We would not go into the thing if we were not certain that its commercial value was beyond all doubt."

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

LESSON II, FIRST QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, JAN. 11.

Text of the Lesson, Phil. iv. 1-13. Memory Verses, 6-8—Golden Text, Phil. iv. 4—Commentary Prepared by the Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1902, by American Press Association.] 1-3. Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

The lesson today is entitled "Christian Living," and we are asked to read the whole epistle, which is always a good thing to do with an epistle or any book in the Bible. It would be well to read the epistle through many times till we feel that we have in some measure grasped it and that it has grasped us. At this present time as I write these notes we are endeavoring in all my Bible classes to memorize the whole epistle, taking about three verses each week, for we believe and desire to obey Col. iii, 16; Matt. iv, 4; Pa. cxix, 11; Jer. xv, 16; Job xxiii, 12, etc. I know of no way to stand fast in the Lord or in the grace of God (Rom. v, 2), except by being filled with His word and His Spirit (John vi, 63).

4, 5. Rejoice in the Lord alway. And again I say, Rejoice. Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

A Christian is one who is in Christ, and unless one is really in Christ and Christ in him, though he may be a church member, baptized, confirmed, etc., and as good morally and religiously as a Nicodemus or a Cornelius or a Saul of Tarsus, he is not a Christian. The third chapter of this epistle teaches this or it is more concisely stated in I John v, 12. I emphasize this because one must first be a Christian in order to live a Christian life and be able to say, "To me to live in Christ" (4, 21). When our eyes are opened to see that apart from Christ we are only lost and helpless sinners, but in Him we are indeed citizens of heaven and our names written there and that He who began the work in us will finish it (iii, 20, 21; iv, 3; i, 6), then we will be apt to rejoice in the Lord alway.

6, 7. Be careful for nothing. . . . And the peace of God which passeth all understanding shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Be sure to memorize every word of these two verses and put them in practice and thus enjoy this wonderful peace of God. As one has said, careful for nothing, thankful for anything. With Rom. viii, 32, and Matt. vi, 33, in our hearts how can we do otherwise than as here commanded if we in any sense believe God, and yet how few believers seem to know in their daily life this beautiful peace of God. Peace with God through the blood of Christ is the portion of every Christian, whether realized or not, but this peace of God is only the portion of those who tell Him everything that concerns them, commit all details of their life to Him in prayer and leave all with Him in obedience to, and firmly believing Pa. xxxvii, 4, 5, 7; Prov. iii, 5, 6.

8, 9. Those things which ye have both learned and received and heard and seen in me, do, and the God of peace shall be with you.

The things true, honest, just, pure, lovely and of good report had all by the grace of God been seen in Paul, so that he could say as in chapter iii, 17, "Ye have us for an example, but there is only one perfect example, and we are taught to run with patience, looking unto Jesus" (Heb. xii, 1, 2), to see Jesus only and consider Him (Mark ix, 8; Heb. iii, 1; xii, 3), for in Him alone all things were seen in perfection, and high as the standard may seem, God desires nothing less than the life of Jesus made manifest in our mortal flesh (II Cor. iv, 10, 11).

10-12. I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.

This is another beautiful phase of the Christian life—rejoicing in the Lord greatly, whether full or hungry, abounding or in want. The prophet Habakkuk had learned the secret, for he could say, Though vine, olive, fig tree, flocks and herds all fail, yet I will rejoice in the Lord; I will joy in the God of my salvation (Hab. iii, 17, 18). If we have confidence in God as our Father, we must believe that He is always doing His best for us and He will not suffer us to hunger nor to lack anything we need unless to suffer a little is the very best and only way to prepare us for the glory He is preparing for us. He suffered Israel to hunger and also His own dear Son (Deut. vii, 2, 3; Matt. xxi, 18), but in the farmer it was to prove them to do them good, and in the latter it was that He might be a high priest who could fully sympathize with His people (Heb. ii, 10, 17, 18; iv, 15, 30).

13. I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

How can this life be lived? Never by any efforts of ours, not by any struggling or trying on our part, but only by yielding ourselves to God (Rom. vi, 13) that He who manifested Himself in Christ may manifest something of the same life in us who are redeemed by His precious blood. Before we can know the power of His resurrection (ii, 10) we must know what it means to have been crucified with Him, for then only can we say, "I live, yet not I, but Christ, liveth in me" (Gal. ii, 20). In Christ by virtue of His finished work we have a standing before God which is perfect (Phil. iii, 15; Heb. x, 10, 14); but as to our daily life here before men we are to be ever pressing on to perfection, aiming to apprehend that for which Christ has apprehended us (ii, 12, 14), relying upon Him to work in us both to will and to do of His good pleasure (ii, 13). The rest of this chapter must be included in our meditation, but especially verse 19, which so fully covers all we can ever need on this side of the kingdom.

Beautiful Furs!

The balance of stock on hand in manufactured garments will be closed out at prices that will interest you. We don't trouble you with paltry discounts. These prices are made to clear our stock of made up goods. We do not appeal to your pocket book with the argument that our furs are so much cheaper than the ordinary kind, we simply say that ours are better, leaving this to your judgment for verification.

AN INTERESTING LETTER.

The Tablet makes public for the first time an interesting letter which was addressed by Queen Victoria to the Pope in 1887, in which year, it will be remembered both His Holiness and Her Majesty celebrated their Golden Jubilee, the one as Bishop and the other as Queen. The letter reads:—

"Windsor Castle, Dec. 12, 1887. "Your Holiness will allow me to seize the occasion afforded me by the mission of the Duke of Norfolk to repeat to you how much I have been touched by the felicitations you have had the goodness to address to me by Mr. Ruffo Sella for my Jubilee, and to thank you again for the magnificent mosaic you have been pleased to send me. I desire, in my turn, to congratulate your Holiness on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of your entrance into the Church in which you have so highly distinguished yourself by your seal in maintaining peace and goodwill amongst men, in appeasing civil discords, and, above all, in honouring the God whom you and I both serve."

"I am, your Holiness's faithful friend, "VICTORIA R. I.

"P. S. —I have charged the Duke of Norfolk to present Your Holiness with a souvenir, which I pray you to accept on my part. It is a copy I have had made of an ancient piece of plate in my collection here at Windsor."

HERRING FISHERY GOOD.

St. JOHN, N.B., Jan. 5.—A prolonged period of mild weather has seriously affected the frozen herring industry in Newfoundland waters and a number of American fishing vessels will have to wait a long while before they can secure cargo. The herring fishing at Bay of Islands was unusually good to the end of last year, 160,000 barrels of herring being taken. The catch is valued at $250,000.
