Make your salads sing!

TRUE ESSENCES of many a fine, sun-ripened harvest of corn, barley and rye. That's what Heinz Malt Vinegar and Heinz White Vinegar offer you—to make your salads sing! Heinz Cider Vinegar is made from whole, sun-ripened, juicy apples. All Heinz Vinegars aged in wood for months before bottling. Now you know why Heinz Vinegars are so extra-fragrant, tangy, zesty, lasting in flavour.

In a salad dressing, in the salad itself, in your cooking or on the table, Heinz Vinegars offer superb quality and a richness of flavour out of all proportion to the few cents extra they may cost. It's always true economy to buy the best. Your dealer has the three kinds of Heinz Vinegar for your choice. (Remember this at pickling time.)

Heinz Olive Oil is another pantry necessity. From the first pressing of fine, ripe olives grown near Heinz own plant at Seville, Spain. Clearer. Smoother. More flavoursome.

"Flavour Magic" a booklet with scores of original, clever recipes for salad dressings, sauces, candy, frostings, desserts and cooking—made thrilling with Heinz Vinegars—sent Free. H. J. Heinz Company, Toronto, Ont.

McPhee-Tennant Nuptials
 CORONATION DAY CHOSEN BY BRIDE; TO VISIT HONOLULU
 Coronation Day was chosen for one of the prettiest weddings of the season which was solemnized in Wesley United church, Calgary, Alta., at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening. Before the pulpit, banked with standards of snagdragons, carnations, marigolds and fern, Doris Anne, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Tennant became the bride of Mr. William Lloyd McPhee, only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McPhee.
 Rev. Douglas H. Telfer officiated at the ceremony which was solemnized at 7:30 o'clock. Miss Ida Tennant, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Jessie Lees bridesmaid.
 The bride who was given in marriage by her father was radiant in her white satin gown. It was simply fashioned with knife-pleated collar and cuffs and its skirt fluted at the back ended in a graceful train. Her filmy veil cascaded in graceful folds from a shimmering diamond coronet and she carried a bouquet of Madame Butterfly roses and lily-of-the-valley.
 Miss Ida Tennant wore a pretty gown of soft green tulle fashioned over satin and accented with a brilliant girle of paddy green, a shade reintroduced in the bow which marked the neckline. Her hat was a becoming Bo-Peep model and she carried a shower bouquet of yellow roses and white carnations.
 The bridesmaid, Miss Jessie Lees, was gowned in a similar frock of pale yellow and she too carried yellow roses and white carnations.
 The bridegroom was attended by Mr. Jack Roberts and ushers were Mr. Second Tennant and Mr. William Girvin. Miss Mae Allison of Pincher Creek played the wedding music and during the signing of the register Miss Maybelle Buchan sang "O Promise Me," accompanied by Miss Allison.
 After the ceremony ninety guests were received at the home of the bride's parents by the wedding party standing under an arch of flowers and ferns.
 Mrs. Tennant, the bride's mother wore a smart gown in coronation blue with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses, while Mrs. McPhee, mother of the bridegroom, chose black chiffon and lace, with which she wore a large hat trimmed with brightly hued flowers. Her corsage was of roses and lily-of-the-valley.

BARBECUED SPARERIBS
 Three to four pounds spareribs, two onions, two tablespoons vinegar, two tablespoons Worcestershire sauce, one tablespoon salt, one-half teaspoon red pepper, one teaspoon paprika, one-half teaspoon black pepper, one teaspoon chili powder, three-fourths cup (eight-ounce bottle) catsup, three-fourths cup water. Select meaty spareribs and cut into pieces, allowing two to each portion, or leave the rack uncut. Place in a roaster and cover with the sliced onions. Pour over this the barbecue sauce made by combining the remaining ingredients. Cover and bake in a moderate oven an hour and a half. Baste occasionally, turning spareribs once or twice. Remove cover from roaster during last 15 minutes of baking. Replace onion slices if they have fallen off and brown ribs. Serves six.

MOLASSES ROLLED OATS COOKIES.
 Molasses adds flavor as well as food values and make a most delicious mixture.
 One-half cup molasses, 1-2 cup brown sugar, 4 tablespoons melted butter, 4 tablespoons melted shortening, 2 eggs, 1 cup sifted flour, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon baking soda, 1-4 teaspoon baking powder, 1-2 teaspoons ground ginger, 1 cup rolled oats.
 Add brown sugar and melted fats to the molasses and blend well. Beat the eggs until light, and add to mixture, mixing well. Sift the flour, measure it, mix and sift the dry ingredients except the rolled oats. After sifting these, add the rolled oats and mix well. Add to the other mixture gradually, mixing in thoroughly. Drop from the tip of a teaspoon into a well-greased cookie sheet. Bake in a slow oven (325 degrees) for about half an hour.

 A farmer stood watching the golfing novice trying to hit the ball. Earth was flying in all directions, and the would-be golfer's face was crimson.
 "My word," he blurted, turning to the farmer, "the worms will think there's an earthquake."
 "I don't know," replied the farmer, a twinkle in his eye. "The worms be craty little beagars round these parts. I guess most of 'em be 'lding under that ball for safety."
