Smuggled Jewels Seized

augmented with the killing at Los Angeles, last August of Mrs. Theresa Mors, with whose murder "Kip" McCoy has been charged, was received here yesterday when agents of the service in New York notified the treasury they had unaccounted details of the smuggling operation. The treasury was informed that a man named Medianski, now in flight to a foreign country, was the person who actually had brought the jewelry in.

Any information concerning the identity of Medianski was withheld by officials, but it was indicated that their knowledge was not definite as to how long he has operated or how much jewelry in the aggregate had been smuggled into the country.

Came Through New York.
 The jewelry possessed by Mrs. Mors was first to be identified positively. From that beginning the agents, it was said, ran down a series of clues in Pacific coast cities. They found much jewelry here in San Francisco and Los Angeles.

EXCITING RUN.—An exciting fox chase took place at Union Road the other morning when a black fox escaped from the ranch of George A. Mellish. After being chased around the farm buildings and eluding all efforts to capture him, he gained the highway and turned north through the settlement. Mr. Thomas Mellish was notified by phone, that the fox was out on the road and to shoot it, but before Mr. Mellish reached his gate the fox had passed. Being an expert rider and a good shot, he mounted his best horse and taking his gun gave chase. For the first half mile the race seemed hopeless, down dale, over bridges, and up hill, on they flew. But his good horse having in his veins the blood of thoroughbreds now began to steadily gain on the fox, and when within a safe distance for a sure shot, Mr. Mellish took aim and fired. The fox leaped in the air and came down by the road side. The rider lost no time in dismounting to secure it, and was delighted to find it alive and uninjured, save for a small wound on one leg. The fox was replaced in the ranch, not much the worse for his run, and Mr. Mellish, (Tom) is receiving congratulations from his many friends.

Had Premier By Collar

The book purporting to give what is known in American slang as "inside stuff" is certain to cause a sensation.

Duel is Suggested.
 "Clemenceau flatly accused Lloyd George of repeated inaccuracies, the editor says, describing the incident referred to. Lloyd George rose and seized Clemenceau by the collar demanding an apology. Woodrow Wilson separated them. Then Clemenceau offered Lloyd George reparation with pistols or swords, as soon as the British Prime Minister should have resided in France long enough to acquire a domicile and meanwhile the "Tiger" refused to apologize."

On another occasion, Steed says, he himself suggested to Clemenceau that the French Premier talk with Wilson and ascertain what he wanted.

Sneers at Wilson.
 "Talk to Wilson." Steed quotes Clemenceau as retorting, "How can I talk to a man who thinks himself the first man for 2,000 years who has known anything about peace on earth. Wilson imagines he is a second Meesliel. He believes he is sent to give peace to the world, and that his preconceived notions are the only notions worth having."

"I've done everything to gratify him. I receive him at the foot of the staircase as though he were the King of England, but still he's not satisfied."

Clemenceau added, Steed says, that talking to Wilson was futile, that they would never reach an understanding.

On Tuesday evening Nov. 4th, quite a large number of the residents of North and South Rustico met at the home of Mr. Chester Woolner to bid good-bye to Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Toombs. Mr. F. W. Woolner and Miss Mabel Woolner on the eve of their departure to Kensington. Mr. and Mrs. Toombs were presented with a handsome electric piano lamp together with the following address: Mr. Toombs was also presented with a beautiful Teacher's Bible by the session of the Covenish congregation.

To Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Toombs.
 Dear Friends:—
 We have gathered here to-night to bid you good-bye, on the eve of your departure to Kensington, and we would endeavor to express to you in some slight degree the loss this community sustains by your removal.

You have been the leaders in our church work, have assisted in all activities for the good of the community, and have given your generous support to every worthy cause.

We will miss your hospitable home where you have ever been an ideal host and hostess, where young and old found a welcome and carried away pleasant memories of your kindness and good cheer. You have always endeavored to help the sick and afflicted within your reach, and many a home has been cheered and comforted by your presence in their time of sorrow.

In conclusion we rejoice that you will be so comfortably situated in your new home and unite in wishing you many years of health, happiness and well deserved leisure. We ask you to accept the accompanying gift as a token of our love and esteem.

Accompanying the following address were two cut glass salad bowls.

To Mrs. H. J. Toombs and Miss Mabel Woolner.
 From North Rustico Auxiliary W. M. S.

Dear Friends:—
 We have learned with deep regret that you are soon to take up your residence in another community, and in consequence must sever your connections with our society.

We feel that we cannot allow you to leave us without a few words of appreciation of the splendid service you have rendered this society ever since its organization.

As our President for so many years we have learned to look to you, Mrs. Toombs, for counsel and encouragement.

You have both been most faithful in attendance, and we will miss your cheery presence, as well as your hearty support in everything undertaken for the good of the cause for which we are banded together.

We know that you will carry the missionary spirit with you, and that our loss will be another society's gain.

We would especially thank you, Miss Woolner, for your willing and most efficient services as our organist. You have always taken charge of the musical part of our programmes for which we are indeed grateful.

Our very best wishes for your future happiness go with you both to your new home.

Kindly accept the accompanying gifts as a slight token of our love and esteem.

Signed on behalf of the members,
 Mrs. Granville Buntain,
 Mrs. Morten Williams,
 Mrs. James L. LoPage,
 Miss Lucy Woolner.

IN MEMORIAM
 LESTER D. McCALLUM

The sad death occurred at the home of his sister, Mrs. R. S. Ballou, Rockingham, N. H., on October 23rd of Lester D. McCallum, youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McCallum of North St. Eleanor at the early age of 30. A little more than two years ago Mr. McCallum took the A. S. Gordon Barber Shop at Meredith, New Hampshire, in which business he was very successful and was regarded as a fine citizen.

Last winter he was taken ill, pneumonia developed and his life was despaired of. As he began to gain a little he was taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Coates, an ideal spot overlooking Lake Winnepesaukee, the higher altitude being thought necessary and there every tender and loving care were constantly ministered for his comfort.

For weeks he hovered between life and death and almost miraculously it seemed he recovered enough to sit up and finally get out of doors.

Several weeks previous to his death he went to the home of his sister where he slowly weakened and died October 23rd.

During his sojourn in Meredith Mr. McCallum had become a member of Chocorua Lodge, A. F. & A. M. and of Belknap Lodge or Oddfellows. He was a regular attendant at North Church and a member of the Whittier Men.

A large delegation of his brother Masons and Oddfellows made the trip from Meredith to Rockingham a distance of 85 miles on Sunday the 26th where a very beautiful and
