Canadiens And Rangers Finners In Doubleheader Juvenile Bill Last Night

Canadiens and Maple Leafs chalked up victories last night in a double-header juvenile hockey league held at the Holy Redeemer Rink.

Canadiens showing a decided edge took the Red Wings into camp to look the Red Wings in the first period of the 4-1 victory.

Both games witnessed by another large crowd of fans produced the same stirring competition as has featured every game of the league to date.

The Phils received first baseman Ed Levy and pitcher Allen Gettel who performed last year with the Yankees' Kansas City farm in the American Association.

Edman will fill the gap created by the entrance into military service of Buddy Hassett, who came to the Yanks in December, 1941, from Boston Braves.

The big left hander joins the steady parade of first basemen who have moved in and out of the hot which Gehrig held through his record run of 2130 games and gave up voluntarily when he began to feel the effects of the rare disease that eventually caused his death.

The Yanks assigned the job to Babe Dahlgren for a time. Then came Johnny Sturm, now in the army. They tried to make a first baseman out of Joe Gordon and filled in with Tommy Henrich. Levy started in the position last season but soon gave way to Hassett, who held until early in the world series when a finger injury forced him to give way to Gerry Priddy.

Says Baz O'Meara: Ever so often someone comes along to expound his theory of sport power or power given as they call them. Often now when it comes to what they start out with the name of Eddie Shore. The Boston influence has spread to a point where they power house hockey comes up for discussion.

These were great players but why do they punks over-look Howie Morenz. Schmidt was undoubtedly a grand player, but he couldn't get into motion. He was the fastest breaker in hockey of his day, or any day for that matter.

Clancy was a fast breaker, but he wasn't as fast as another Shore named Hamby who played for Ottawa Senators years ago.

That Shore could outbrake Fiedle and outskate Fiedle any time. He outskated the great Clydebe Taylor in a memorable power-run game which he carried the puck too while doing it. The reason was because Taylor while very fast in flight didn't break so fast.

According to present plans ice racing fans will be treated to probably three days of inter-provincial competition during the week of Feb. 15.

Hallifax horsemen are expected over to take part in the big meet against the cream of the Island horseflesh and fans are already looking forward to the big meeting.

It will be remembered that two seasons ago a two-day meet was held here. That it went over in a big way is a certainty. Largest crowds that ever witnessed ice racing here were on hand for both day's racing and holding the meeting did much to add a lot of interest and impetus to the game.

Arrangements will be even better for this year's program. Not a bet will be overlooked to make it the outstanding event in the annals of Maritime ice racing and at the same time pave the way to make the forthcoming inter-province meet an annual affair.

When New York Yankees begin their campaign for another baseball pennant April 21, the man at the base will be Nicholas Raymond (Nick) Etten—the eighth player to hold down that position since the late Lou Gehrig benched himself in 1939 after 17 years on the job.

Dipping into the National League for the second time in 13 months to get capable first sacker, the American League champions obtained Etten yesterday from Philadelphia. Phils for two players and cash estimate at around $10,000.

The Phils received first baseman Ed Levy and pitcher Allen Gettel who performed last year with the Yankees' Kansas City farm in the American Association.

Edman will fill the gap created by the entrance into military service of Buddy Hassett, who came to the Yanks in December, 1941, from Boston Braves.

Calder's Condition Said Unchanged

TORONTO, Jan. 26 — (CP) — President Frank Calder of the National Hockey League was still resting quietly at St. Michael's Hospital today, 24 hours after he was taken ill following a heart seizure at the meeting of the League's Board of Governors here yesterday.

His condition was officially described as unchanged. Hospital attendants stated that the 65-year-old Montrealer was in no danger as long as he rests quietly but it is possible that he may have to rest for at least three months.

The N.H.L. Governors will probably meet again in Toronto next week to make their decision on the situation arising from Mr. Calder's illness. Red Dutton, manager of the disbanded Brooklyn Americans, is temporarily handling the affairs of the N.H.L. from the head office in Montreal but it was explained here that Dutton has his own business affairs to look after in Calgary.
