

WHEN GIRLS WEAR WOOLIES DAYS ON END THEY FIND IT HARD TO KEEP A FRIEND!

HERE'S HOW TO KEEP WOOLIES DAINTY

Some girls, otherwise fastidious, think nothing of wearing wool undies for several days on end. It's frightfully silly—because wool carries perspiration odor.

No—if you want to stay popular, remember to dip wooly undies in Lux just as often as you do your thin summer ones! Lux keeps woolies dainty, soft and cosy—helps them to wear longer, too. Tonight—dip your woolies in Lux!

NO MORE SHRUNKEN SOCKS Spare hubby's temper, by keeping his socks soft and comfortable with Lux. Remember—Lux won't shrink socks—so dip them regularly, just as you do your own precious stockings.

A large number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon MacWilliams Cape Traverse, on Friday evening, February 20th, to tender a post-nuptial shower to their daughter, Mrs. Douglas Crossman and O.S. Douglas Crossman, while he was spending a three-days leave at home. The living-room was handsomely decorated in red, white and blue. The bride and groom were ushered to their seats by the bride's cousin, Miss Olga MacWilliams, and the groom's brother, Mr. James Crossman while Mrs. John MacWilliams, aunt of the bride, played the Wedding March. A large basket trimmed with red, white and blue, was heaped with parcels, which were opened by Mrs. Harry Doull. The accompanying cards and verses which created lots of fun, were read by Mrs. Frank MacKay, Misses Dorothy Gardner and Mildred Howatt received the presents from the bride and arranged them on the table. They consisted of linen, china, and silver, also a goodly sum of money. On behalf of his wife and himself, Douglas thanked their friends for the many lovely gifts, after which "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" was sung. The remainder of the evening was happily spent in singing and games which both young and old enjoyed to the utmost. Lunch was served and after bouncing the groom, with many expressions of good wishes for his safe and early return to his home and friends, the evening closed with God Save The King.

quilt, 1 baby's quilt, 3 pairs socks, 1 child's sweater, 1 pair pyjamas, and 2 sleeveless sweaters passed in to the Red Cross. The Questionnaire on Social Welfare was filled in by the Convenor, Mrs. Stevenson. Mrs. Stewart MacLennan was requested to prepare her Questionnaire for the next meeting. After some discussion it was decided to hold the March meeting in the classroom in the form of a social evening, the proceeds to go towards rings for the boys on active service. Mrs. Kenneth Muttart kindly invited the members to her home for the April meeting. After a delicious lunch served by the committee in charge, the meeting closed with the National Anthem.

WORLD'S DAY OF PRAYER AT HAMPTON
The World Day of Prayer was fittingly commemorated at Hampton on February 20th with ladies from Victoria Women's Missionary Society and Appin Road in attendance. The meeting was held in the United Church Manse. The theme of the Service was "I am the Way". Mrs. Donald Murchison president of the Victoria Women's Missionary Society presided in a very capable and reverent manner. Mrs. John Ferguson of Hampton gave the opening prayer. Hymn "Thou art the Way" was then sung. Prayers were given by Mrs. Murchison and Mrs. Nell Ferguson of Bonshaw. The Evening Auxiliary of the Victoria Women's Missionary Society, which has been formed during the past year took part in the service. The following members of this Auxiliary led in prayer: Mrs. Evan Wright, Mrs. Donald MacLeod, Mrs. Fred Inman, Mrs. Wendell Rodd, Mrs. Norman Boulter, Mrs. Gordon MacDonald, Miss Olive Holm, Miss Annie Gordon. A very beautiful duet was sung by Mrs. Geddie MacLeod and Mrs. Stephen MacLeod of Bonshaw. Mrs. (Rev.) D. J. Morrison gave the prayer of dedication. Mrs. A. B. MacLeod of Bonshaw and Mrs. Clayton Morrison of Hampton also led in prayer. The closing prayer was given by W. J. Dalby, acting general traffic manager of Trans-Canada Air Lines said here today in an interview that T. C. A. plans to initiate service to Alaska and to Newfoundland this
