LETTER TO THE GUARDIAN EVERYBODY SHOULD READ

Alexandria, Lot 49, August 27th, 1910. Guardian Pub. Co., Advertising Dept.

Dear Sirs—We have received many applications for our school in answer to our advertisement in The Guardian and have engaged Chester Balderson, Lot 48. You will please take our ad. out of the paper.

Yours very truly, LAYTON McCABE. Note—The above speaks for itself. School Trustees who have not been able to engage a teacher should not hesitate in placing an ad. without delay in The Guardian. 7-29-10.

"Our kisses are so good and sell so fast that we are constantly getting in fresh supplies. They are absolutely pure and their daintiness and sweetness will please the palate of any epicure. We have them in all flavors, try a pound today." "The Two Macs," 149 Great George Street, Charlottetown.

"One of our low priced Hammocks at a further discount of 25 per cent off is a real snap for anybody who appreciates the solid comfort of a Hammock this hot weather." See them at CARPENTER'S Bookstore, 8-4-10.

"McDougall's celebrated Scotch clay pipes. The best and cheapest smoker you can use. 10c. each. Get one before they all go. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, successor to A. W. Reddin, 8-4-10.

THE MONTAGUE PRINCIPALSHIP

Dear Sirs—In reference to the Montague School question. A petition was circulated among the ratepayers, requesting them to reinstate Mr. Fraser as Principal. This petition was signed by at least nine-tenths of the ratepayers, not more than four or five on either side of the Bridge refusing to sign it, and there were men of nondescript character, most of them having no children, and consequently taking little or no interest in school matters.

The body of the people wish Mr. Fraser, and have demanded his reinstatement. This is going to make it awkward for the new principal. How can anyone teach successfully knowing that nine-tenths of the people are opposed to him?

The trustees have agreed to stand pat and neither say or do anything. The one thing they seem to be anxious to do is to thwart the ratepayers, and for the least worthy of all reasons, because one or perhaps two of them have a personal spite against either Mr. Fraser or the Fraser family. What are people to think of men holding public positions and allowing personal feeling to guide their conduct? If men cannot act for the good of the community they surely are unfit for public position.

Under the circumstances, if the trustees had one spark of spirit they would resign it at once, knowing as they do that the whole community is practically opposed to them.

Yours, etc., MONTAGUE NORTH.

GRAND ART GALLERY AT ST. JOHN FAIR

Vigorous Committee Co-operating With Art Clubs All Over.

On a few isolated occasions the people of St. John and New Brunswick generally have been favored with quite extensive displays of art works, and numerous valuable canvases have been brought to these parts. During the ten days of Dominion Exhibition—September 5th to 14th—the St. John Art Club, supported by the Exhibition Executive, will hold an Art Loan Show of unusual excellence. This gallery, to be situated in a large portion of the new building adjoining the main structure, and before the final arrangements were made a guarantee of over fifty magnificent paintings was secured from the Art Union of London, as well as assurances from connoisseurs in the large Canadian centres that over one hundred rare works would be forthcoming in addition to the many more pictures, plastic art works, bronzes, rare art fabrics, etc., as well as an exclusive collection of ceramics. A generous money allotment has been made to fit up the art gallery under the direction of an expert gallery superintendent and those who enjoy graphic and applied art works will be assured of some rare delight at the St. John Fair. Among those who will lend some of their choicest treasures will be Sir William Van Horne, of Montreal. 8-4-10.
