Dodgers Defeat Cards To Snap 5-Game Losing Streak

Rain forced postponement of the doubleheader softball league...

Officers and Corporals can hardly be beaten out but it is a far different story as far as Navy, Sergeant and City All Stars are concerned...

Postponements have been frequent since the league started...

In the meantime fans are really chafing at the bit...

The following taken from the Ottawa Journal should prove interesting to followers of the Big League here:

Baseball writers have started pegging some critical paragraphs in the direction of President Will Harridge...

The Potter incident has been seized on as something of a "cause celebre"...

Where Harridge—not to mention Umpire Hubbard—is vulnerable is in deciding that Potter really threw a "splitter"...

But how to tell when a hurler is deliberately moistening the ball? For instance, any pitcher wiping the perspiration from his forehead might be charged with committing a baseball felony...

Where such a violation of the rules starts and where it finishes is the current subject of argument...

Harridge has placed himself in a position for criticism by refusing to permit any appeal from the St. Louis club...

Any reference to a "splitter" has been avoided by both the American League president and Umpire Hubbard in making his report...

By The Associated Press Tom Warren, rookie Brooklyn right-hander, pitched the Dodgers to a 10-4 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals in the first game of a National League doubleheader...

Phillies twice in a doubleheader, 4-2 and 1-2. Henry Wyz, although relieved in the ninth inning of the first game by Hob Chipman, got credit for his 10th victory...

The Cubs won the first game when they dubbed Charley Schanz for nine hits and four runs in the first five innings.

In the second game the Cubs piled up seven runs on Al Getheiser the first five frames, and coasted to a victory behind Fleming's steady hurling.

At New York, Cincinnati Reds and New York Giants divided a win-bill, as Frank McCormick sparked the Reds to a 9-3 victory in the nightcap, by hitting two home runs, each with one on.

In Saturday's games, St. Louis Cardinals hammered out a total of 24 hits and made them good for 26 runs as they swamped the luckless Dodgers 14-2 and 12-7.

WARSAW: Where Nazi Brutality Shocked the World

Parade of triumph, Warsaw, 1939. Now but a page for Hitler's book of bitter memories.

Poles flee homes burned by Nazi incendiaries. Behind brick wall, right, is "black hole" ghetto.

Jewish boy cleans ghetto street. His helpless elders, right, are lined up in Gestapo roundup.

On Sept. 1, 1939, when Hitler's armies entered Poland, and Warsaw was that country's pride. "We will fight to the last drop of blood," radio Warsaw said. The first 11 notes of Chopin's Polonaise were repeated over the air on a studio xylophone every 30 seconds between announcements, to show that the city was still Polish. On Sept. 27, the Poles again burned Nazi offers to surrender, but the next day, the Poles were no longer heard. Warsaw, burned, battered, starving, capitulated. Because Warsaw was the first great city to fall to the Nazis, their brutality as conquerors, which has become grimly commonplace, shocked the world. Jews were herded into the Ghetto, caged behind an eight-foot concrete wall around the 100-block area. They were impressed into slave labor in the mines, and were forbidden on the streets after 7 p. m. Poles and Jews alike who dared object to this treatment were beaten or shot, their homes burned to the ground; the Nazis spared them no imaginable indignity. Photos above show typical instances of how the conqueror treated the conquered.
