Prince Of Wales Squad Win Hard Game From Saints

City Collegians Celebrate Entry Into Senior Rugby Circles With 5-3 Victory.

With ideal football weather for the opening game of the season, a large number of fans, college rooters and football enthusiasts, the Prince of Wales rugby team defeated Saint Dunstan's yesterday afternoon 5-3 in a game packed with thrills.

The victors have the potentialities to make themselves one of the finest football machines turned out by P. W. C. in years and the dogged tactics exhibited yesterday in defeating the Saints makes them a threat in the senior city loop, should they enter.

Although costly fumbles and inaccurate passing marked the play, it provided plenty of excitement for an opening tilt.

The Saints put up a splendid battle and were in an ace of tying the game with a penalty kick about twenty yards out, but the ball booted by Gillis, fell far to one side of the uprights.

Ivan Walsh's long dash when he scooped up a loose ball for a 50-yard run, ending in a touch, converted by Owen, was the highlight of the game. O'Connor, the Saints' full-back, played a whale of a game and several times, particularly in the latter half, started plays which carried the Saints into scoring position.

play gave the red and white their three points, Gillis failing to convert.

Second Half

Sensing a chance to turn defeat into victory, a determined Saints' squad came out in the second half, but were met by equally determined opponents who clung tenaciously to their two point lead. Repeatedly repulsed the Saints had an opportunity to even the score when Simpson, preventing a sure score in a neat tackle on his five yard line, attempted to crawl, resulting in a penalty. The penalty kick, taken by Gillis fell to one side of the uprights. Play wavered back and forth for the remainder of the game, the P. W. C. quarters proving a bulwark which could not be broken.

As is often the case in initial games, there was much high tackling and inaccurate passing, but both teams exhibited the primary requisite of determination to play the game. With this spirit in evidence a successful football season is assured in intercollegiate circles, as perfection in style of play is merely a matter of practice and conditioning.

The lineups follow:
F. W. C. Fullback O'Connor

CARLOADINGS SHOW GAIN

MONTREAL, Que., Oct. 17.—Carloadings, which economists use as one of the basic factors in their charts of the rise and fall of business activity, show sympathetic response to the upward trend in business. For the month of August, states the Industrial Department of the Canadian National Railways, there was a gain of 8.5% in carloadings in Canada as compared with the preceding month, there being a total of 185,555 carloads for the month of August against 162,728 the preceding month.

PAKHI SOILS

In New Zealand, the term pakhi is applied to water-logged soils comprised of close-textured silt or clay, underlain for the most part by a dark brown pan, once thought to have resulted mainly from the deposition of iron compounds, but now shown to contain, in certain cases, a high percentage of organic matter with relatively little iron. These soils are of exceptionally low fertility and carry a sparse growth of rush, umbrella fern, mosses, sedges, and lichens. The physical properties of the soil are not those of a sponge, and being very retentive of water, remain in a constantly boggy condition throughout the areas in which they are located.

COLLEGE STARS MEET SATURDAY FOR MAR. TITLE

(Canadian Press)

HALIFAX, Oct. 17.—Dalhousie and University of New Brunswick tennis stars will meet at Sackville on Saturday for the intercollegiate championship of the Maritime Provinces.

Dalhousie eliminated Acadia University today, two matches to five. Donald Sinclair, of Saint John, manager of the Dalhousie team, won two matches and lost one.

Bluenose May Remain In Ont.

(Canadian Press)
TORONTO, Oct. 17.—Possibility the Bluenose, fast Halifax schooner, would remain on fresh water until Spring was seen here tonight when it was learned Captain Angus Walters was seriously considering an invitation of the Toronto Harbor Commission to leave the boat tied here. Bluenose stopped over at Toronto enroute home from the Chicago Fair, since 1934 is Toronto centenary, the Harbor Commission felt the famous schooner would be a great attraction and the invitation was extended. No decision had been reached by Capt. Walters, however, although it is known he regarded the invitation with considerable approval.

ANCIENT PULLMAN PALACE TURNS UP ON SHORE ON HUDSON BAY

MONTREAL, Que., Oct. 17.—Once a luxurious conveyance, an ancient Pullman sleeping car built in August 1872 and named the "Conway" is doing duty as a general storehouse on the western shore of Hudson Bay. Until 1880 it saw service on the old Eastern Railroad of Massachusetts. Then it was remodeled and christened "Capitano," a barber shop and bath being incorporated. Twenty-four years later it again changed its name to "Mariborough" when it was sold to a private party. Its history then ran through devious channels and it next turned up in Canada and became the property of a railroad contractor engaged in the building of the Hudson Bay Railway, being used as a business car. The next stage in its career was its transfer to the Canadian National Railways. Gone now are its barber chair and bathroom and the rest of its luxurious fittings but, like old soldiers, railway cars never die.

McLeod's Superb As Miners Even Up Title Series

Burly Right Hand Of Springhill Team Allows Kiwanis But Three Safe Hits—Score Is 2-0

(Canadian Press)
ST. STEPHEN, N. B., Oct. 17.—St. Stephen-Milltown Kiwanis bowed before Springhill Fence Busters in the second game of the Maritime senior championship finals here this afternoon. Superb pitching by Stew McLeod, burly Springhill hurler, plus consistent fielding, blanked the New Brunswick champions 2-0.

Today's victory for the Fence Busters deadlocked the best-three-out-of-five games series at a win apiece. The scene will now shift to Springhill for games Friday and Saturday of this week. If a fifth contest is necessary it also will be played at Springhill, probably on Monday. Kiwanis won the opening yesterday, 3-2.

McLeod was far from lavish, limiting the losers to three hits. All St. Stephen hits came with two men down, two being singles while Godfrey clouted a two-bagger.

Opposing the Nova Scotians on the mound was "Mike" Calder, ace right-hander of the Charlotte County team. While touched for seven hits, none of which went beyond a single, Calder's tricked hurling had the visitors baffled after a bad first inning, when the winners scored their two runs.

McDonald collected three safeties off Calder, his first being the forerunner of both runs, moulded by a base on balls, a single over the infield by O'Brien, Albon's fly-out

IRON DUKES DEFEAT HLFX. SOCIALS 3-0

Win Nova Scotia Intermediate Crown—Will Not Meet Summerside in Semi-finals.

(Canadian Press)
HALIFAX, Oct. 17.—Springhill Iron Dukes today won the Nova Scotia intermediate championship by taking their second straight game from the Halifax Socials, 3-1. The Dukes won the first game at home 17-2.

The first two innings went scoreless, Springhill scoring their first run in the third when Beaton's drive to second baseman was muffed, allowing Spence to cross the home plate. Dukes' second run came in the fourth when Pepperton drove one out to right field, scoring McKay. Nokes got the third run for Springhill in the first half of the ninth on a single to right field by Dyken. Halifax got their only run in the last half of the ninth as McDonald drove one out to right field scoring Shirley.

Excitement prevailed in the ninth inning when Halifax needed three runs to tie the score. Campbell reached first safely and Burns took his turn at bat. With two strikes on him he cracked a terrific hit out to centre field that looked like a sure homer. At the crack of hickory on horsehide, Beaton shot away on what seemed a hopeless run to get the ball. It went high over second base and he stuck out his hand, picked it out of the air. It was not until after this that Shirley came home on McDonald's drive.

The Nova Scotia champions will play off with Prince Edward Island titlists for the Maritime intermediate crown.

Noted British Sportsman Files Challenge For Famous Yachting Cup

LONDON, Oct. 17.—(A.P.)—Thomas Octave Murdock Sopwith, sportsman and aeroplane manufacturer, today took up the task of regaining the America's Cup where Sir Thomas Lipton dropped it, and filed a formal challenge for 1934 for the most famous yachting trophies.

With a new all-steel boat now under construction and aptly named the Endeavor, he will go to the United States next year to race the pick of yachts there for the "battered old mug" which Sir Thomas and other British yachtsmen vainly have sought possession of since 1850.

Official announcement of the challenge was made by the Royal Yacht Squadron, original donor of the trophy and of which Sopwith is a member. It will be filed with the New York Yacht Club, which holds the cup under a perpetual deed of gift from the men who won it in 1850 at Cowes and gave it the name of their boat, The America.

Dramatic Turn In Reich Fire Probe

Four Nazi Leaders Are Implicated In Plot.

(Associated Press Staff Writer)
BERLIN, Oct. 17.—(A. P.)—A dramatic development in the Reichstag incendiary trial came today with the announcement that four highly-placed Hitlerite leaders would be called as witnesses to tell of the activities on the night of the blaze.

They are Wilhelm Goering, Premier of Prussia and a Reichs-Minister, and Propaganda Minister Joseph Goebbels, who are accused in the "Brown Book," of being the "brains" behind the Parliament building fire last February, Count Wolf Hendrich Von Helldorf, and Edmund Heines.

Prosecutor Karl Werner proposed that they be called to "answer the monstrous allegations put forth in the Brown Book," a volume published by a commission headed by Lord Marley which purports to give cases of alleged Nazi mistreatment.

Werner said Heines and Count Von Helldorf, a former Lieutenant who served a prison sentence for a political murder and the two ministers would be heard under oath.

Defence Attorney Alfons Sack protested that these hearings would be unnecessary on the ground that the allegations were "merely calumnations," but the court decided otherwise.

The prosecutor read from the "Brown Book" to the effect that

Phantom Light Recalls Ghost Indian Legend

(Canadian Press)
VERMILION BAY, Ont., Oct. 17.—A peculiar, ghostly light that floats tantalizingly out of reach, has intrigued residents of this little lake resort. The phenomenon, which has revived Indian legends of a Windigo or a ghost woman, is observed nightly on various parts of Cedar Lake, between Dryden and Kenora.

The will-o'-the-wisp first was noticed by visitors to the new federal airport landing field. A large light, of a soft, diffused character, it was noticed riding about three feet above the bay waters directly in front of Three Mile Island.

Peculiar action of the light and the fact that no one was out on the lake at the time prompted some of the less superstitious watchers to investigate. Boats were launched and a group of the more adventurous headed for the spot.

The party had travelled 100 yards from shore when they were surprised by the realization the light was moving ahead of them, keeping always to an even distance. They followed the glow to the shore of Three Mile Island where it described a seemingly mocking arc and disappeared into the bush.

Indians of the district believe the will-o'-the-wisp is a light carried by a ghost woman searching for someone she cannot find. Quite a few are of the opinion Vermilion Bay has been visited by its own ghost, long dormant. They spent many hours in the lonely watches of the night, waiting for a recurrence of the strange manifestation
