

Cure Coughs

Don't trifle with coughs, nearly every case of bronchial or lung trouble is the result of a neglected cold.

Don't pick a remedy carelessly; when any cough cure is needed, the BEST is needed.

A good remedy saves time, discomfort, money and it protects from danger.

The best remedy we know of is

Jamieson's White Pine and Tar

It tastes good, it is harmless, the dose is small, the bottle is generous size, it heals, soothes and strengthens, it cures the cough.

Satisfaction

Morell, P.E.I. 13th February, 1915.

T. Edgar MacNutt, Esq., Agent, Sun Life Assurance of Canada, Charlottetown, P.E.I.

Dear Sir,—I am in receipt of cheque for $538.50, being the profits to February 1st in my policy in your company.

This is over 28 per cent. of all the premiums I paid in this "20 Payment Life" policy, which I have as profits, besides carrying my risk all these years.

I still have a paid-up policy, payable at death, for $3,000.00, which policy is still bearing profits every five years.

This paid-up policy has cost me in actual cash $1,254.50, besides the risk of carrying me all these years, and I still have this profit-bearing and fully paid-up policy for $3,000.00.

I am well satisfied, and if there is any better policy than this I have not heard of it so far. I now wish I had made it $5,000.00 instead of $3,000.00, but there you are.

Wishing you every success, I am, H. D. MACEVEN.

For life insurance consult T. E. MacNutt, manager for P.E.I., Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada. Paid to policy holders in 1914 over $6,000,000. Agents wanted. 9028-3-16m31

TEACHER'S CONVENTION

The semi-annual convention of the Southern Teachers' Association will be held at Prince of Wales College, Charlottetown, on Friday and Saturday, April 16 and 17.

The programme will consist of papers, addresses and discussions, dealing with the more important features of educational work.

A number of new text books on school management, nature study, school gardening, and music will be submitted for inspection and approval. An interesting part of the programme will be the exhibition of the class-work of the pupils.

Teachers are respectfully requested to bring with them samples, specimens or collections of the following or the product of any other activity, which will serve to illustrate the nature and extent of the work being carried on in the public schools: Penmanship, Drawing, Compositions, Pen and Pencil Book, Books, Examination Papers, Collections of Insects, mounted, Collections of Weed Seeds, mounted, Collections of Flowers, cultivated or wild, present and mounted, Collections of Native Woods, Weather Charts, Bird Charts, Flower Charts.

Exhibits may be either school or individual. All samples should be properly labelled with name of schoolname of pupils, grades, etc.

Contributions are expected from every school in the inspectorate, as it is desirable to make the exhibits as large, as varied, and as useful as possible.

Teachers are requested to give this matter their most serious consideration. A full programme will be published later. HARVEY CHRISTOPHER, President. ALBERT SIMPSON, Sec'y-Treasurer.

AMBASSADOR'S DAUGHTER ENGAGED

LONDON, March 12.—Walter Hines Page, the American Ambassador and Mrs. Page, have announced the engagement of their daughter Katherine to Charles Greely Loring, son of the late General Charles Loring, of Boston.

KINGSTON SIGHTED THREE AEROPLANES.

KINGSTON, ONT., March 13.—The special G. T. R. constable at Kingston Mills bridge over the Rideau reported yesterday that he and three other persons saw three aeroplanes flying low over the foot of Rideau Lake, going northeast in the direction of Ottawa. Col. A. P. Sherwood, chief of the Dominion Police, Ottawa, was informed of the aeroplanes. He reported that one aeroplane was seen in the vicinity of Smiths Falls at one o'clock today.

TALES TOLD BY MEN IN THE FIGHTING LINES ON LAND AND ON SEA

"Choke-artirusalem-Je," was the order given in a restaurant by an ordinance official, according to an amusing story which "Eye Witness" relates in his latest narrative from the front. What the official wanted was, of course, a Jerusalem artichoke, and "Eye Witness" tells the story as an instance of the Ordinance Department's system of nomenclature. The department he says, is the Military Universal Provider. Another story, says "Eye Witness," refers to the habit of economizing words which becomes almost second nature to those continually engaged in telephoning and making long lists. A warrant officer of the department who was in the habit of assisting at church service on one occasion, when announcing the hymn, said in a loud voice of command: "Hymn number two double O seven. Art thou weary; ditto languid; ditto sore distressed?"

THE VOICE OF THE EMPIRE. From every corner of the self-governing Dominions, Colonies and Dependencies alike, the voice of the Empire has made itself heard with no uncertain tone since the outbreak of the war. The utterances of the leading statesmen of Great Britain beyond the seas have well matched those of the members of the Imperial Cabinet.

WORTH ALL THE SACRIFICES. An officer writes home: I may come home for my 188 hours' leave and the very thought of civilized life again amuses me. There are so many 'necessary' things I have not done for a long time. I fervently hope there will be no sheets on my bed and the bath water won't be hot. It would take a very low temperature to burn me now. I think I shall live away in some little corner where I cannot see any khaki.

I haven't been up a flight of stairs, seen a carpet or armchair, or tasted fresh fish for three months. I haven't been in a real shop, or seen a smart woman, or heard music or walked in anything harder than mud for three months. I haven't tasted fresh water or even "fizz" since I have been away. I haven't seen an evening paper. I haven't drunk out of a china cup. I haven't eaten off a china plate. But the experience I have had through has been worth the sacrifice of all these things, and I wouldn't sell a moment of it.

PLEASURES OF A REAL BATH. A Bombardier writes:—"The Germans have bombarded a cabbage patch in front of us with their heavy guns, creating great loss of life among the terrible and warlike cabbages; otherwise, I don't think they have done any harm, as there didn't appear to be any living soul near them. They have been pegging away all day and I hope they will continue all night. They are our ammunition and every shell dropped there will be one less among our troops.

I have had the wish of my life; I have had a bath, not one with a cupful of water and a shaving brush, but a real one, and I enjoyed it, although I had to march six miles away in the rain to get it, and didn't need it too.

I have got everything in the soap and towel line, but if you care to send along a mouth organ it would come in handy, for although I cannot play one myself, I daresay some other fool can. I saw a battalion of our crack infantry marching along the other day headed by a band composed of a big drum, two side drums, and one mouth organ. Talk about martial sounds.

Corporal E. Washer, of Lewes, who is with the 2nd Scottish Regiment at the front, has just been put in touch with a long lost friend in a remarkable way.

Washer was reading a Lewes weekly in the trenches when a German bullet penetrated the paper. While examining the hole Washer noticed the bullet had passed through a paragraph relating to the wedding of an old chum in Canada, a private Stanley Killick, Winnipeg, whom he had lost sight of for some years.

He is now corresponding with him. "NO HYSTERIA OF HATE" A member of the Australian Light Horse writes from Egypt: Our camp in the town of Maadi which is an English suburb of Cairo. We are under canvas. Things are by no means colour de rose, but I have no regrets. I want to see the Germans smashed up before next winter and want to lend a hand. I suffer from no "hysteria of hate," but merely wish and would welcome the news to plunge them into the infernal regions.

We have one tent per troop to sleep in and as there is only about room for two-thirds to pack in, I sleep in the open outside. The food was scarce at first, but is improving. We are now getting a special allowance of 6d. per man from the Egyptian government.

A Lance Corporal in the London Scottish writes: Most of the trenches have their particular names, this being obviously necessary, for these form mazes. It is possible at most places to walk back from the front trenches as far as a mile without once showing a head above ground. "Paradise Alley," "Old Kent Road," "New Kent Road," "Hyde Park Corner," "Gibraltar Lines"—these are all the more or less appropriate names given.

The worst night I have spent was in "Paradise Alley." Imagine a deep ditch, water and mud in the bottom, varying from 6 to 18 inches deep. That was our home for the night and day. Before midnight the frost began, and the moon was making night day. Starting at one's feet the cold creeps up one's body slowly, going in a business-like manner into every little corner. Dreams of a farm bed, a roof, a fire

Operation Decided On As Only Means of Relief

But the Writer of This Letter Resolved to Try Dr. Chase's Ointment First and Was Cured.

This is not an isolated case, for we frequently hear from people who have been cured of piles by using Dr. Chase's Ointment. After physicians had told them nothing short of an operation could bring relief and cure. If you could read these letters, coming as they do, day after day and year after year, you would realize what a wonderful curative agent Dr. Chase's Ointment really is. Few ailments are more annoying or more persistently recurring than piles, and when this suffering is promptly relieved by the application of Dr. Chase's Ointment there can be no doubt as to where credit is due. Friends and neighbors are told of the results and so the good word spreads, and Dr. Chase's Ointment is becoming known far and wide as the only actual cure for piles or hemorrhoids. Mr. Charles Beauvais, a respected citizen of St. John's, Que., writes: "For 14 years I suffered from chronic piles or hemorrhoids and considered my case very serious. I was treated by a well-known physician who could not help me, and my doctor decided on an operation as the only means of relief. However, I resolved to try Dr. Chase's Ointment first. The first box brought me great relief, and by the time I had used three boxes I was completely cured. This is why it gives me such great pleasure to recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment to everybody suffering from hemorrhoids as a preparation of the greatest value." JOFFE THANKS NEW YORK FOR GIFTS

PARIS, March 15.—General Joffre, the French commander, has sent a letter to Mrs. Clara Washington Top of New York, thanking her heartily for the large supply of tobacco she gathered for distribution among the French soldiers. Most of the supply was obtained in New York. General Joffre's letter follows: "I hasten to thank you heartily and sincerely for the magnificent gift you sent on behalf of generous friends in America to my brave soldiers. I am deeply touched to see your great country taking an interest in them. They deserve all the gifts which are made them because of the courage, energy and unalterable good humor they bring to the defence of a noble cause. You have helped to give them a little joy."
