New Annan And Vicinity

When we hear the birdies twitter, Spring is here. When the snow will melt each snowdrop. Have no fear. But spring has come with all its glory. As of yore, the same old story. Spring! just spring.

Mrs. Aeden Moore, has returned after spending a very pleasant visit with her sister Mrs. William Cousins.

Mrs. Houston of Charlottetown Hospital spent a pleasant holiday with her mother, Mrs. Pillman. Travellers Rest.

Messrs Emmitt MacMillan and Cedrick Baker were weekend visitors at Linkletter Road.

Messrs John and Wm. Heggarty of this place attended the funeral of the late Emit Carver which took place at the home of his parents Linkletter Road. A wide circle of friends extend their heartfelt sympathy to the family in their very sad bereavement.

Mrs. Chester Tuplin spent the past week end with friends in Summerside.

Mr. Daniel McMillan, New Annan has had his incubators in full swing for some time. Mr. MacMillan carries on quite an extensive business in poultry farming, making a specialty of geese raising. He is conveniently situated near a nice running brook for this line of business and needless to say "Dannie knows what he is about".

R. John Moore spent the week end in Charlottetown.

Edward Poole, Travellers Rest was at New Annan Saturday evening.

Mrs. Isabelle Moore, New Annan is receiving old acquaintances in Summerside.

Mr. H. MacGregor, McGibbin, Pastor of Summerside Baptist church held service in Welmot Valley hall, Sunday 25th with a large crowd in attendance.

Mr. Frank Glover, Kelvin was in New Annan Saturday evening.

Miss Ernestine Marchbank Summerside spent the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Percy Marchbank New Annan.

Miss Mamie Mill Clermont one of P. E. I.'s most popular school teachers is at present teaching in Kensington high school, relieving Miss Nellie Goodwin who we are sorry to hear is indisposed at her home.

Slush and mud! mud and slush! and still more of it is the under of the day.

Miss Ruby Moore, a popular young lady of New Annan recently returned to the Capitol where she was a delegate to the Anglican Convention there.

Mr. John Pillman, Travellers Rest was in Summerside Monday on business.

Mr. John MacLean of Summerside and formerly of New Annan has been doing a rushing business cutting wood during the winter months and these days he is "on Clark, Cavendish; E. R. Huggan, Chilton; Marion Campbell, Alvina Easter, Bessie Cummings; Evelyn Campbell, New Wiltshire; A. E. Benoit; Ottawa T. W. Bentley, Charlottetown; T. J. Inman, Beque; Earnest Crossman, Beque; D. V. Messrs Thomas Schurman and Neil Joe MacNeill, New Annan, were to Summerside Wednesday on business.

A large flock of wild geese passed over New Annan Monday evening. As far as the writer knows, this is the first flock seen in this season. This I suppose a veritable sign of spring. What gifts the flocks of the air are possessed with! How they know when to return! We surely welcome them back to our Island home.

Messrs James Marchbank and Harold R. Moore, New Annan were passengers on the morning train Thursday, en route to the Capitol where they expect to remain a few days. While there they purpose to attend proceedings of the legislature.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Montgomery, an esteemed and aged lady is ill at her home in Travellers Rest. All that loving hands and hearts can do is being done for her. A wide circle of friends and relatives hold out hopes for her recovery.

Mr. Ira Crozier Wilnot was a recent week-end visitor to New Annan. He reports the travelling is in quite a serious condition, but to quote "an old timer" a "seller has to go roads or no roads."

Mr. B. F. Pillman is home again after spending a very pleasant visit with friends in the East.

Mr. Daniel McKinnon, who has had a very severe cold is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Clark, Hunter River former residents of Charlottetown were recent visitors to Kensington.

I'll say a fond good night to all. Who have these few notes read. And hope you'll have the sweetest dreams. When cozily tucked in bed.

Hunter River And Vicinity

Mrs. Chester Champion, Kensington visited here last week the guest of her sister Mrs. Lemuel Silliphant.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bertram, who intend removing to Charlottetown have disposed of their farm to Mr. Newman of Kingston.

The Easter meeting of the W. M. S. of the united church is being looked forward to with interest as a special program is in the hands of a capable committee. It will be held at the home of Mrs. William Silliphant on Thursday evening.

Delegates appointed to represent this society at the P. E. I. Presbytery early in May are Mrs. J. Rackham, Miss Janice Andrews (substituting for the president) and Mrs. D. M. MacLeod. The delegates from the mission band are Miss Annie Carew (pres.) and Miss Dorothy Dingwell.

Sincere sympathy goes out to the immediate relatives and friends of the late Mrs. Everett Nicholson, who passed away at her home in Borden on Thursday evening.
