Miss Catherwood Leaps Five Feet To Canadian Record

TORONTO, Aug. 15.—The performance of Miss Ethel Catherwood of Saskatoon, who broke the world's record in the high jump and the record in the javelin throw, Canadian mark in other performance overshadowed all other performance at the Canadian Women's Track and Field Meet and Olympic trials at the University of Toronto Stadium Saturday afternoon. The tall blonde girl from the west created a sensation among local followers of women's sport and was the centre of interest when she cleared the bar at five feet two inches, but gave up after two attempts when she injured her right foot. She had jumped one-eighth of an inch higher than the record. Miss Catherwood attempted to clear the bar at five feet two inches, but gave up after two attempts when she injured her right foot.
