Persons unable to get No 133, The Guardian news department, by phone at any hour are asked to ring 124 as it is useless to call up any other number. In the interim, between the hour of closing Saturday night and that of opening in the early morning of Monday, communications and news can be dropped in the letter box of The Guardian main entrance, and further enquiries can be made by phoning above.

The death took place at Dalington, Strathalbyn, on Sept 24th of Christina, relict of the late James Cummings, in her 50th year. Deceased was an exemplary, Christian woman. A humble and devoted follower of Jesus, she ever sought to adorn the doctrine of God, her Saviour in all things. Though having attained to such an age, she retained the use of her faculties to the end. Her husband and three daughters preceded her. Four sons remain. Alexander of Vancouver, British Columbia; Alan and James of Colorado; and Malcolm at home. Also one daughter Mrs Geo D. McLeod, Hunter River.

On Tuesday Sept. 28th, 1909, the home of Mrs G. H. Chase, of 80 Fairbanks St, Brighton, Mass, was the scene of a very handsome noon wedding, when her sister Lottie A. MacBachern, of Boston, Mass, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to William O. Jennings, of New York City. The bride was dressed in a very handsome Greek costume of white messaline silk, trimmed with wide white fringe and French knots, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. She was given away by her sister Mrs E. L. Fisher of Ferris Hotel, Wonalancet, N. H. The groom was attired in the usual black. The bridesmaids, who were Misses Jeanette Green and Amy Evans carried large bouquets of pink roses, while Angus Gillis supported the groom. The wedding march was played by Miss Hazel Wheeler. After the wedding dinner the happy couple were escorted by all the guests to the Metropolitan Steamship Wharf, in large touring cars, whence they left amid showers of congratulations and confetti, on board the Harvard on their wedding tour to New York, Penn, North Carolina and Florida, including a visit to the groom's former home in Marathon, N. Y. On return Mr and Mrs Jennings will make their future home in New York City. Numerous valuable gifts testified to the good wishes of their friends. Mrs. Jennings is the daughter of Donald and Mrs MacBachern, Mermaid, Lot 48, P. E. I.

Our New "Modern" A. A. Waterman Fountain Pens

we believe are equal in mechanical construction, to the best pen made. In addition to this, they have the following undeniable advantages. 1 They are self-filling, filled in a twinkling. 2 As there is no joint they cannot leak and soil the fingers as many good pens do. 3 The act of filling also cleans the delicate ink channels and prevents clogging.

We have the best $1.00 pen on the market.
