

GOOD PICTURES IN POOR LIGHT WITH A MODERN KODAK

Now you can take good pictures inside your house—or outdoors when the skies are cloudy. Modern Kodaks, with their fast lenses, admit more light to the film for better exposure.

Come in and let us tell you more about the Modern Kodaks and their extra picture making ability. Look over the unusual values in our complete, moderately priced line. Kodaks and Brownies as low as $1.25.

"Let us do your developing, printing and enlarging."

J. ERNEST H. WORTH

10,000 Reproductions Prepared in Four Years.

Classified Advertisements

One Insertion 10c per line of 5 words
Three Insertions 25c per line of 5 words
Four Insertions 35c per line of 5 words
Eight Insertions 70c per line of 5 words

Agents Wanted

MEN WANTED. PROFITABLE, steady employment selling our famous line of guaranteed quality Trees and Plants. Now and best varieties that sell easily and quickly. You make good money, paid weekly. Free up-to-date equipment and instructions. Write: Luko Brothers Nurseries, Montreal, A. W. 100.

SALESMEN - WONDERFUL opportunity for capable men to earn big money selling Exclusive Line Men's Neckties and the new Royal Buckingham Table Cover direct to consumer. Full or spare time. Experience unnecessary. Liberal commission. Write today for Free Sales Outfit. Dept. 1403, Public Service Mills of Canada, Limited, London, Ontario. A. W. 5-21-67-14-21-23.

For Sale

FOR SALE, TO LET, BOARD AND room signs on hand at Guardian Office.

SEVERAL CHEAP WORK HORSES, all sound. P. McGrath, Covehead Road. 4221-6-14-51.

FOR SALE - NEW CART, BODY built of oak. Wm. J. Scott, Marshfield, P. E. I. 4123-6-14-11.

FOR SALE - HORSE, GOOD ROAD-est-sound. J. R. Hanna, Young Street, Gaytown. 4297-6-13-21.

FOR SALE - COMFORTABLE HOME in good repair, quantity wood, large garden. Apply Mrs. Partridge, York. 4412-6-13-31.

FARM CONTAINING 60 ACRES OF land with good buildings. Apply Brecken Wood, Alexandra. 4110-6-13-41.

FOR SALE - A QUANTITY OF ... 4122-6-14-11.

FOR SALE ONE JERSEY GIANT Cockerel and a few good laying hens. Apply 235 Glenora Street. 4293-6-12-31.

FOR SALE - AN UP-TO-DATE cottage, all modern conveniences, and nice barn suitable for garage. Apply 17 Colton Street. 4393-6-13-41-51-61.

FOR SALE - 34 FOOT BOAT, engine room and living apartment. For particulars call or write. Small or open boat may be considered in payment. Nathaniel G. Pownall. 3723-5-6-14-21-31.

To Let

TO LET - GARAGE, 61 CRAFTON St. 4212-6-14-21.

TO LET HOUSE AT HAZELBROOK Apply Guardian Office, 4361-6-12-31.

HOUSE TO LET, FRANK DORSEY, Weymouth St. 4419-6-13-31.

Nursing

YOUNG WOMEN DESIRING TO enter class of North Adams Training School for Nurses, North Adams, Mass., please write: Supt. promptly. School qualifies pupils to secure registration. Provides monthly allowance and privilege of six months' course at Bellevue Hospital, New York City. All expenses paid. N-6-5-11-12-13-14-15.

DR. W. R. CARSON Palmer Graduate Chiropractor Chronic and Nervous Diseases 124 Prince St. Opposite St. Paul's Church

Central Guardian

CHERRY VALLEY Church of Christ, Cherry Valley, tomorrow at 3 p. m., Church Army Van officers will officiate. All welcome.

HOPE RIVER AT INDIAN RIVER - Hope River will present the thrilling drama, "The Noble Outcast," Wednesday night, June 18 at Indian River Hall. 4440-6-14-41.

A FEW MOMENTS THOUGHT - In almost every candy store in the province, the "Want-a-name" bar goes on sale today. Ere September 1, this bar will have a name given it by some enterprising person, who possesses a spark of originality. A few moments' thought will be most profitable for somebody, probably to the extent of $50, but in this connection, the reader's attention is directed to Page 5, where full particulars are given. Judging by the large reported advance sale of this bar, it would appear that the contest will go over with a bang.

DANGEROUS PRACTICE - Weymouth street, from Dorchester to King streets each evening presents the aspect of a children's playground, and a very dangerous one at that. A Guardian reporter counted twenty-five children on that section of the street ranging in age from three to ten years, almost a dozen of which were operating "scooters", and were in constant danger of serious or even fatal injury to themselves. Preventive measures should be taken to cope with this nightly nuisance to motor traffic, before a fatality occurs. The presence of the police patrol in that section of the city between 7 o'clock and 8, should have the desired effect.

PERSONALS - Mr. and Mrs. A. Scott, Halifax, are visiting in the city.

Mrs. T. D. Ling, Wheatley River, who recently came to live in the city has taken up her residence at 183 Euston St.

Miss Dorothea Stewart returned home last night from Ottawa on a visit to her grandmother, Mrs. D. Stewart, Kent Street.

Mr. Joseph C. Murphy, York, is spending a few days at Summerville the guest of Albert and Mrs. Curran.

Mrs. Ralph E. Jenkins, accompanied by Mrs. J. D. Jenkins, Mrs. William Mayfield and Miss A. T. Cook returned Tuesday from a motor trip from Boston, Mass.

DEATHS - ADAMS - At Burlington, P.E.I., on June 13, 1937, Mrs. James Adams, aged 79 years. Funeral today, Saturday, at 2.30.

MCINNIS - On June 12, 1937, at West Bethel, Maine, Charles W. McInnis, aged 60 years, formerly of Winslow, P.E.I.

IN MEMORIAM - In loving memory of Joseph Stewart, died June fifteenth, 1926. Fondly remembered by Wife and Family.

IN MEMORIAM - In loving memory of the late W. C. Whitlock, who died June 14th, 1923. Inserted by his wife and family.

IN MEMORIAM - In loving memory of Joseph Stewart, died June fifteenth, 1926. Fondly remembered by Wife and Family.

IN MEMORIAM - In loving memory of the late W. C. Whitlock, who died June 14th, 1923. Inserted by his wife and family.

IN MEMORIAM - In loving memory of Joseph Stewart, died June fifteenth, 1926. Fondly remembered by Wife and Family.

IN MEMORIAM - In loving memory of the late W. C. Whitlock, who died June 14th, 1923. Inserted by his wife and family.

IN MEMORIAM - In loving memory of Joseph Stewart, died June fifteenth, 1926. Fondly remembered by Wife and Family.

IN MEMORIAM - In loving memory of the late W. C. Whitlock, who died June 14th, 1923. Inserted by his wife and family.

IN MEMORIAM - In loving memory of Joseph Stewart, died June fifteenth, 1926. Fondly remembered by Wife and Family.

IN MEMORIAM - In loving memory of the late W. C. Whitlock, who died June 14th, 1923. Inserted by his wife and family.

IN MEMORIAM - In loving memory of Joseph Stewart, died June fifteenth, 1926. Fondly remembered by Wife and Family.

IN MEMORIAM - In loving memory of the late W. C. Whitlock, who died June 14th, 1923. Inserted by his wife and family.

IN MEMORIAM - In loving memory of Joseph Stewart, died June fifteenth, 1926. Fondly remembered by Wife and Family.

IN MEMORIAM - In loving memory of the late W. C. Whitlock, who died June 14th, 1923. Inserted by his wife and family.

IN MEMORIAM - In loving memory of Joseph Stewart, died June fifteenth, 1926. Fondly remembered by Wife and Family.

IN MEMORIAM - In loving memory of the late W. C. Whitlock, who died June 14th, 1923. Inserted by his wife and family.

IN MEMORIAM - In loving memory of Joseph Stewart, died June fifteenth, 1926. Fondly remembered by Wife and Family.

IN MEMORIAM - In loving memory of the late W. C. Whitlock, who died June 14th, 1923. Inserted by his wife and family.

IN MEMORIAM - In loving memory of Joseph Stewart, died June fifteenth, 1926. Fondly remembered by Wife and Family.

IN MEMORIAM - In loving memory of the late W. C. Whitlock, who died June 14th, 1923. Inserted by his wife and family.

Western Guardian

DOUBLE APARTMENT HOUSE IN SUMMERSIDE in residential section for sale, orchard, shade trees, and shrubs on nice grounds. Large plot of land adjoining. Will be sold in lots or included with house. Any one desiring one of the finest homes should write box 423, Summerside, P. E. I. 4451-6-14-31.

PERSONALS - Mrs. Wallace Williams, of Summerside, is visiting in Charlottetown.

Mr. Hooper Linkletter and Mr. Major Townsend were delegates from Trinity United Church, Summerside, attending the conference at Sackville, N. B. S.

Mr. Laurie Peters has given up his position with Messrs Bell and Chandler of Charlottetown and is now living with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Peters of Summerside. He will work at his trade in Summerside, S.

Colin Craig of Middleton and Mr. Martin of Heatherdale attended the United Church conference at Sackville last week. On their return Mr. Martin visited his daughters, Mrs. Wilfred Craig of Middleton and Mrs. Lockhart of Seaview, S.

Eastern Guardian

EGLETON AND HOWE BAY WOMEN'S INSTITUTE - The regular monthly meeting of this Institute was held at the home of Mrs. William Fisher, on Wednesday, June 4th. Ten members and five visitors were present. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Roll call was answered by "Where I would like to travel." Decided to give $6 from the funds towards the Red Cross Campaign. Miss Marjorie Harper and Miss Ellen Stead appointed to canvass Eglinton district and Miss MacDonald to canvass Howe Bay. Window shades have been purchased for Eglinton School. Committees were re-appointed. The members plan to hold a social and dance in Eglinton School before the end of June. Next meeting at the home of Mrs. Wesley Keefe, where roll call will be answered by "My Favorite Proverb." Lunch was served and a social evening was spent.

MISS SARAH E. DUGGAN - There passed to her eternal rest at Sea View, in the early hours of May 17th, one of its oldest and most respected residents in the person of Miss Sarah E. Duggan, after an illness of over three months, at the advanced age of seventy-eight years. She was the daughter of the late Joseph Duggan and his wife Mary Campbell and lived all her life on the farm where she was born. She was loved and admired by a very wide circle of friends who will always cherish her memory. She was tenderly cared for in her sickness by her nephew Roy Duggan and his wife, with whom she lived, also her niece Mrs. Helen Adams, Charlottetown, who was with her during the last weeks. She leaves besides those already mentioned, two brothers Joseph and Donald Duggan in the U. S. Her funeral was held on the nineteenth and was largely attended. Mr. John Fleck and Rev. Fred Williamson officiating. Interment took place at the Geddie Memorial Cemetery, beside those of the family who predeceased her.

AFRICAN AVIATION PROVIDES LAND THRILLS - BULAWAYO, Rhodesia, June 13 - (By The Canadian Press) - There are more troubles on the ground than in the air, in an aeroplane journey across Africa. Some of them were told by Alan S. Butler, Chairman of the Aircraft Company, when accompanied by Mrs. Butler and the engineer, S. Millyard, arrived in Bulawayo in the air survey machine, a specially designed and constructed to meet conditions abroad. Comparatively speaking, the air trip was uneventful and the aeroplane behaved splendidly. One of the huge tyres was punctured at Jaba. The wheel was taken off and the axle jacked up to effect a repair, when a storm suddenly broke out and the machine was blown off the jack on to the axle. An axle drum on the starboard wheel was broken out luckily there was no further damage. Again at Tabora, when the rain fall had been the heaviest for about 50 years, the airframe was found to completely water logged. Mr. Butler had been advised that the drome was in a bad state, but he had not been told it was unserviceable, and he was compelled to exercise every care before landing. After flying above the ground for six times, however, he brought the machine safely down, although it immediately sank up to the top of the wheels in the soft mud, and tipped on to its nose. Had the ground been hard the propellers would inevitably have been broken, but in its sudden condition it offered little resistance, and the propellers ploughed into it without damage. Mr. Butler obtained the service of 100 soldiers of the King's African Rifles, and with the help of several sheets of corrugated iron managed to pull the aeroplane to drier ground which he had located after a careful survey, and with the aid of a crowbar with which he tested the depth of the mud. The aeroplane left Heston aerodrome March 20. They flew through

Europe without incident, and, although the ground was snow-covered, weather conditions were not unusually severe. They arrived in Athens on March 23, remained there the next day, and took off for their trip across the Mediterranean on March 25, arriving on the North African coast at Solium. Their next stopping place was Aboukir, where they stayed for a few days, leaving on March 30. Khartoum and Juba were visited but the flight down the Nile was disappointing from a photographic and scenic point of view owing to the poor weather conditions. Between Khartoum and Juba while flying low over the Sudd, they were ing by the depth by which the trees greatly impressed by herds of wild game in the forest areas. A herd of over 200 buffalo stampeded wildly as they flew over head. A photograph was taken of this rather unbecoming sight, but it did not prove a success. The country round Tabora was inundated owing to heavy rains which had recently fallen and Juba were immersed to the water must have been nearly 10 feet deep.

Following the burning of a five-hundred-year-old farmhouse at Charlottetown, England, recently, John H. Garret has been arrested, charged with arson.

While one airplane was exported from this country to the United Kingdom last year, that country sent 23 planes for use here.

Mr. Butler obtained the service of 100 soldiers of the King's African Rifles, and with the help of several sheets of corrugated iron managed to pull the aeroplane to drier ground which he had located after a careful survey, and with the aid of a crowbar with which he tested the depth of the mud. The aeroplane left Heston aerodrome March 20. They flew through

Europe without incident, and, although the ground was snow-covered, weather conditions were not unusually severe. They arrived in Athens on March 23, remained there the next day, and took off for their trip across the Mediterranean on March 25, arriving on the North African coast at Solium. Their next stopping place was Aboukir, where they stayed for a few days, leaving on March 30. Khartoum and Juba were visited but the flight down the Nile was disappointing from a photographic and scenic point of view owing to the poor weather conditions. Between Khartoum and Juba while flying low over the Sudd, they were ing by the depth by which the trees greatly impressed by herds of wild game in the forest areas. A herd of over 200 buffalo stampeded wildly as they flew over head. A photograph was taken of this rather unbecoming sight, but it did not prove a success. The country round Tabora was inundated owing to heavy rains which had recently fallen and Juba were immersed to the water must have been nearly 10 feet deep.

Following the burning of a five-hundred-year-old farmhouse at Charlottetown, England, recently, John H. Garret has been arrested, charged with arson.

While one airplane was exported from this country to the United Kingdom last year, that country sent 23 planes for use here.

Mr. Butler obtained the service of 100 soldiers of the King's African Rifles, and with the help of several sheets of corrugated iron managed to pull the aeroplane to drier ground which he had located after a careful survey, and with the aid of a crowbar with which he tested the depth of the mud. The aeroplane left Heston aerodrome March 20. They flew through

Europe without incident, and, although the ground was snow-covered, weather conditions were not unusually severe. They arrived in Athens on March 23, remained there the next day, and took off for their trip across the Mediterranean on March 25, arriving on the North African coast at Solium. Their next stopping place was Aboukir, where they stayed for a few days, leaving on March 30. Khartoum and Juba were visited but the flight down the Nile was disappointing from a photographic and scenic point of view owing to the poor weather conditions. Between Khartoum and Juba while flying low over the Sudd, they were ing by the depth by which the trees greatly impressed by herds of wild game in the forest areas. A herd of over 200 buffalo stampeded wildly as they flew over head. A photograph was taken of this rather unbecoming sight, but it did not prove a success. The country round Tabora was inundated owing to heavy rains which had recently fallen and Juba were immersed to the water must have been nearly 10 feet deep.

Following the burning of a five-hundred-year-old farmhouse at Charlottetown, England, recently, John H. Garret has been arrested, charged with arson.

While one airplane was exported from this country to the United Kingdom last year, that country sent 23 planes for use here.

Mr. Butler obtained the service of 100 soldiers of the King's African Rifles, and with the help of several sheets of corrugated iron managed to pull the aeroplane to drier ground which he had located after a careful survey, and with the aid of a crowbar with which he tested the depth of the mud. The aeroplane left Heston aerodrome March 20. They flew through

Europe without incident, and, although the ground was snow-covered, weather conditions were not unusually severe. They arrived in Athens on March 23, remained there the next day, and took off for their trip across the Mediterranean on March 25, arriving on the North African coast at Solium. Their next stopping place was Aboukir, where they stayed for a few days, leaving on March 30. Khartoum and Juba were visited but the flight down the Nile was disappointing from a photographic and scenic point of view owing to the poor weather conditions. Between Khartoum and Juba while flying low over the Sudd, they were ing by the depth by which the trees greatly impressed by herds of wild game in the forest areas. A herd of over 200 buffalo stampeded wildly as they flew over head. A photograph was taken of this rather unbecoming sight, but it did not prove a success. The country round Tabora was inundated owing to heavy rains which had recently fallen and Juba were immersed to the water must have been nearly 10 feet deep.

Following the burning of a five-hundred-year-old farmhouse at Charlottetown, England, recently, John H. Garret has been arrested, charged with arson.

While one airplane was exported from this country to the United Kingdom last year, that country sent 23 planes for use here.

Mr. Butler obtained the service of 100 soldiers of the King's African Rifles, and with the help of several sheets of corrugated iron managed to pull the aeroplane to drier ground which he had located after a careful survey, and with the aid of a crowbar with which he tested the depth of the mud. The aeroplane left Heston aerodrome March 20. They flew through

Europe without incident, and, although the ground was snow-covered, weather conditions were not unusually severe. They arrived in Athens on March 23, remained there the next day, and took off for their trip across the Mediterranean on March 25, arriving on the North African coast at Solium. Their next stopping place was Aboukir, where they stayed for a few days, leaving on March 30. Khartoum and Juba were visited but the flight down the Nile was disappointing from a photographic and scenic point of view owing to the poor weather conditions. Between Khartoum and Juba while flying low over the Sudd, they were ing by the depth by which the trees greatly impressed by herds of wild game in the forest areas. A herd of over 200 buffalo stampeded wildly as they flew over head. A photograph was taken of this rather unbecoming sight, but it did not prove a success. The country round Tabora was inundated owing to heavy rains which had recently fallen and Juba were immersed to the water must have been nearly 10 feet deep.

Following the burning of a five-hundred-year-old farmhouse at Charlottetown, England, recently, John H. Garret has been arrested, charged with arson.

While one airplane was exported from this country to the United Kingdom last year, that country sent 23 planes for use here.

St. James Presbyterian Church

MINISTER - REV. W. BRUCE MUIR; ACTING MINISTER - REV. R. MOORHEAD LEGATE, B. D. ORGANIST - WALTER MCNUTT

10.00 A. M. - The Sabbath School. 11.00 A. M. - Preacher: Rev. R. Moorhead Legate, B. D. Anthem - "Te Deum" Laudamus" Dykes The Choir.

7.00 P. M. - Preacher: Rev. R. Moorhead Legate, B. D. Solo - "Litaney" Schubert Mr. Charles McKenzie. Duet - "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" Ambrose Mrs. J. A. Lawson, Miss J. Macdonald. Anthem - "Saviour Thy Children Keep" Sullivan The Choir.

EVENING SERVICE BROADCAST. Visitors Cordially Welcomed.

Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Provincial Ladies Auxiliary of the Protestant Orphanage will be held in the Orphanage Mount Herbert, Thursday, June 19th at 2 p. m. Standard Time.

Delegates are requested to meet at Orphanage Office 158 Prince Street at 11.30 a.m. Standard Time.

KATHLEEN HENDERSON, Sec'y.

LADIES AID TO PROTESTANT ORPHANAGE

Successful Annual Meeting Was Held Yesterday.

The annual meeting of the Ladies Aid to the Protestant Orphanage was held yesterday afternoon at the Cundall Home with the president, Mrs. A. C. Sinclair, presiding. The meeting was very successful and was largely attended.

The president made a verbal report in which she thanked the ladies

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Balance in Bank May 10, 1937 1,114.15; Dues 9.50; Flower Sale 265.38; Candy, "Road Back" 1.00; Silver Sold 87.00; Dishes Sold 150.00; Piano Sold 50.00; Brighton Girls Sale 1.55; Interest 2.00; Rummage Sale 290.62; Street Collection 2,335.71; Mrs. McLaure Donation 5.00; "When Kitty Comes" 1,035.65; 5,847.56

EXPENDITURE BY CHEQUE

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. To Trustee Board 4,650.00; To Play "When Kitty Comes" 320.71; To Magazine for Staff 3.00; To Flowers (Woolworth's) 22.20; To Advertising 9.58; To Balance in Bank June 13, 1937 842.07; 5,847.56

trip was uneventful and the aeroplane behaved splendidly. One of the huge tyres was punctured at Jaba. The wheel was taken off and the axle jacked up to effect a repair, when a storm suddenly broke out and the machine was blown off the jack on to the axle. An axle drum on the starboard wheel was broken out luckily there was no further damage. Again at Tabora, when the rain fall had been the heaviest for about 50 years, the airframe was found to completely water logged. Mr. Butler had been advised that the drome was in a bad state, but he had not been told it was unserviceable, and he was compelled to exercise every care before landing. After flying above the ground for six times, however, he brought the machine safely down, although it immediately sank up to the top of the wheels in the soft mud, and tipped on to its nose. Had the ground been hard the propellers would inevitably have been broken, but in its sudden condition it offered little resistance, and the propellers ploughed into it without damage. Mr. Butler obtained the service of 100 soldiers of the King's African Rifles, and with the help of several sheets of corrugated iron managed to pull the aeroplane to drier ground which he had located after a careful survey, and with the aid of a crowbar with which he tested the depth of the mud. The aeroplane left Heston aerodrome March 20. They flew through

Europe without incident, and, although the ground was snow-covered, weather conditions were not unusually severe. They arrived in Athens on March 23, remained there the next day, and took off for their trip across the Mediterranean on March 25, arriving on the North African coast at Solium. Their next stopping place was Aboukir, where they stayed for a few days, leaving on March 30. Khartoum and Juba were visited but the flight down the Nile was disappointing from a photographic and scenic point of view owing to the poor weather conditions. Between Khartoum and Juba while flying low over the Sudd, they were ing by the depth by which the trees greatly impressed by herds of wild game in the forest areas. A herd of over 200 buffalo stampeded wildly as they flew over head. A photograph was taken of this rather unbecoming sight, but it did not prove a success. The country round Tabora was inundated owing to heavy rains which had recently fallen and Juba were immersed to the water must have been nearly 10 feet deep.

Following the burning of a five-hundred-year-old farmhouse at Charlottetown, England, recently, John H. Garret has been arrested, charged with arson.

While one airplane was exported from this country to the United Kingdom last year, that country sent 23 planes for use here.

Mr. Butler obtained the service of 100 soldiers of the King's African Rifles, and with the help of several sheets of corrugated iron managed to pull the aeroplane to drier ground which he had located after a careful survey, and with the aid of a crowbar with which he tested the depth of the mud. The aeroplane left Heston aerodrome March 20. They flew through

Europe without incident, and, although the ground was snow-covered, weather conditions were not unusually severe. They arrived in Athens on March 23, remained there the next day, and took off for their trip across the Mediterranean on March 25, arriving on the North African coast at Solium. Their next stopping place was Aboukir, where they stayed for a few days, leaving on March 30. Khartoum and Juba were visited but the flight down the Nile was disappointing from a photographic and scenic point of view owing to the poor weather conditions. Between Khartoum and Juba while flying low over the Sudd, they were ing by the depth by which the trees greatly impressed by herds of wild game in the forest areas. A herd of over 200 buffalo stampeded wildly as they flew over head. A photograph was taken of this rather unbecoming sight, but it did not prove a success. The country round Tabora was inundated owing to heavy rains which had recently fallen and Juba were immersed to the water must have been nearly 10 feet deep.

Following the burning of a five-hundred-year-old farmhouse at Charlottetown, England, recently, John H. Garret has been arrested, charged with arson.

While one airplane was exported from this country to the United Kingdom last year, that country sent 23 planes for use here.

Mr. Butler obtained the service of 100 soldiers of the King's African Rifles, and with the help of several sheets of corrugated iron managed to pull the aeroplane to drier ground which he had located after a careful survey, and with the aid of a crowbar with which he tested the depth of the mud. The aeroplane left Heston aerodrome March 20. They flew through

Europe without incident, and, although the ground was snow-covered, weather conditions were not unusually severe. They arrived in Athens on March 23, remained there the next day, and took off for their trip across the Mediterranean on March 25, arriving on the North African coast at Solium. Their next stopping place was Aboukir, where they stayed for a few days, leaving on March 30. Khartoum and Juba were visited but the flight down the Nile was disappointing from a photographic and scenic point of view owing to the poor weather conditions. Between Khartoum and Juba while flying low over the Sudd, they were ing by the depth by which the trees greatly impressed by herds of wild game in the forest areas. A herd of over 200 buffalo stampeded wildly as they flew over head. A photograph was taken of this rather unbecoming sight, but it did not prove a success. The country round Tabora was inundated owing to heavy rains which had recently fallen and Juba were immersed to the water must have been nearly 10 feet deep.

Following the burning of a five-hundred-year-old farmhouse at Charlottetown, England, recently, John H. Garret has been arrested, charged with arson.

While one airplane was exported from this country to the United Kingdom last year, that country sent 23 planes for use here.

Mr. Butler obtained the service of 100 soldiers of the King's African Rifles, and with the help of several sheets of corrugated iron managed to pull the aeroplane to drier ground which he had located after a careful survey, and with the aid of a crowbar with which he tested the depth of the mud. The aeroplane left Heston aerodrome March 20. They flew through

Europe without incident, and, although the ground was snow-covered, weather conditions were not unusually severe. They arrived in Athens on March 23, remained there the next day, and took off for their trip across the Mediterranean on March 25, arriving on the North African coast at Solium. Their next stopping place was Aboukir, where they stayed for a few days, leaving on March 30. Khartoum and Juba were visited but the flight down the Nile was disappointing from a photographic and scenic point of view owing to the poor weather conditions. Between Khartoum and Juba while flying low over the Sudd, they were ing by the depth by which the trees greatly impressed by herds of wild game in the forest areas. A herd of over 200 buffalo stampeded wildly as they flew over head. A photograph was taken of this rather unbecoming sight, but it did not prove a success. The country round Tabora was inundated owing to heavy rains which had recently fallen and Juba were immersed to the water must have been nearly 10 feet deep.

Following the burning of a five-hundred-year-old farmhouse at Charlottetown, England, recently, John H. Garret has been arrested, charged with arson.

While one airplane was exported from this country to the United Kingdom last year, that country sent 23 planes for use here.

Mr. Butler obtained the service of 100 soldiers of the King's African Rifles, and with the help of several sheets of corrugated iron managed to pull the aeroplane to drier ground which he had located after a careful survey, and with the aid of a crowbar with which he tested the depth of the mud. The aeroplane left Heston aerodrome March 20. They flew through

Europe without incident, and, although the ground was snow-covered, weather conditions were not unusually severe. They arrived in Athens on March 23, remained there the next day, and took off for their trip across the Mediterranean on March 25, arriving on the North African coast at Solium. Their next stopping place was Aboukir, where they stayed for a few days, leaving on March 30. Khartoum and Juba were visited but the flight down the Nile was disappointing from a photographic and scenic point of view owing to the poor weather conditions. Between Khartoum and Juba while flying low over the Sudd, they were ing by the depth by which the trees greatly impressed by herds of wild game in the forest areas. A herd of over 200 buffalo stampeded wildly as they flew over head. A photograph was taken of this rather unbecoming sight, but it did not prove a success. The country round Tabora was inundated owing to heavy rains which had recently fallen and Juba were immersed to the water must have been nearly 10 feet deep.

LOWER PRICES on DRUGS and TOILET GOODS

AT The Rexall Store

Table with 2 columns: Product and Price. 20c LISTERINE TOOTH PASTE 19c; 35c LISTERINE 21c; 60c FORHAN'S TOOTH PASTE 49c; NICE The Perfect Deodorant 35c; 35c LYSOL 29c; $1.25 VINOL 98c; 50c INGRAM'S SHAVING CREAM 39c; 50c KLENZO SHAVING CREAM 39c; $1.50 RUBBERSET SHAVING BRUSH 98c; 50c LORIE BRILLIANTINE 39c; KLENZO SHAM-POO for silky hair 50c; 20c LINEN FINISH WRITING PADS 14c