Dominion Linoleum Beautifies Your Home

Floor Beauty that LASTS

The vogue for Dominion Inlaid Linoleum is a just tribute to its beauty and to the unusual decorative scope it offers. Either by itself or as a background for rugs, Dominion Inlaid Linoleum at once reflects good taste and lifts your home out of the commonplace.

As its name implies, the colours are inlaid. You cannot wear them out for they go right through to the burlap back. This means freedom from costly replacements.

Dominion Inlaid Linoleum is easy and quick to lay. Its firm, smooth, non-absorbent surface cannot harbour dirt or germs and readily takes a high polish if such is desired, making it an ideal dance floor.

Designs and colourings for every room at surprisingly moderate prices.

Other Beautiful Dominion Floors
Dominion Printed Linoleum comes in widths up to twelve feet in many beautiful designs. Extremely durable; popular prices. Dominion Linoleum Rugs are special favourites for their beauty, long wear and moderate cost. Need no fastening of any kind.

Tryon Tid Bits

(By Wandering Scribe)
Miss Lily Pooley, one of Tryon's most popular young ladies, left Tuesday the 29th, for the United States. Lily will be missed very much in Tryon, for her pleasant manner and obliging way made her a general favorite with all. In the great republic to the south of us, so many of our young people, and in the colleges, schools, churches, stores, railroads etc. "Spud Islanders" are holding up the reputation of our fair province. It is safe to say that Lily will make a success of life there also. On Saturday evening several friends gathered in to wish her God-speed and present her with a small token of their appreciation. Owing to the increment nature of the weather, many who fain would have been there, were not, yet their good wishes were with her, and the "Guardian" also joins in wishing her the best of health and success while with our cousins over the border.

Mr. Reg. Dixon, North Tryon, was in Summerside Tuesday, on business.

Mr. Danny Matheson, Emerald, was in North Tryon, Wednesday, visiting his brother-in-law, Mr. Reginald Dawson.

Miss Cora MacNeill, Summerside, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Parker Delaney, North Tryon.

Mr. S. N. Dawson, is busily engaged in landing home next season's supply of firewood, which he hauls from his wood lot in Maple Plains.

Mr. Geo. McLeod, North Tryon, spent the week-end the guest of Mr. Stanley Howatt, Tryon Point Road.

Mr. D. J. Thomson, North Tryon, visited Albany on business Tuesday the 29th.

Latest information re-condition of Mrs. John McKenna, Mount Tryon, who recently underwent a serious operation at the Prince County Hospital is very encouraging and her many friends hope soon to welcome her home again.

The Snow King is fast losing his grip on Tryon and vicinity, and although sleighs are yet very much in evidence, carriages are moving out gradually and Mr. C. W. Ives has motored from North Tryon to Albany, several times within the past few days. Soon the "Lizies", and the other more classy gas wagons will be merrily speeding over our roads, and the proprietors of garages, and filling stations will swing their doors wide open to accommodate the rush, and as they put up the ever mounting sales, they, like Sam McGree will "wear a smile you could see a mile", but just here as I drop my pen for the evening, Weather Prophet says

Huh! Spring not yet, just wait and see—More snow—Well I must hand it to you "Prophet" for after waiting until this (Thursday) morning dawn came the snow and the puny side blanket covers all the county side tonight, and the prophet says "wait for tomorrow is April 1st. "Z"

Mr. Geo. McLeod, North Tryon, visited his parents in Victoria, Tuesday afternoon, later spending the evening in Hampton.
