

Prowse Bros. Ltd. CHARLOTTETOWN'S BIG DEPARTMENTAL STORE

Important Sale OF FINE

Tweed Skirts

Samples - smart new styles right up to the hour, elegantly tailored by the most expert concern in Canada, "Northway & Son" Toronto, whose coats, skirts and costumes are universally conceded to be the most up-to-date and best fitting.

$4.38

Tweed skirts, black shirts Worth to $5.75

On sale this morning at 9 a.m. and as the range of sizes is somewhat limited intending purchasers would do wisely to be on hand early.

Fur Coats at Half!

Our remarkable offering of fine fur coats at half price is creating a great sensation throughout town and country.

Never before, so far as we can remember, has so good an opportunity been offered for the purchase of so useful a garment.

The sale started with sixty coats. Many have been sold, but there is still good choosing--if you are prompt.

With only a few exceptions the coats are new and stylish, have full, large, stylish sleeves, are elegantly lined with heavy satin. Every garment is made of whole size, selected line. Some are trimmed in Florentia style with collar and revers of sable.

$40 Coats for $20 $80 Coats for $40 $60 Coats for $30 $100 Coats for $50

The Grace and Beauty OF THE Fur-lined Coat

Grace and beauty, warmth and comfort, such combinations are rare.

Little wonder the fur-lined coat has become so popular. We have had a wonderfully successful season with our fur lined garments because Our styles are smarter.

Garments fit better. Linings and collars choicer.

More fur-lined coats just in.

Smart styles in navy, green and black, linings of Hamster, Loc, and rat, collars and revers of Labrador mink, Oriental mink, and Alaska sable $48.50, $55.00, $66.00, $75.00, $81.00, $87.00, $110.00

Prowse Bros. Ltd. Prowse Bros. Ltd.

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlottetown.

Methodist Christmas Gift sale December 12.

Miss Carrie Walker and Miss Janie Smith have left this City for Boston.

All unpaid city taxes after Saturday 30th inst will be put on defaulters list and published.

A. McPherson and his mother of Point Prim, left Thursday on a visit to Great Falls, Montana.

A handsome calendar has been received from the Charlottetown Business College, L. B. Miller, Principal.

Guy Scott will dance the Highland Fling in Highland costume at the services at Fairland this afternoon.

Mrs. D. J. McDonald who has been the guest of her parents D. D. and Mr. Ryan, City, has returned to her home in Boston.

Miss Maud Dyer, nurse in the P. E. Island Hospital spent a few days at her home in Alberton last week and returned to the City today.

Miss Minnie Hanlan who has been the guest of Mrs. P. H. Trainor while in this city left Thursday morning on return to Rochester, Mass.

The friends of Mrs. James F. Curtis will be glad to learn that she has completely recovered and returned to her home at Fir Hill Farm, Royalty East.

Sea ed tenders will be received at the Department of Public Works up to noon of Saturday, December 14, for supplies for hospital for the insane. See ad.

Patrons who are unable to get the Guardian by telephone after six o'clock in the evening, and who have news or other business for the next issue, are requested to ring No 124.

Look up the ad. of the Maritime winter fair, in this issue, and observe how cheaply you can reach Amherst and avail yourself of the pleasure and profit of the greatest agricultural educational institution in the Maritime Provinces.

The marriage took place Wednesday evening of Miss Margaret Jenkins, daughter of Benjamin Jenkins, Mount Albion, to Albert Nicholson of Orwell Cove. Rev. S. D. McPhee pastor of St. John's Church, Belfast, performed the ceremony.

Dr. Smallwood and his brother, who were expected to arrive from St. John, N.B. last night, were, owing to the delay of the train on the mainland unable to connect with the Empress at Pt. du Chene. They are expected to arrive tonight.

The Guardian news office closes at twelve midnight Saturday and does not open again until midnight Sunday. In the meantime any news items, duly signed by the writer and dropped in the letter box in the Guardian main entrance door, will have prompt attention when office opens.

His many friends will welcome back to Charlottetown again John Pierre who on account of ill health has had to leave Calgary to which place he went some two months ago. Before leaving Calgary his friends gave him a delightful banquet as a small token of the esteem which he gained for himself in the far west.

Persons sending advertising matter to the Guardian are requested to state whether same is to appear among Classified ads, Business locals, Announcements or among regular display advertisements. When no such information is furnished the management will not be held responsible if ad does not appear as desired.

Anybody interested in the forming of a walking class in the Arena this winter, should at once hand their names to W. B. Prowse, Secy-Treas. of the Arena Rink Co. The 4th Regt Band one night per week for the season. Tickets to be $3.00 each. Should enough names be subscribed the class will be organized at once. The Arena was flooded for the first time yesterday and ice will be ready shortly.

Owing to the enormous amount of time and expense necessary in book keeping and making out small accounts as well as mailing and collecting same, The Guardian has decided that in future all ordinary amounts under one dollar will be accepted on a cash in advance basis and ten per cent discount given, except to those who have a regular advertising account who will still have the privilege of monthly credit.

Miss Bella MacDonald, Dressmaker of Boston, returns this morning after attending the marriage of her brother James and sister Josephine which took place recently at Webster's Corner. She is accompanied to Boston by Miss Maggie Campbell, eldest daughter of Hon. J. H. Campbell, key Commissioner of Public Works who goes on a four weeks visit to Boston to visit relatives and friends. They will be accompanied on Summer-ide by Mr. Cumiskey.

Advertisers will kindly bear in mind that The Guardian cannot undertake to insert in following issue any "changes" of ads received after one o'clock each noon.

Guardian phone rings are No. 124 news 124-2 Subscriptions; 124-3 Advertising. Patrons will save their own time and that of the Guardian staff by asking for the above numbers only.

A rather awkward mistake in the making up of W. S. Brown's ad yesterday had the effect of making the price of pickles read 81 cents a quart. These excellent pickles although as a doubt worth 81 cents, are retailed at 18 cents per quart, as will be seen by his ad in this issue. The figures was transposed.

The travelling public of this Province hope that the report is true that the steamer Yale will next summer resume her sailings between St. John and Boston; and that her sister ship will perform a service between New York and Halifax. Both steamers are now controlled by the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railway Company.

The educational committee of the Y. M. C. A. met a few nights ago and selected the magazines and periodicals for the reading room for the coming year. Several changes were made a number of the American magazines being dropped and English magazines put in their place. The best of the American ones are still retained however. An Auction sale will take place next Thursday Dec. 6th of all the magazines.

St. Peter's Episcopal Church Alberton, was the scene of an interesting event on Tuesday afternoon, when Miss L. A. Fenton, only daughter of Robert and Mrs. Fenton of Alberton, was united in marriage to Alexander Knickle, of Blue Rocks, Nova Scotia. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. M. Fenton, brother of the bride, and brother-in-law to the groom. The couple were unattended. Besides the relatives a large number of friends witnessed the ceremony, and extended good wishes to the happy couple. The bridal party left by the noon train Wednesday for their new home in Blue Rocks Nova Scotia.

The School Concert held at Margate on Friday last was a grand success. In the absence of Mr. Proffit, Sec. of Trustees, the chair was ably filled by T. B. Gillespie, Cape Traverser. A good program was provided consisting of recitations, songs, dialogues, tableaux, speeches and gramophone selections. Special mention may be made of the manner in which the School children acquitted themselves, which reflects credit on their teachers Miss Ray Gillespie, and Miss Saddle MacKay and the organist Miss Mable Dennis. A duet by Misses Nicholson and Bell of Stanley and a solo by Miss Howard were loudly applauded. At the close of the program ice cream and cake were served by the ladies, after which Mr. Baker moved a vote of thanks to the teachers for their painstaking efforts in getting up such a creditable entertainment and for their interest in the welfare of the School. The proceeds which amounted to $30, will be used to improve the interior of the School.

Persons sending advertising matter to the Guardian are requested to state whether same is to appear among Classified ads, Business locals, Announcements or among regular display advertisements. When no such information is furnished the management will not be held responsible if ad does not appear as desired.

DANGER IN CORN SALVES.

They usually contain acids and burn the flesh. The one safe cure is liquid form is Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, which is purely vegetable, causes no pain and cures in one day. Don't forget the name "Putnam".

Advertisement for shaving products including Soap, Brushes, Mugs, Lotions, and a coupon for a free trial.

Advertisement for Pure Olive Oil by Barton & Guestier's, highlighting its medicinal and table use.

Advertisement for Doughnuts at 10c a dozen, listing various flavors and prices.

Advertisement for Moore & McLeod, The Millinery People, featuring a large logo and contact information.

Saturday Bargain Bulletin

Advertisement for Rounding out the greatest November sale, listing various goods and their discounted prices.

Advertisement for Four special Saturday savings in table linens, listing various damask and linen items.

Advertisement for Soiled corset covers at half price, listing various styles and colors.

Advertisement for Saturday's Notable petticoat bargains, listing various styles and prices.

Advertisement for Flannel shirts worth 1.75-2.00, listing various styles and colors.

Advertisement for Fire Life Accident Health insurance by E. R. Brow, General Agent.

Advertisement for Solid As The Continent tires by Ross & Matthews, featuring a large image of a tire.

Advertisement for Dunlop 1907 tires, featuring a large image of a bicycle.

Advertisement for New Bag S 30,000, listing various sizes and prices.