MEN WHO REFUSE THE PREMIERSHIP

The Premiership of Great Britain is looked upon by the average M. P. as the most coveted of all positions...

The late Duke of Devonshire twice refused to become prime minister. The first occasion happened after his general election of 1880...

used for the same reason as before—of respect for the Grand Old Man.

Mr. Gladstone, by the way, refused the Premiership on one occasion. At the death of Sir Robert Peel he was left almost without a leader...

When Mr. Gladstone was defeated on the Irish University Bill he suggested in the house that the Conservatives should assume the government...

It says much for the modesty of great men that when proffered are often refused. They are as often declined as accepted...

Only a small number of Mr. Joseph Chamberlain's admirers are aware of the fact that he once refused a peerage...

Suffered Terrible Pains From His Kidneys.

Perhaps no other organs work harder than the kidneys to preserve the general health of the body...

There is no way of getting the kidney poisons out of the system except through the kidneys, and no medicine so effective in taking them out as Doan's Kidney Pills.

They help the kidneys to flush off the acid and poisonous impurities which have collected, thus clearing out the kidneys, bladder and urinary passages.

Doan's Kidney Pills are entirely vegetable, and may be safely taken by old and young.

Mr. Dougald A. McIsaac, Broad Cove Banks, N.S., writes: "I was troubled with my kidneys for nine months, and suffered with such terrible pains across the small of my back all the time that I could hardly get around."

THE FESTIVAL OF THE EMPIRE

Newfoundland—the oldest of our Colonies—Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and India are sending their sons and daughters to represent them in the great "Festival of Empire" at the Crystal Palace this summer.

This festival is to be the greatest pageant ever produced in this country. Its aim is to show in the most vivid possible manner the rise of the British Empire. It is to tell the story of our race in living pictures.

The pageant in lesson in history, told not in colorless words, but by a series of colossal scenes in which whole armies of trained performers will take part. These performers would populate a fair sized town.

Fifteen thousand citizens of London and another thousand or more from the Colonies, all dressed in accurate costumes of different periods, will show scene by scene the great story.

Princess Louise Duchess of Argyll has consented to become the head of the committee that will select the performers; Earl Roberts will give advice for the military scenes; Sir Edward Poynter, P. H. A., and Sir Walter Parratt, Mus. Doc., the King's musician, will advise on matters artistic and musical.

The pictorial representation of the life and industries of the Over-seas Dominions are to be arranged under the presidency of Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, while the Duke of Norfolk, Duke of Devonshire, Duke of Fife, Marquis of Londonderry, Earl of Rosbery, Lord Aylebury, and General Sir John French are among the members of the council.

Mr. Frank Lascelles, "The Master of the Pageantry," explains that the aim is to illustrate the history of our people in chapters, that might be called, "England," "Great Britain," and "Greater Britain."

The first scene will be prehistoric London. Ancient Britons in their settlement on the River Fleet will hunt deer, and King Lud will appear in the flesh.

Then the scene will change to the London of the days of Roman occupation, and the struggle between the invading army of the Emperor Constantine and Allectus will be fought.

Saxon London will next be reconstructed, and then one of the most dramatic scenes of the pageant—the
