THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

The latest news, first of all.

The program at New Wonderland tonight will be found in the reader on page four.

Mrs. M. Harwood, City, has gone to Boston for goods and will be back in a short time.

Any persons in this Province, who fish salmon or clams for shipment abroad, should write Manager Guardian at once.

The many friends of Mrs. John Crew, Bungay, are pleased to learn that she is able to go around again after a severe attack of sciatica.

A large two story building for the Port Eight Trading Company is being erected near the N. B. and P. E. I. station in that town.—Amherst News.

The concert in the Opera House Monday night by the Caledonia Male Chorus will be under the patronage of his Honor Lieutenant Governor McKinnon.

The Stanley arrived at this Port at eight fifteen last evening with a fair amount of freight aboard. Among the passengers were A. W. Owen, Toronto, and B. M. Beckwith, Montreal.

The Rev. D. McLean will preach at Lot 48 on Sabbath the 23 at 10.30 a. m., Highfield at 2.30 and the Peoples Church at 7 p. m. Monday night at Glasgow Road and Tuesday night at Hunter River at 7.30 p. m.

Many throughout this Province will learn with regret of the intended departure in the near future of W. A. and Mrs. Hawley of this City, who intend leaving next week for Winnipeg where they will reside.

Plan opens this morning at 9 o'clock for the Caledonia Male Chorus. All desiring tickets should secure them early, as there are three hundred coming from New Glasgow on the 24th and will remain for the concert.

Among the outward passengers from this City yesterday were J. K. McGrath to Pictou, James McIsaac to Boston, J. F. Fraser to Halifax, A. T. Weldon, Halifax to Summerside, Hon. Peter McNutt and family to Malpeque, Rev. K. McPherson to St. Margaret, Dr. Morrison to Vernon.

Dog fights are becoming rather common of late, and yesterday afternoon about six o'clock another battle royal took place in front of a well known barber shop on Queen St. Both of the warriors were built dogs, and for a time things were rather lively. Eventually however peace and order was restored, and the fighters walked off wagging their tails as a dogish indication of friendship.

A very enjoyable gathering took place at the Willow Hill Hotel on Tuesday evening, the occasion being a banquet, tendered by the O'Leary Cricket Club, to Dr. McEwen, previous to his departure for London, Eng., where he intends taking a special course in one of the leading medical institutions in that city. A large toast list was responded to in a pleasing and happy manner. Philip M. Evans performed the duties of toast master.

New Wonderland played to capacity seating last night, and the most enthusiastic audience ever gathered there fairly brought the house down in their hearty applause. The pictures so far exceed in excellence any thing ever shown here yet, that applause after applause greeted them as they told their story on the screen. Morgan and West were inimitable; Miss Woot's costumes the acme of elegance and refinement, her songs just the kind which fetches an audience. Lou Morgan, the funniest Dutchman ever put before an audience here, simply got every one right over to him, and the act throughout was most laughable. Percy Sayer's military song with invisible chorus was grand, and the setting of the "Grand Old Flag" as a background along with the martial costume was a huge success. New Wonderland is booming along the line of unique and fine entertainments, and is certainly deserving of success.

All was deteriorate with age. The flavor consists in an essential oil which decays. Take only fresh teas, and it only in the sealed lead packets of the "Salada" Tea Company. On account of its delicious stomach a pound of "Salada" will go as far as a pound and a quarter of other teas.
