Thousands See Harness Meet Opener

Futurity Event Provided Thrills; 2 Horses Reduce Own Records During Day

Glorious weather and the largest first day attendance in the annals of the Provincial Exhibition—that is for the entertainment part of it—tip-top horse racing with one of the greatest surprise heat winners ever registered over the local track—a split heat three-year-old futurity colt race with a nose-to-nose finish thrown in for good measure—2.22 pace in which two of the horses, the winner and the winner of the first heat each took new records—a 2.22 trot that had ten starters, seven of them bred in the Maritimes, with the favorite, and one which most people thought a sure winner, Hal Boojum, taking fourth place in the race and two more horses reducing their records, were a few of the features of yesterday's racing at the Exhibition Track.

It was opening day and more than ordinary difficulties had to be surmounted because the vaudeville acts, coming from such widely separated parts as Detroit, Mich., Hartford, Conn., Brooklyn, N. Y., Buffalo, N. Y., and Toronto, ran into tire trouble which delayed their connecting with the ferry. All but The Revue, were on the Grounds at 3 p. m., and the Revue came in last evening with its 15 young ladies having an interesting experience getting to the Garden of the Gulf.

The vaudeville program, which will be in its entirety today, equals if not excells any seen in recent years in the opinion of the management.

Getting back to the racing, the first event called was the three-year-old futurity. After a few scores the well-behaved youngsters were on their way. Weatherman, thought to be a sure winner by some, was going strong until rounding the second turn when he made a bad break and others tangled with him. Out in the clear was Marguerite Rose with Trixy Budlong right there and Eva Worthy and Alta K. back several lengths, Weatherman and Marjorie Budlong trailing. They hit the stretch in that order and came through like veterans. The finish between Trixy and Marguerite Rose was very close; with Alta K. and Eva Worthy another pair. All the colts beat 2.30 by a good margin. Time 2.26.

In the second heat, there was a real battle for first, the last 100 yards between Trixy Budlong, driven by Earle Semple and Eva Worthy, driven by Earle's father, T. Semple. A short head only separated the two horses while Alta K. and Marjorie Budlong had another good scrap for the next two positions. Time 2.27 1-4.

In the third heat, Marguerite Rose turned the tables on Trixy Budlong and beat him all the way staving off a very hard stretch drive. Eva Worthy was third and Marjorie Budlong a good fourth, Trixy Budlong fifth, Alta K. sixth and Weatherman seventh. Time 2.23 1-2, a record for Marguerite Rose and the fastest of the race.

2.22 Pace, First Division

Seven pacers took the word after a lot of scoring mostly caused by Wait N'See that had difficulty hitting his stride. When they got away he was back so far that none expected he had a "ghost of a chance" of winning. When they rounded into the back stretch he was on the outside in fifth horse place. He held that for awhile then gradually moved up on the leaders, Silent Mac, Jack Clyde, Grace Abbe and Miss Admiral Mac. The eyes of everyone were on him as he seemed to eat up space a little at a time to get nearer the front. When they hit the stretch for home, Silent Mac, Jack Clyde, Grace Abbe and Miss Admiral Mac were all heading him—then he started to really pace and went by each in turn till in the final few stride he headed Jack Clyde in an extremely close finish. Drivers of both horses thought they had won and returned to the stand, but the judges saw Wait N'See first. His victory rewarded his supporters very handsomely. Time 2.15 1-4 a new record for Wait N'See.

In the second heat they got away on the fourth score, the other drivers helping Wait N'See and starter Irvine but before the turn was reached Wait N'See was practically last horse, he made a break there and Grace Abbe tangled with him. When they got in their strides again they were too far back to be a factor in the race. Silent Mack got away well and he and Jack Clyde were out in front all the way with Miss Admiral Mac and Mac Worthy trailing. Beulah Gratton fifth. In the race to the wire Jack Clyde out-footed Silent Mac to win by a head in a dandy finish, with Miss Admiral Mac beating out Pat Worthy for fourth place, Beulah Gratton fifth, Grace Abbe sixth, Wait N'See seventh. Time 2.15 1-4, reduction of 1.4 of a second in Silent Mac's record.

The third heat was a real good one with a great finish between Jack Clyde and Miss Admiral Mac, just noses separating them while Wait N'See, who had gone the overland route again and looked for awhile as though he would repeat his first heat victory, third, Silent Mac fourth, Grace Abbe fifth and Beulah Gratton, who made a great try for the heat the first three-quarters then made a break, sixth, Pat Worthy seventh. Time 2.17.

2.22 Trot

There were 11 trotters in this race and they started in two tiers which always makes it difficult for the starter. The first heat, after several scores, got away with George Mac, who had the pole, out in front. Entering the back stretch Ruby Volo, Coronation McKillop, Hal Boojum were bunched around George Mac with Lucky Guy, Scotty Watson, and the others trailing some distance behind. In the stretch there was a team battle for the first four places with Ruby Volo outsprinting George Mac for first and Coronation McKillop heading Hal Boojum, Lucky Guy, Scotty Watson, Kelly's Nightmare, Model T. and Shirley L. finishing in the order named. Lusty's First unfortunately pulled a shoe causing him to make a very bad break and put him out of it. Time 2.14 3-4, a new record for Ruby Volo whose previous record was 2.16 1-4.

The second heat was one of the kind that makes horse racing so popular. It was a real do-or-die finish with George Brookins' Scotty Watson out-lasting the Cape Breton trotter, Coronation McKillop, driven by Billy Hood. Another pair of trotters that were right there and put up an equally good finish were George Mac and Hal Boojum, the game little Lucky Guy a close fifth, Kelly's Nightmare sixth, Shirley L. seventh, Model T. eighth and Ruby Volo ninth. Ruby Volo made a very bad break that lost her several positions. Time 2.13 1-2, a reduction of three-quarters of a second in Scotty Watson's record.

In the third heat it was another good finish, this time between Scotty Watson, driven by Earl Semple and Ruby Volo, driven by Earle's dad, T. Semple. Not more than ten or twelve inches separated the horses as they passed the wire while Hal Boojum was a good third, George Mac a close fourth, Model T. fifth and the trotter Lucky Guy, whose owner Mr Chappelle substituting for Teddy Weir as driver, sixth. Coronation McKillop, who was unsteady, finished seventh. Kelly's Nightmare eight. Time 2.14.

Today's races will consist of the 2.22 pace, second division with eight starters; the 2.17 trot with eight starters and the 2.16 trot and pace also with eight starters. Very seldom has there been a day's program with each event having eight starters. Horsemen cannot recall a similar instance. The fields are large and the classes are good as will be noted in a glance at the entries which appear elsewhere on this page.

Colby Hanover Favored to win Hambletonian

By Orlo Robertson
Associated Press Sports Writer

GOSHEN, N.Y., Aug. 11—(AP)—The horse and buggy boys made their annual pilgrimage to this country village today to decide trotting's richest prize—the $40,000 Hambletonian.

Although the village was faced with its usual housing and feeding problems, gas and tire rationing curtailed travel from the metropolitan area some 75 miles away. As a result, not more than 10,000 or 12,000 fans are expected to see the 11 three-year-olds match strides.

First of the two-out-of-three one-mile heats tomorrow will start at 3 p.m., with the second scheduled for 3:45 and the third, if necessary, 45 minutes later.

Although Colby Hanover stands out by reason of his two-year-old championship last year and a mark of 2:03 made in winning the National Stakes at Old Orchard Beach, Me., the field is one of the largest in recent years. Colby Hanover was purchased by C. W. Phelps, retired New Yorker, and I. W. Gleason, timber man from Williamsport, Pa., from the estate of Eugene Frey of York, Pa., for $15,000. He is expected to go postward at odds of 3 to 2.

His chief opposition is expected to come from B. C. Mayo's Paxton Hanover of Tarboro, N.C.; Green Diamond, Leo McNamara's home-bred son of Athlone Guy from Indianapolis, and Pay Up, with whom R. H. Johnston, the Charlotte, N.C., textile man, hopes to make it two straight. Johnston won last year with Bill Gallon.

The others, to hear the experts talk, are just out for the ride. They are, William E., owned and driven by William E. Miller of Washington; The Ambassador for whom Bill Strang of New York paid $5,000; Thomas Thomas' Scotland's Comet of Cleveland; George L. Benham's Cannon Ball of New York, Colby's No. 1 rival last year; Seven Up, hope of Ebby Gerry of the Army Air Force, and the two fillies—George L. Hempt's Follow Me of Camp Hill, Pa., and Mable Hanover owned jointly by D. J. McConville of Ogdensburg, N.Y., and C. L Gaines of Sherbourne, N.Y.

Rosar fails in Police exams

BUFFALO, N.Y., Aug. 11—(AP)—Warren (Buddy) Rosar, New York Yankee catcher who was fined $250 last month for leaving the club to take a Buffalo police civil service examination, was unsuccessful in his attempt to gain a position on the force.

The Buffalo civil service commission announced today his name was not among 190 on the eligibility list of 1,034 candidates who took the examination July 19.

Rosar was fined by Yankee Manager Joe McCarthy for taking leave without permission July 18. He rejoined the club in Cleveland three days later. In the meantime, McCarthy hired Rollie Hemsley as catcher.

Huge Crop Increase In United States

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11 — (CP) — Describing growing conditions as the best on record for this time of year, the United States Agriculture Department reported today that the total volume of all crops this year was expected to be about 21 per cent above the average output of the decade prior to adoption of federal crop control programs.

The department emphasized that a record production was needed to supply war requirements of this country and its Allies.

The favorable outlook is due primarily, the department said in its monthly crop report, to prospects that crop yields per acre will be about 28 per cent above the average of the pre-drought 1922-32 period and six per cent above that of any past year.

Fruit, Vegetable Prices Increase Due To Labor Shortage

OTTAWA, Aug. 11 — (C P) — Shortage of farm labor is responsible for the increased prices being charged for fruit and vegetables, Wartime Prices and Trade Board officials said today.

Except for potatoes and onions the price ceiling does not apply to fruits and vegetables which, it is estimated, are up about 20 per cent above last year's prices. A greater increase is reported in prices of imported fruits and vegetables.

With most of the produce past the seasonal price peaks, no extension of the price ceiling to other comodities is anticipated though board officials are silent on this point.

Sister Kerr, President of the New Brunswick registered nurses association, today.

Chiefs Win Fourth Straight Shutout

SYRACUSE, N.Y., Aug. 11—(AP)—Completing a feat almost unheard-of in modern baseball, Syracuse Chiefs scored their fourth straight shutout victory over Baltimore tonight, winning 5-0, to sweep a series in which the unusually hard-hitting Orioles didn't get a run.

Red Barrett, notching his 17th victory and his second straight shutout triumph, stretched to 49 the number of consecutive innings in which the Syracuse opposition has failed to score.

HOT WEATHER TESTS SKILL OF VICTORY GARDENERS

Hot weather calls for special treatment in the Victory Garden. It is then that the skill of the gardener counts. So long as the rains are plentiful and nights cool, but not too cool, flowers and vegetables will go ahead with very little assistance, but in hot weather troubles multiply.

Growth slows up and insect attacks grow worse. Even if rains continue hot weather is always dry, because the heat evaporates an enormous amount of water. Cultivation becomes vital, not only to cut down the weeds which are competing with the crops for subterranean water and food, but to create a dust mulch, which will prevent evaporation from the surface of the soil and conserve it for the plants.

It is now that the application of plant food becomes important for stimulating the growth of plants which otherwise would be inclined to sulk. Insect attacks should be dealt with upon their first appearance, since the warm weather not only increases the number of the insects but diminishes the resistance of the plants.

Where a garden can be irrigated the complaint is often heard that water does not seem to do much good, and the reason usually given is that the water is cold. But if the water is applied in a spray which is broken up into fine particles it is warmed by the air sufficiently to overcome the objection. It is probable that the reason for disappointment in irrigation, as a rule, is not cold water but insufficient water.

The extent of evaporation during hot weather calls for an extraordinary amount of water to balance the supply available for the plants.

Cultivating With Wheel Hoe

The amount possible to apply by the ordinary garden hose is insufficient and is made less effective when sprayed through the air. It is advisable, then, that even with cold water, if the amount that can be used is limited, it be allowed to run in shallow trenches or applied directly to the soil rather than sprayed.

Instead of trying to water the entire garden on the same day, or evening, concentrate on one portion, and give it a thorough soaking, at least a foot down. Next day, try another part. Such soaking should last a week, and the water will not be cold very long.

BIG SHOW OPENED

tertainment for the large crowd present. Unfortunately the American Swing Follies Revue was delayed en-route to the province and did not arrive in time to put on their act yesterday. They got in a few minutes before closing time last evening and took a bow on the stage before the entertainment was concluded. However, the act will be presented at every performance throughout the week. It includes 15 girls, with lovely costumes, colorful scenery, rythym, beauty and music in four pageants.

One of the feature attractions shown both afternoon and evening yesterday was the Copelands from Hollywood. These artists on roller skates brought rounds of applause as they went through their paces. Beauty and skill were combined with daring exhibitions of roller skating. One of the highlights of this act is the "skirt" trick which has to be seen to be appreciated. It will be presented again today.

The show is kept going smoothly by Mr. Joe Murphy, the versatile Master of Ceremonies whose clever impersonations of famous radio, screen and stage stars caused plenty of laughter yesterday.

Other sensational acts include the Great Milos, aerial act; the Cressonians, a teeterboard sensation; the Castlereaghs, a comedy that is "barrels" of fun; Ralph and Maida, superb dancing team; Pat Rafferty, famous dumbells star; and the singing of Patricia Bailey, lovely singer of international fame. A Royal Orchestral Band of nine pieces provided music for the artists.

Livestock Show

The majority of the livestock was in the barns at the Provincial Exhibition yesterday at noon and hundreds of visitors milled about this section of the grounds. The owners of the animals were kept quite busy all day getting the various exhibits in order for the judging which gets started today.

Poultry

With Prince Edward Island leading the rest of the Dominion in Grade A poultry, it is only fitting that birds on display at the Exhibition are some of the best to be seen anywhere in Canada. There is a greater variety this year than in the past which reflects the greater interest in poultry as a result of the increased demand for eggs in Great Britain. Quite a number of eggs are also on display in the poultry building.

About 300 birds, the pick of the Island flocks, are now housed in the various pens all waiting for the judges who get down to work this morning. Included in the entries is a good showing of capons. The birds' feathers are all preened as the proud exhibitors get set for the judges' decisions.

The majority of the old exhibitors are in there again. Classes include chicken and fowl, production breeding pens, special production R.O.P. males over one year, Turkeys, Geese, Ducks, Brown Eggs and White Eggs.

Swine

The increased demand for bacon for Britain has given a new importance to the swine of the province and farmers throughout the province have been paying more attention to this branch of their business. The entries in this class this year has shown a decided improvement over former years and more than a hundred fine animals are on exhibition.

The Yorkshires hold sway with a great many of these animals entered. There is also a class for marked pigs of any breed, grade or cross. Some of the main exhibitors are Almon Boswell and Son, Dunstaffnage; Percy Dickieson, New Glasgow; Alex Hamilton, New Perth; James Jenkins, Orwell.

Sheep

Both Provincial and Dominion Departments of Agriculture have introduced policies to increase the sheep population of the province and farmers appear to be co-operating judging from the appearance of the animals on display at the Exhibition.

A large number of first class sheep are housed in the pens and the judges will get down to business today. The Oxfords look particularly good. They were still coming in yesterday afternoon but the full quota were expected to be on the grounds last night.

The proud owners were busy during the afternoon with their shears and combs getting the sheep and lambs in shape for judging.

Holsteins

As usual there is a good showing of the blacks and whites at the fair. Herds from various sections of the province are entered in competition. It is interesting to note that 50 head of cattle, the majority of them belonging to this class, were loaded at Freetown Station on Monday morning.

Visitors to the barns yesterday were attracted by one of the cows in the herd of John N. Profitt and Son of Willow Farm, Freetown. This was the Grand Champion of many fairs and is now placed in the preferred class because of her remarkable production of milk and butter-fat. She is Rocharm Colantha who, in seven lactations, has given a total milk production of 116,090 pounds and butter-fat to the extent of 4,316 pounds. This cow, who is now 15 years old, has been Grand champion of St. John, Halifax and Charlottetown in the past and was first shown in 1928 at Toronto.

Other prominent exhibitors in this class include: Colby Lewis, Freetown; Hudson Lowther, Carleton; Ira C. Stewart, Andrew Jardine, Kensington, Cecil Stewart, Hampshire.

Colby Lewis had 14 head of cattle when he arrived at the Exhibition Grounds on Monday evening but a "blessed event" in his herd gives him one more Holstein to take back to Freetown with him when the fair is over

Jerseys

Proud of the showing they made last year when a competent judge gave them credit for having the best cattle in their class in Canada, Jersey Breeders are right in there again this year with many animals on display. The standard of quality appears to be just as good as last year and judging from the Jerseys in the barns the Judges will have plenty of trouble placing them.

Some of the main exhibitors in this class include: Dr. J. P. Lantz, Charlottetown; William Clark, North Wiltshire; Edison Mutch, North River; Harold Stead, Brackley; Ernest Underhay, East Royalty.

Ayreshires

About 158 Ayreshires were settled in their temporary home at the Exhibition Grounds yesterday and prospects point to keen competition in the various classes. Some of the exhibitors include: H. W. Clay, East Royalty; A. McRae and Son, Central Royalty; John Lewis, Freetown; W. C. Lewis, St. Peter's Bay; D. J. Mullin, St. Peter's Bay; Keith Boswell, Victoria; George Bowell, Frenchfort.

Guernseys

Among the cows catering to the fluid milk trade are the golden-colored Guernseys. A large number of these animals are showing this year and these are attracting much attention. Some of the main exhibitors include: Parker Horne, Brookfield; Guy Rodd, Brackley; Russel Coles, Milton and Horace Willis, Clyde River. The Guernseys will not be judged until tomorrow.

Shorthorns

In the beef breeds are the shorthorns and a large entry list is apparent in the barn set aside for this class. Among the main exhibitors are: Harry Tweedy; Frank Sanderson and Son, North River; A. H. Boswell and Son, North River; Lea Howard, Cornwall and Ling Bros., Wheatley River.

Horses

The horse races attracted a large crowd yesterday afternoon but their brothers, the show horses, had their followers. The best animals in the province occupied stalls yesterday afternoon. This morning these prize horses will be paraded in the ring in front of the main building.

The standard bred horses are the first class that will pass under the scrutiny of the judge. Then the roadsters and Clydesdales, Maritime Clydesdale Club Specials, Percherons, Draft Horses in order.

Some of the chief exhibitors include: Cecil Stewart, Hampshire; W. H. Horne, Winsloe; W. R. Shaw, Deputy Minister of Agriculture; Cecil Mills, Northam; St. Dunstan's University, and A. H. Boswell and Son, Milton.

What a Life!

"Tell me, Sherlock, about this Joan, Does perspiring keep her so much alone?"
"Of course not, Watson," said Holmes, the sleuth, "But offending does, and that's the truth!"
