Division S. O. T., Hartsville, celebrated its third anniversary on Friday night, the 25th inst., when the following programme was carried out, to the delight of a large audience, as evidenced by the excellent order maintained throughout, although many had to content themselves with standing in the aisles and Ante-room. Program—Opening address by Chairman; chorus, Guard Your Armour; Recitation, Annie McLeod; recitation, Margaret McDonald; duet, Sadie McKay and Sadie McKenzie; recitation, Alex McInnis; instrumental duet, Frank and Ray Finney; recitation, Effie McKenzie; chorus, Keep Your Colors Flying; address, A. S. Wright, G. W. P.; duet, Janie McLeod and Lizzie McKenzie; recitation, Nettie McDonald; dialogue, Bessie McKenzie, Janie McLeod, Lizzie McKenzie, Duncan McDonald and Alex McInnis; recitation, Bessie McKenzie, Hugh J. McKenzie; Chorus, Never Say Fail; recitation, Florence McLeod. This was followed by extemperaneans speeches by several of the leading men of the community, expressive of their appreciation of the work carried on by the organization. But the main bit of the evening was the address by A. S. Wright, G. W. P., of Searletown, wherein, in strong and convincing terms, he showed up the evils of the rum traffic and the benefits to be derived from a consistent membership in the Order of the S. O. T. After a hearty vote of thanks had been extended Mr. Wright, the meeting closed with the National Anthem.
