THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

SATURDAY'S Guardian had 77 classified ads. The Stanley arrived Saturday night at 8.45.

The train arrived in the city Saturday night at 10.15

COUNCILLOR ROBERTS has The Guardian's thanks for a late copy of Edinburgh Chronicle.

GUY TUCKER of the survey staff of the Transcontinental Railway has arrived home for a vacation.

WILLIAM W. McLEOD and wife were passengers by the City of London from Orpound on Saturday.

C. C. LINDSAY, of Prince Edward Island, was in Moncton last week, according to the Transcript.

NEIL A. GILLES, Orwell Cove, has been appointed district registrar of births, deaths, and marriages for lot 57.

The music page in the Saturday issue of June 10th will contain the words and music of a song entitled "The Sailor's Wife."

D. G. HARLOW, Bridgetown, N. S., representing Beeler and Harlow vinegar manufacturers is at the Queen. Mr. Harlow intends taking a few horses with him.

WILLIAM HOGG, of the Royal Bank of Canada, left on Saturday for Sherbrooke, Que., where his brother Robert W. is to be married tomorrow evening to Miss Annie Fales.

J. G. JAMIESON'S attractive drugstore is rendered even more attractive by reason of the fine light recently installed. It is what is known as the arc-burst and sheds a very pleasing and effective light all over the store.

J. F. JENKINS, of Albany Plains, who accidentally fell off his barn loft about two weeks ago, is still confined to his bed suffering with four broken ribs and a general shake up. His many friends will be pleased to hear that he will soon be around again.

JOSEPH LARGO of the Anglo American Tel. Co. in this city, who has been relieving in Sackville for the past fortnight returns home tonight. James Murley, who has been filling Mr. Largo's position during his absence, will return to his old position in the Sackville office tomorrow morning.

ON Saturday Richard Burke, Dominion Fruit Inspector, held an orobard meeting at Morris Shea's, Selkirk Road. Today a meeting will be held at J. A. Anner's, Lower Montague; tomorrow at John Robertson's, Inkerman; Wednesday at Gowan Brae; and on Thursday at Senator Ferguson's, Marshfield.

THE S. S. City of London had 10 passengers and an extra heavy load of freight to Orpound on Saturday. There were 10 passengers on the return trip and the following cargo: 75 cases eggs, 25 head beef cattle, 30 packages butter, 25 cases lobsters and a ton of sundry other consignments for local dealers.

A VERY bad accident happened Daniel Nicholson of Springton, while working in a field about a mile from his house. By something giving way in a stamping machine he was operating, the shaft came back with awful force breaking his thigh. His daughter, who happened to be with him at the time, called a neighbor and together they assisted him to his home. Had the shaft struck him a little higher up it might have proven fatal. Dr. Crawford set the injured limb and the patient is doing as well as can be expected.

A VERY interesting and pretty wedding event took place on the 6th inst., at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Fred H. Cole, Alma St., Moncton, when Truman Colpitts, a well-known and popular I. C. R. employe, was united in Marriage to Miss Laura Phelan. The ceremony was performed by Rev. I. M. Baird, pastor of the Lewisville Baptist church, Moncton, and was witnessed by a number of friends and relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Colpitts left on the Maritime express on a bridal trip to P. E. Island and Nova Scotia points.

A MEETING of the Executive of the Local Government was held on Friday. The purchase from A. B. Wetherburn of the right of way to the Hillsboro Bridge was agreed to, and the matter ordered to be closed as soon as possible. Theodore Ross, B. A., was appointed Secretary of Agriculture. It was arranged that Hon. J. H. Cumminskey, C. W. P. should go to Toronto to investigate the system of concrete culverts adopted by the Ontario Government with a view to introducing this system on the Island in place of the wooden culverts. A delegation from the Lord's Day Alliance was heard, asking that the charter be amended so as to prohibit Sunday carts. A delegation from the Prince County Temperance Alliance was also heard respecting the Summerside venditorship. In both cases the Government promised careful consideration.
