BEST SHOWING OF EVENING WEAR EVER SHOWN IN CHARLOTTETOWN

Ladies interested in evening-wear should see Paton's eastern window. There is on display something out of the ordinary in silks, nets, and all-over-laces to match all shades of material used in the makeup of those dresses. There is one form draped in pink satin trimmed with a deep cream all-over Irish crochet lace and insertion which makes a very neat and pretty blouse which could be worn with any skirt. In the background there is a form draped with a white net beaded overdress with short sleeves over a yellow satin drop skirt, one of the latest Paris models, trimmed with a deep beaded fringe around neck, sleeves and panel. The second form is draped in a black beaded net dress over mauve satin similar to the first form. On the third form there is a white dress over pink satin trimmed with baby Irish crocheted lace neck and sleeves edged with a deep crystal fringe which adds greatly to the appearance of the dress. Ladies will do well not to forget when selecting that dress for some special occasion such as will be worn at the reception of the Governor General of Canada this coming summer, that Paton's have one of the largest stocks of evening-wear, silk waists, laces, bustle trimmings, Parisian bandings, nets and fringes on P. E. Island. 5-1MB11.

The Tuesday and Friday evening classes had their "wind up" at Smallwood's Hall, Charlottetown, Thursday evening with the biggest attendance on record. It was an occasion of mixed feelings—a delightful dance and much enjoyment, but regret was expressed on all sides that the classes have come to an end for the present, occasioned by the removal of Mrs. Trainor to Calgary who leaves on Monday to join her husband in that city. The hope is general that Mrs. Trainor will, before many moons, experience in the west such a severe attack of homesickness for the old town that she will be constrained not only to "hark" back but to "hike" back to God's own particular land and bring the family with her. Before the close of last night's dance Mr. Baver on behalf of the members of the classes presented Mrs. Trainor with a beautiful little silver loving cup containing fifty-five dollars in gold. J. A. S. Bayer, Mrs. J. O. Hyndman and Mrs. H. W. Weeks were the cheerers.—Exc.

READING GLASSES

A good many people think that in selecting glasses for reading it is sufficient to merely try on various pairs of glasses, until a pair which they think suits is found.

WE THINK DIFFERENTLY

The same careful, exacting test is necessary to determine whether the two eyes are alike, or whether Astigmatism or other defect be present.
