Captain Brookfield of Halifax a member of the Halifax Salvage Co., is expected in the Province shortly in connection with the contract of floating the steamer Turret Bell stranded at Cable Head.

Word has been received by David McLure of the death of his father William Simpson McLure which took place in Seattle Washington, April 2. He was buried in Lake View Cemetery. He died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Peter Champion. His former home was at Elliott's Mills in this Province. He was 91 years old.

All those who signed the roll applying for a Civilian Rifle Association and any others who would like to join the Civilian Rifle Association are requested to meet on Monday evening at seven sharp in the Kindergarten. Government grant per member one hundred rounds. Meeting called to order at seven p. m. prompt.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Copp of this Province, but now residing in Chelsea, Mass., will be pleased to hear that they were not burnt out by the big fire in Chelsea. How they escaped is a miracle. The houses on the opposite side of the street were burned to the ground, and the house next to theirs caught fire. But through the heroic efforts of several good and kind friends they were saved.

During the storm on Sunday last the three masted schooner Arclight, Captain Poole, of Charlottetown, which came down Saturday to Halifax from the International pier with a cargo of coal and anchored in the stream, dragged her anchor and swept up the dock past Brennan's wharf, striking easily on the bottom. She was afterwards pulled off unharmed. On her way she collided with the tug Tona, tearing the latter's smokstack out, but fortunately doing no further damage. The Arclight will likely sail this week for Charlottetown.

At a meeting of Victor Co., U.R. K. of P., held at the Arena last night to discuss the Boston trip in August it was decided that the company should go and compete for the very valuable prizes offered there for the best drilled company. There will be about sixty thousand Knights in Boston on that occasion. The prizes offered in the different classes run from $600 to $1,500. Victor Company of this City with Captain W. B. Prowse in command will uphold the reputation won by P. E. Island Militia for proficiency in drill. The Guardian wishes the local Knights every success in their undertaking, and hopes to see them bring back one of the big prizes.

Vox Urbis for the current month, a publication printed in Latin language in Rome has a most appreciative article on Church Extension and its now famous founder Dr. Kelly, a talented churchman born in Charlottetown. Superb photos of Dr. Kelly, Archbishop Quigley, of Chicago, etc., illustrated the article. The whole world is in admiration of Dr. Kelly's work.

The perfect corset for large women. It places over developed women on the same basis as their slender sisters. It tapers off the bust, flattens the abdomen and absolutely reduces the hips from one to five inches. Not a harness—not a cumbersome affair, no torturing straps, but the most scientific example of corsetry, boned in such a manner as to give the wearer absolute freedom of movement.

Crowds of boys and young men playing ball on the streets, in various parts of the city have become a good deal of a nuisance. They frighten horses, obstruct traffic, and subject pedestrians on the sidewalks to the danger of being injured. The streets are not intended for ball practice. A warning from the police would no doubt stop it.
