The program although a little lengthy, was well carried out, all the members being listened to with rapt attention. The teacher, Miss Callaghan who understood the carrying out of this program deserves great credit and is worthy of commendation. Mr. Hammond Higgins was chairman and needless to say the order was of the best. After the program Miss Callaghan was presented with a handsome gift (a toilet set) from the pupils for her untiring efforts on this occasion, then Santa Claus appeared and distributed many pretty gifts from the well laden tree to the children. ST. JAMES CHURCH.—The Sewing Circle in connection with St. James Church resumes its weekly meetings next Thursday week.

MISLEADING.—A resident of Rusticoville wishes The Guardian to state that the recent storm reported some days ago did not do any damage, such as reported, and that it was no more than an ordinary north east wind storm and that the citizens were in no way excited.

ISLAND BOYS.—The New Glasgow Enterprise of the 2nd contains a splendid report of the hockey match between the Millionaires of Sydney and the New Glasgow Cubs, the first match in the professional league of the Maritime Provinces, in which the millionaires won by one goal. In classifying the relative merits of the players on both teams, the News gives Jimmie Williams and young Gregory, the fast players from this province, whose names figure annually on the honor roll of the stick-handlers, great credit for their work on the ice. It says: "In fact Williams and Gregory seemed to play especially well together. In the first period Gregory carried the puck through the Millionaires' defence and landed it in the net. This was about one minute from the start. After a combined effort on the part of the Cubs the puck came Gregory's way and he again landed it in the net. Williams was taken into the game. From the face of Williams showed wonderful speed and won the puck for the Sydney nets, but when he got there was unsupported. Gregory again figured in the second period by bombarding the Sydney goal with many shots, and in the third period he did splendid work and scored another goal for the Cubs." Their many friends and "old sports" in Charlottetown are wishing Gregory and Williams a prosperous New Year and hope they will have the best luck in the game.
