A WARNING Breathes there a man with soul so dead, Who never to himself hath said, 'My trade of late is getting bad, I'll try another ten-inch ad.' If such there be go mark him well, For him no bank account shall swell; No angel watch the golden stair, To welcome home a millionaire. The man who never asks for trade By local line or ad displayed, 'Takes more for rest than worldly gain And patronage but gives him pain. Tread lightly, friends, let no rude sound Disturb his solitude profound Here let him live in calm repose 'Nought except by men he owes, And when he dies go plant him deep That naught may break his dreamless sleep; Wherein no clamor man dispel The quiet that he loved so well; And that the world may know its loss Place on his grave a wreath of moss; And on stone above, 'Here lies A chump who wouldn't advertise.'
