Rev. John Elliott, D. D., who comes to Charlottetown this autumn to conduct "The King's Business Evangelistic Campaign," must not be taken for Dr. Elliott late of Harvard University who has started many, by his new religion. Dr. John Elliott has only the old old story to tell people, and thousands have been blessed by his faithful Gospel message.

In order to keep up the interest in rifle shooting a number of the most enthusiastic riflemen have ordered a Cup which shall be known as the Charlottetown Rifle Championship Trophy. This Cup stands about twenty inches high, is gold lined and of best quality. Final arrangements concerning the details of the competition are now in the hands of the Committee, but the probabilities are that this trophy will take on the nature of a Challenge Cup to be shot for annually. The gentlemen concerned are to be commended for taking such practical steps to foster good rifle shooting in this Province.

The funeral of the late George Bremner of the Customs Department took place Saturday morning and was largely attended. The impressive services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. Mr. Woodroffe assisted by Rev. H. E. Thomas and Rev. W. Corey. The pall bearers were W. B. Robertson, Robert Hogg, Arthur Peal, Mr. Moran, Mr. Flynn, Jas. McDonald, Andrew Sullivan and John Fraser all fellow workers of the deceased. The floral offerings were exceptionally chaste and beautiful and were silent expressions of deepest sympathy from a large circle of friends. Interment took place at Sherwood Cemetery.
