

THE WESTERN GUARDIAN

—IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

—MR. W. K. McGOUGAN, Secretary of the Globe Fox Exchange, P.O. Box 10, is the Guardian Agent in Summerside.

—THE MORNING DAILY Guardian can be obtained at Laurier's Tonsorial Parlors, Summerside.

—MR. E. P. FOLEY, Guardian representative in Alberton will gladly receive subscriptions and advertising matter.

—PRODUCE.—There is a considerable amount of produce coming to Summerside at present. Prices remain about the same as last quoted.—H.

—NEW BARN.—Mr. James Roach, of Lower Malpeque, has completed a new barn 25 x 25 feet trap roof. It is a credit to the builder Mr. John Mountain, also to the settlement.—D.

—SHORT HOLIDAY.—A few of the soldier boys have arrived home to spend a short holiday with their friends before they leave on the second contingent which they expect will be in the course of two weeks.—H.

—ISLANDER RECOVERED.—By a letter received from Mr. Alfred Morrison, of Boston, it is learned that he is much improved and is out of the hospital, having been there for three months with a broken ankle.—D.

—SUBSCRIBERS should renew a week or two before the time they have paid for has expired and thus not miss an issue, as all papers are discontinued promptly on expiry date.

—POLICE COURT.—Two drunks of rather pugnacious qualities were rounded up by the Summerside police on Tuesday night. They were arraigned at the Police Court on Wednesday before his Honour Stipendiary Magistrate. The usual fine of $5 and costs were imposed or 10 days in jail. They paid up and got their liberty.—H.

—A few of the visitors to Summerside on Wednesday were:—Rev. M. Monaghan, Miscouche; Senator Murphy, English; Mr. A. J. Griffin, Glenary; Mr. T. A. Matthews, Elmsdale; Mr. Fred Rennie, Alma; Mr. Gordon Bernard, O'Leary; Mr. Archie Campbell, New Annan; Mr. James Squarebriggs, Miscouche; Mr. James Kennedy, M. L. A., Kensington; and Joseph T. Gallant, Plusville.—H.

—PORT HILL.—Mr. Theodore Scott has opened up a general store at Port Hill.—The ladies of St. James Presbyterian Church, Port Hill intend holding a supper and bazaar in the hall on the evening of Wednesday, Dec. 9th.—The work on the extension of the wharf at Coopers Shore, Port Hill is now well advanced and the foreman, Mr. J. K. Ramsay expects to have the work done this fall.—Miss Annie Ellis, Port Hill, is spending a few days with her sister Miss Ione Ellis, Summerside.—P.

—SERIOUS OPERATION.—One of the most difficult and serious operations yet performed in the Prince County Hospital took place a few days ago in that institution, when Mr. Gordon Bennett of Alberton, who for some time has been troubled with a disease of the hip, was brought to the hospital here for treatment. The medical profession, in charge decided that the local amputation of the leg was necessary. Although the case is still a serious one, there are good hopes for the recovery of Mr. Bennett.—H.

—AGED LADY DEAD.—Miss Elizabeth Henry, an elderly lady of 77 years, died at the home of her nephew, Mr. Art. Henry, Malpeque, on Sunday, about midnight, after a long illness. About three years ago, Miss Henry, who is the last of her family, was stricken with paralysis which left her so lame that she could only walk aided by a large staff. On the day of her death she sat up for a time but towards evening she gradually grew worse until she peacefully passed away, being conscious until the last. Her funeral was largely attended by friends from Darnley, French River, Batters and Hamilton, the pallbearers being: John Craig, Keir Ramsay, Art. Henry, Robert Henry and George Crozier.—D.

—WEDDING BELLS.—A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. Joseph T. Hardy, Plusville, on Nov. 25th, when their daughter, Miss Rachel M. Hardy was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. John H. Barbour of Alma. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. Lockhart, B. A. The bride beautifully attired in a gown of pale blue crepe cloth trimmed with white all-over lace cloth trimmed with white all-over lace and sash to match, looked very winsome as she entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, beautifully played by Miss Mabel Hardy, cousin of the bride. Miss Janetta Horne acted as bridesmaid, being gowned in a dress of pink travelling trimmed with pink velvet and all-over lace. Mr. Heber Hardy, brother-in-law of the bride, ably supported the groom. After the ceremony in the presence of only the immediate relatives, the bride sat down to a sumptuous supper prepared in Mrs. Hardy's kitchen. The presents were costly and many, the groom's present to the bride being a sable muff. The young couple will reside in Alma.

Listen to the Great Explorer

Here are the actual words used by Shackleton when planning his Antarctic Expedition, well knowing that the very lives of the whole party depend on the food they carry:—

"The question of the concentrated beef supply is most important—it must be Bovril."

You, like Shackleton's men, can be sure of being nourished if you take Bovril. In addition to its own wonderful nourishment, Bovril makes everything you eat more nourishing.

Bovril—and Bovril alone—has been proved by independent scientific investigation to have a body-building power of from 10 to 20 times the amount taken.

It-must-be BOVRIL

On all Stores, etc., at 1-oz. 25c.; 2-oz. 40c.; 4-oz. 70c.; 8-oz. $1.30; 16-oz. $2.25. Bovril Cordial, large, 47-oz. 5.00; 4-oz. 1.00. Johnston's Fluid Beef (Vimbe) $1.25.
