Veterinary Medical Association

The annual meeting of the Prince Edward Island Veterinary Medical Association was held Wednesday evening in the Canadian Legion Rooms, the President Dr. I. E. Croken, presiding.

After his opening remarks the President feeling referred to the loss sustained by their association in the deaths of Dr. Bousfield, who was secretary-treasurer; Dr. Mills, Dr. Henderson and Dr. John T. Crograve.

Several important matters were discussed, on which later action will be taken.

During the general discussion it was pointed out that veterinary science, among other achievements has eliminated T. B. out of the stables of Prince Edward Island; over 100,000 cattle had the T. B. test applied—on 13,000 farms and only 530 re-actives were found. Those were due to time re-tested and as a result only three re-actives were found, which leaves the cattle in this province absolutely free of T. B.—something no other province in Canada can boast of.

Great credit was accorded the veterinary profession for the manner in which the recent outbreak of mules was eradicated.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President—Dr. J. R. Cunningham, Summerside.

Vice Pres.—Dr. I. E. Croken, City. Secy.—Treas.—Dr. J. A. O'Keefe, Avondale.

Registrar—Hon. Geo. E. Hughes, City. Council Board—Dr. J. J. Farrell, Summerside; Dr. W. E. Thompson,

Pleasantly And Suitably Remembered

One of those events which brighten the roadway of life and make life's labour less onerous at the Arena Rink last evening, when two representatives of the Abbie Sisters Hockey Club waited on Mr. John L. McAleer, the obliging Ice Manager of the Arena, and presented him with a gift of gold as an expression of appreciation and goodwill to one who had endeavored to make their hockey season a pleasant and profitable one. Needless to say Mr. McAleer was greatly pleased with this expression of goodwill on the part of these fair young ladies, not because of the value of the gift but of the splendid spirit which prompted it.

This is not the first time that Mr. McAleer has been kindly remembered by patrons of the Arena. Recently the teaching staff of Queen Square School, following their big evening's sport, presented Mr. McAleer with a beautiful gift as an appreciation of his splendid assistance to them. Mr. McAleer is grateful and he deserves it all.

Kensington; Dr. D. L. McAssey, Head of Hillsboro. Before the close of the meeting it was brought to the notice of the members that since the death of Dr. Bousfield, the duties of secretary-treasurer was taken over by the then president Dr. Croken who performed the extra duties to the entire satisfaction of the Association.

On motion of Dr. O'Keefe seconded by Dr. Simms a hearty vote of thanks was tendered by the president to Dr. Croken who modestly acknowledged the same.

THE MARKETS

(Canadian Press) OTTAWA, Ont., March 15. (Eggs)—A slightly easier tone is noted on Canadian egg markets today, this being especially evident at the larger consuming centres of the east.

TORONTO—The situation here is very unsettled and inclining easier due partly to the supplies of American eggs on hand. Dealers are quoting country shippers extras 38; firsts 35-36; pullet delivered 27-30; seconds 25-27 deliv. Extras to retailers are extras 42-44; firsts 40-41; seconds 34-35.

MONTREAL—This egg market is slightly lower. Sales are being made in a jobbing way at extras 41; firsts 39; seconds 35; firsts 33; seconds 34. Eggs are being offered from Saskatchewan at extras 35; firsts 33; seconds 29 and from Alberta at 1-2c less.

WINNIPEG—Receipts are increasing on this market, but prices are unchanged. At Moosejaw dealers are quoting country shippers extras 27-31; firsts 25-28; seconds 20-22.

MONTREAL, Que., March 15.—The export trade in Canadian grain here today was extremely dull owing to the fact that foreign buyers failed to respond to the prices asked by local exporters. A feature of the domestic cash grain trade was the good demand for Manitoba feed wheat and sales of some fair quantities were made at 27c per bushel under the Winnipeg may option exchange here. The trade in oats was moderate and the tone of this market was firm. The inquiry for spring and winter wheat grades of flour continued quiet but values were unchanged. The demand from the United States for all lines of millfeed was good, but owing to the small supplies available from the millers, the volume of business was checked. The local trade was active and firm. The market for standard grades of rolled oats was quiet but steady. An active business was again done in all grades of fresh eggs and prices were firm. The receipts were 1,727 cases. The undertone to the potato market continued firm under a good demand from all sources. The trade in imported beans was fair and prices were steady. Sales of carlots of choice white handpicked were made at $3.50 per bushel ex-track and smaller quantities at $3.30 per bushel ex-store. The demand for butter was again of a limited character but prices were firmly maintained. The receipts were 24 packages. Owing to the small stocks of cheese held in first hands a stronger feeling prevailed in the local market and prices scored a fractional advance. The demand was quiet. The receipts were 42 boxes.

Assembly Reduces Army Estimates

(Canadian Press) DELHI, India, March 15.—By a vote of 66 to 51, the Legislative Assembly carried a motion for a reduction of 500,000 rupees ($38,000,000) in the estimated expenditure on the Army Department. Several Indian members spoke in support of the motion and criticized the Army Department. Kumar Rananjaya Singh said the Government's policy with regard to India was an outrage to India and was resented by every Indian possessing a spark of self respect.

Srinivas Iyengar attacked Field Marshal Sir William Birdwood, Commander in Chief of the Army in India, during the debate and said it would be better if the head of the Army like the Viceroy remained outside of the Assembly instead of being a member of that body. He declared that the British had overstayed their welcome in India and within 10 years they would be swept out.

"Do not provoke us further," he said, "come to terms with us." Col. G. B. Crawford defended Sir William Birdwood and supported the Government's policy. In answer to a suggestion by Dr. Moonje that there should be a reduction in the British troops by 10,000 and an increase of the Indian troops by 50,000 Col. Crawford said the geographical position of India required that her army should be of the present size and composition. As to the officering of the army he said India officers who could command men and whom men would follow were wanted.

Annual Banquet

The fifteenth annual banquet of King William L.O.L. No. 116, was held in their lodge room Kingston, on Monday evening, March 6th. The evening being fine, the members, their wives, daughters and sweethearts were out in full force. Almost one hundred sat down to a most bountiful repast catered to by a most obliging and courteous committee and judging from remarks made, the 1928 banquet was the best yet.

After the wants of the inner man had been fully attended to the chairman for the evening, Brother Daniel L. Fraser called the meeting to order with a few well chosen remarks reviewing the banquet history from its inception fourteen years ago up to the present time. After which the whole assembly joined the choir in singing the beautiful old, yet ever new hymn, "Blest Be Thee That Binds". This was followed by an excellent address by Rev. Bro. W. R. MacWalker of North River, on the Brotherhood of man clearly showing that the grand old Orange order is one of the greatest assets known to the Christian church.

Rev. E. M. Aitken of Cornwall, the next speaker, took as his leading thought "Christ's Loyalty" and in the course of his remarks said that if all Christians were as loyal to the Church as were Orangemen we would have marked Christian advancement. Rev. Brother R. H. Stavert followed with a splendid address on the need of the hour True Manhood, stressing true indication, in the home, the school the lodge room and the church stating with Goldsmith that: "Ill fares the land to hastening ills a prey, Where wealth accumulates and men decay."

The last speaker Brother C. E. MacKenzie, Provincial Grand Master, in a brief address clearly demonstrated the broad mindedness of the principles of our order and proved his statements by showing the Orange motto, "Equal Rights to All" to be the broadest view that could be taken by any society.

The addresses were interspersed with musical selections by Mrs. Everett Holmes and Mr. Donald MacDonald and by vocal selections by Miss Rita Crews and Mr. Davis Ward. A hearty vote of thanks to those taking part was moved by Brother Reuben Barret in a splendid speech on the high standards of the men in the order. This motion was seconded by Brother Nicholas Colwill and carried unanimously. The King.

GIVES HIS IMPRESSIONS OF CANADA

SAINT JOHN, March 15.—"My impression on landing in Saint John is that this country is nothing more or less than an extension of the British Isles; from what I have already seen I have no misgivings about Canada remaining British."

These were among the outstanding expressions voiced by John Walter M.A., (Oxon Co-proprietor of The Times of London, Eng., when responding to a toast to "The Thunderer" at a luncheon given here yesterday in the Union Club by the publishers of the Telegraph-Journal and the Evening Times-Globe. J. D. McKenna, President of the New Brunswick Publishing Company Ltd., was in the chair and extended to Mr. Walter a hearty welcome to Saint John and to Canada.

The toast to the guest of honor was proposed by Hon. J. B. Baxter, Premier of New Brunswick. Premier Baxter first called attention to the fact that the gathering was unique in that it was graced by the presence of a number of the fifth generations of men who had taken part virtually in the control of the world. He recalled how in former days London seemed very far away to the People in Canada in point of distance, and the time taken to reach it, but modern science has done much to bring the two countries very close together. He cited an instance of this which occurred this morning when he talked by radio telephone with Lord Beaverbrook in London.

Mr. Walter said in England, one heard a great deal about the influx of foreigners to Canada and that the British-speaking population was being outnumbered. However, he had the experience on Sunday of landing in a country which he considered was nothing more or less than an extension of the British Isles. The people give one the impression of feeling proud of being the descendants of those people (the loyalists) commemorated by the stone erected at the landing slip. I have no misgivings about Canada remaining British, he declared.

Mr. Walter said that while he was in Canada on an educational mission he felt that he had very little to teach the press of the Dominion.

In Memoriam

MR. MURDOCK McSWAIN On Saturday, January 6th, Mr. Murdock McSwain, a highly esteemed resident of Hunter River passed peacefully away at the Camp Hill Hospital, Halifax, N. S., at the age of 73 years.

The deceased was one of the Canadian heroes of the Great World War. He was the second youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Roderick McSwain of Hunter River and enlisted in 1915. He spent four years in all overseas. Of this period about two years were spent on the firing line. Although he had many opportunities of rising from the ranks, he preferred to remain as a private, where he felt that he could do his best work.

Not long before the close of the war he was quite badly gassed, and some time after returning home his health began to fail him. As time went on he became afflicted with a tubercular disease. In order that he might get the best possible attention he went to Camp Hill Hospital, Halifax, N. S., for medical aid.

For the past seven or eight years he has spent several months each year in making in all about two and one half years in the hospital. Although he was possessed of a rugged constitution, under the continuous strain of a prolonged illness his strength gradually waned, until on the above mentioned date his young and noble spirit winged its homeward flight.

Besides a loving and devoted mother who is feeling her loss very keenly "Murdock" leaves to mourn the loss of a noble and heroic brother, one brother and three sisters, and also two half-brothers, and three half-sisters.

The brother is William McSwain, St. John, N. B., and the sisters are Mrs. Dorothy McSwain, New York, and the Misses Margaret and Bessie McSwain, Quincy, Mass., and the half-brothers are Malcolm McSwain, Colorado, and Allan McSwain, Minnesota, and the half-sisters are Mrs. Catherine Morrison California, Mrs. Miamie McSwain, Minnesota, and Miss Margaret McSwain, New York.

Mr. Roderick McSwain, Murdock's father, died in 1921, and a younger brother Stewart McSwain, passed away in 1923. Murdock was a young man of sterling worth and very popular with his comrades. Although he suffered a great deal of pain from his affliction, he was always patient and bright and had a word of good cheer for everybody. He will be much missed by his relatives and his many friends and admirers. In the closing hours of life he exhibited the same calm and composed spirit as ever, characterized even throughout the struggle and conflict.

Deeds Of Kindness By Snow Recalled

HOULTON BROKER REFUSES INTERVIEW IN JAIL—GAVE FREELY TO CHURCHES, REPAID GAMAGE INVESTORS' LOSSES. By Frank P. Sibley

HOULTON, Me., March 15.—Percy K. Snow, who is confined in the County Jail here on a warrant charging him with violation of the bucket shop law, this morning decided not to talk to reporters. Last night he made an appointment with one of the newspapers, after trying to get all mention of his case kept out of print.

He still has not secured bail, and his attorney, Terence Towle of Bangor, has not been here. Whether Mr. Towle is making arrangements at Bangor for bailing his client is not known here. The snow case continues to be the main topic of discussion in Houlton. Residents today were recalling a great many facts to Snow's credit in the time he has been here.

AIDED SISTER'S HUSBAND Snow is a native of Charlottetown, P.E.I., and it is being told here today how when he became prosperous he brought his sister's husband here for medical attention. He has been an anonymous giver in a great many ways and has carried several poor families through times of stress. He has been generous to the churches and has been a giver of royal tips for service rendered to him.

Mrs. Louise A. Moore today took occasion to deny that she had lost any money through investment with Mr. Snow, though she declined to say anything more about the matter than that. A manufacturer from this section told today how he met Mr. Snow when they were casually introduced on the street and how he placed $500 with him as a margin. He bought stock through Snow, took down his profit when the stock rose in price, bought other stock with the original stake and got all the profits and original $500 on demand. This was a year ago last Christmas.

WONDER HOW HE GOT PERMIT One item which has counted heavily among the townspeople in favor of the stock broker has been the treatment he gave the people who had invested with the Gamage Company. Snow came here originally as an agent for the J. A. Gamage Company, Gamage was convicted under the bucket-shop law and Snow then set up for himself. Many had lost their investments with Gamage, and Snow apparently felt the moral responsibility for these losses. There was no other obligation upon him, but it is known that he paid out of his own pocket a great many of the losses of investors with the Gamage Company.

Interest has swung today to the question of how Snow, with the history of having been connected with Gamage and with the greatest of at least two of Houlton's banks standing against him, managed to get a stock brokerage license from the State Department of Banking. A representative of the Bank Commissioner came here at the time to investigate and his report is on file at Augusta. Meanwhile, Snow seems to be fairly comfortable in the County Jail. He is living on the jail fare, though at a person simply held for the Grand Jury, and in the status of being presumed innocent, he might, if he choose, send out for food.

ESTIMATES Tabled In N. S. Assembly

(Canadian Press) HALIFAX, N. S., March 15.—Revenue of $7,044,304.49, expenditure of $7,475,925.39 and a total deficit of $227,099.95 were the outstanding figures of the estimates for the current fiscal year which expires Sept. 30, tabled in the Legislative Assembly this afternoon and discussed in the budget speech delivered by Premier Rhodes. Both of the figures for revenue and expenditure are largest in the history of the Province.

The debate was taken up by Hon. William Chisholm, leader of the opposition, who spoke at considerable length and adjourned the debate until tomorrow when he will continue. He charged manipulation of figures for the purpose of making a good showing, increased expenditures with no corresponding improvement in public services, and extravagance. The total revenue for the fiscal year ended Sept. 30, 1927 was $6,517,072.99 and the total expenditure $6,566,143.34 for the same period, with a total net deficit of $195,828.83 as shown in the public accounts.

Premier Rhodes announced that the House would go into committee on supply tomorrow and stated that there would be a session on Saturday of this week. As a session of the House on Saturday has been a very rare occurrence it is taken as an indication that the House will prorogue at an early date, probably next week.

Premier Rhodes called attention to the fact that since taking office the Provincial expenditures had always been within the estimate; although deficits had occurred they had always been less than provided for in the budget. He referred to the increased subsidies derived under the recommendations of the Duncan Commission, but charged the Federal Government with delay in making payment, and presented the fact that the Federal Government had held back $133,000 in lieu of a claim on the Province for the service of troops in Cape Breton in 1925 during a strike, claim that is now in the courts to be decided. He believed that the Federal Government had used "high handed" methods not in keeping with the courtesy and dignity that should prevail between Governments.

Broadcast Program From London, Eng. Labor Dispute Hard To Settle

(Canadian Press) OTTAWA, Ont., March 15.—The government found it difficult to settle what appeared to be an internal dispute between Labor organizations, Hon. Peter Heenan, Minister of Labor, told a deputation from the all-Canadian Congress of Labor today. The delegation requested "that the recognition now given to the trades and labor congress of Canada, and in some measure to the National Catholic Unions and the American Railway Brotherhoods be extended to the all-Canadian Congress of Labor."

Premier W. L. MacKenzie King, who was present with other members of the cabinet endorsed the viewpoint. The deputation was heard in camera and it is understood that the Prime Minister intimated that it might be possible to give all-Canadian Congress representation on some of the government advisory bodies. Mr. Heenan expressed the earnest hope that some way would be found by the trade and labor congress of Canada and the all-Canadian Congress themselves to get together. The government, he added, was always willing to listen to representations from any Labor Union. Mr. Heenan appreciated the co-operation of the individual unions in labor disputes during the past year.

Very few of our people realize what an excellent Radio Service the Island Radio Company are giving Charlottetown. The amount of work and the degree of technical skill required to carry out some six continuous hours of broadcasting such as Island Radio gave yesterday, is considerable. The splendid and faithful reproduction of the programs received and rebroadcasted is notable when one understands the many transformations which they must go through.

As reception conditions generally in Charlottetown were exceptionally bad, the WGY program was then re-broadcasted by CFXY thus making available the Dodge Bros. hour which is becoming very popular as a weekly feature on the big circuit of stations.

DELIGHTFUL BRIDGE A most enjoyable and largely attended bridge was given last night in the Knights of Pythias Hall, under the auspices of the Pythian sisters. At the conclusion of the play prizes were awarded, the winners being as follows: Ladies first prize Mrs. Bert Davison, Ladies second prize, Mrs. J. Murley, Ladies consolation, Mrs. George Keith. Gentlemen's first prize, Mr. Harold Stewart; second prize, Mr. James Fullerton, consolation prize, Mr. W. R. LePage. A delightful supper was served, the tables being tastefully decorated with sprigs of shamrock. The proceeds of the entertainment go to charity.
