"When my little son was three months old he broke out in sores on his chest and arms. We did all we could to heal those terrible sores, but nothing did him much good. Finally I ventured on a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment and kept on using it. At last we were rewarded by the steady healing of the sores, and finally he was completely relieved of them. He is now three years old, and has had no return of the trouble since."

Big Turn out of Players and Fans saw Some Howling Good Matches of the Roarin' Game and Judging by the Cheering the Game has Been Correctly Named.

Yesterday afternoon and evening got a nice lead winding up with 78 large numbers gathered at the Charlottetown Curling Rink to witness the first match between the East and West.

Great interest has centered in this match for some days and the outcome was considered uncertain as all teams were very evenly matched.

With the exception of one or two matches the games were hotly contested and the play was in doubt until the last stone was thrown.

The West enders went after their opponents from the start and

Deport Christians Into Plague Area

ATHENS, Feb. 2.—The Turks have abruptly resumed deportations in Asia Minor despite the government's decision not to admit more refugees to this country while epidemics of cholera, typhus and smallpox are raging, according to advices received by the Near East Relief.

A telegram from Constantinople said that the Turkish authorities had suddenly ordered 3,000 Greek at Trebizond to leave immediately aboard three foreign ships. The message added that the refugees were being sent to Greece from Constantinople aboard the steamship Ionia. Arrangements have been made for the vessel to proceed to the hospital camp on the island Macronisi.

Victoria Won

VICTORIA, B.C., Jan. 29.—Although a bit weary after their long haul to the coast, Newry's London's Saskatoon Crescents gave the Victoria Cougars a great battle in the inter-league game here Saturday night but were defeated 5 to 2.

There were not as many skating in costume, as on previous years but some really good make-ups were displayed and the usual clown outfits were very much in evidence.

MAIL TRAIN DELAYED—More trouble on the mainland line between Sackville and Tormentine was evident yesterday from the fact that the mail train failed to come through. The car ferry waited all day at Tormentine leaving at 6.45 p.m. without making connections and at a late hour last night had arrived within a short distance from Borden. The P. E. I. line is now clear with the exception of the Elmira branch and all trains will be running today. Yesterdays drifting snow has made the tracks heavy but the blockade is over for the present, at any rate. The Murray Harbor train, which left here Tuesday reached her destination at 4 a.m. yesterday and the Summerside train after a week's snowighting, got to Tignish at 6.50 a.m. yesterday.

Leaves Note for Girl Before He Kills Self

SASKATOON, Sask., Feb. 2.—"Dear Mable: I've made a tiny thief of myself to show you my last good time. Still a fool, eh? I've broke and thought that as the time was up for leaving you, I will be with you at last. Maybe, it's no dream when I say I was crazy over you, still dreaming, Victor."

This letter, written by Victor Kemp, 23, twelve hours before he took his own life early January 31st, by shooting himself, was read at the coroner's inquest today and explains the motive for his suicide. The letter was identified by Mabelle Wolfe, the girl with whom the young man had spent the last hours of his life.

The verdict was suicide.

The Leviant, built by the Bethlehem Corporation, was built for the United States Navy, but was later transferred to the Emergency Fleet Corporation. She was built during the war.

Says She Witnessed the Kinrade Shooting

HAMILTON, Ont., Feb. 2.—The local police authorities were notified yesterday by J. S. Piper, inspector of a division of provincial police, Edmonton, Alta., that a woman named Irene May Christensen at present under sentence of death, for the murder of her husband at the Kinrade murder in Hamilton, Ont. on February 25, 1909, and was a witness of the shooting.

The Kinrade murder has never been solved. The victim was Ebel Kinrade, a daughter of T. L. Kinrade, a public school principal, who was with her sister, Florence, at their fine home, 105 Herkimer street. The murder took place at four o'clock in the afternoon, Florence, the sister, says a tramp came in and shot her sister, but the police were unable to get any trace of the tramp. At the time of the tragedy, the mother was at police headquarters complaining that they had been annoyed by threatening tramps. The sister, Florence, afterwards married Montrose Wright, and after his death went on the stage. She is now in Europe studying for an appearance in grand opera. The police here take little stock in the story of the Edmonton woman.

MAKES SPLENDID SHOWING IN TWO FAST ICE RACES

Col. MacKinnon's New Pacer Dan Patchen Wins Race at Windsor and Comes Third at Mt. Clemens.

Col. D. A. MacKinnon, D.S.O. educated their horses to get away very fast, a favorable position being to get in behind the pole horse. They also have them educated to brush fast when they pull them out. Drivers are keen and fast but of course there are some accidents due to the fact that it is more difficult to judge distance on ice, and also to the sliding of the sulkeys.

The fastest time made during the circuit was by Kate Hal. This mare is Canadian owned and took the half mile track, record last year of 2:07 1/4. At Toronto she won the free-for-all on ice, Jan. 1st, taking a record of 2:13 1/2. It is generally conceded that there are three or more seconds difference between ice and clay racing and that a horse makes that much better time on clay. But this ruling brings up the medicinal mixture.

There are male and female attendants to administer the baths and the hotels are kept at a high temperature. Clemens has finished its season, constantly.

The ice races are an annual feature, usually held between January 15th and 25th. The merchants are interested in the race track and give it their support. These ice races are attended by persons from various parts of the United States and Canada and it is estimated that upwards of 1,000 people are accommodated in the hotels during the races.

The track is the usual half mile track. It has splendid barns and accommodation for the horses. The surface is ice and the horses racing over it are shod with what is known as the Russian saw shoe which prevents them slipping on the turns.

The spectators are made comfortable even on the coldest day by accommodation in a large, well-heated building with a glass front which permits a full view of the race track. But the most enthusiastic spectators go outside to see the finishes.

Great interest is taken among the horsemen in these ice races and many of the notable performers of recent years have graduated from this ice circuit. It is no use to take anything but good horses there, as the competition is very keen. Many of the great drivers in the United States bring their horses there for winter education and this year's meet had as competitors, Paul, Flemming, Mallow, Valentine, Fogarty, Morrison and other Grand Circuit stars, besides many others of less note. The officials were very satisfied and there was never the least objection to their rulings.

The driver's career in securing a position and getting away from them are in this country. They could dance the latest steps at the same functions and climb with those same difficult mountain passes. And Mr. Seiznick chose, of course, "The Star Without a Failure"—Elaine Hammerstein.

Conway Tearle and Elaine Hammerstein probably provide one of the most sensational combinations yet provided in pictures.

"One Week of Love," which comes to the Prince Edward theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, will be a rare treat for all, but most of a treat to those who have been writing, being, and enjoying the Selznick Picture Corporation to play Conway Tearle and Elaine Hammerstein together in one picture. Ever since these two popular players achieved fame and fortune in the World of Cinema, Mr. Lewis Selznick has been searching for a story in which he might employ their combined talents. At least ten thousand manuscripts passed through his hands before he finally picked Edward J. Montagne's "One Week of Love" as the final choice. Mr. Selznick's choice will cause thousands of hearts to flutter with excitement from Portland, Maine, to the other Portland that fronts the Pacific.

Here is a story that employs a kick in every foot, rising steadily to the champion climax of the last ten years. It is a glorious battle between a "Sheik of the Sierras" and a Society Queen, the Crude vs. the refined, and in the end both are winners. You will love the "Sheik" who you ever saw, for he is a white man through and through, who speaks with deeds and not with rolling eyes. Who but Conway Tearle in the world could bring the necessary brain and brawn to this heavy role?

As the Society Queen who flies as high over the Western mountains as she does the effete draw-ings, Elaine Hammerstein is unquestionably at her charming best. A girl who was as much at home guiding an aeroplane as guiding a social career was necessary for the role, an actress who combined red and blue blood, who

Prevent Immigrants From Leaving Canada

OTTAWA, Feb. 2.—A follow-up policy which would utilize the present staff of the Soldiers' Settlement Board and enable the government to have agents all over the country to receive immigrants and help them to get settled was stated by Hon. Charles Stewart, minister of immigration, tonight to be among the proposals he is bringing up in regard to immigration. Mr. Stewart said that the main thing was to keep people in the country after they had arrived here. He believed that a follow-up policy of this nature would help materially in keeping them.
