Speech from Throne Forecasts Much Important Legislation To Come Before the Commons

The Speech from the Throne forecasted little that has not been forecast. His Excellency congratulated Parliament on the prosperity of the country and its comparative freedom from unrest.

The Tariff Commission
Reference was made to the sittings of the tariff commission and parliament was informed that the conclusions reached by that commission would be laid before it in due course.

Other legislation forecasted in the speech will deal with unemployment insurance and old age pensions. There will be a bill for the repeal of the Conservation Act; amendments to the Dominion Election Act, and bills relating to copyright, the Income Tax Act and amendments, and scientific research.

The Speech
The Speech from the Throne was as follows:—Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate, Gentlemen of the House of Commons.

On your return to your parliamentary duties, I am glad to be able to congratulate you on the relative prosperity of the country and its comparative freedom from the feeling of unrest which has agitated countries not so fortunately situated.

IN HOUSE OF COMMONS SOME INCIDENTS, ETC.

Hon. Mr. Tolmie Starts a Laugh. Changes in Seating of Members. Sir Robert Borden and Hon. N. W. Rowell Side by Side

OTTAWA, Feb. 15.—When parliament reassembled this afternoon for the first time for the new session four members were presented and took their seats. They were the Hon. F. B. McDermid, re-elected in Colchester, N. S., the Hon. Rupert Wigmore, elected in St. John, N. B., S. S. McDermid, the successful Progressive candidate in East Elgin and J. A. McKelvie, who carried Yale, B. C. in government in the House. There was a curious incident as Mr. McKelvie was presented. A new member is always accompanied by two members who present him by name. One of the Hon. Mr. McKelvie's sponsors was Hon. Dr. Tolmie, minister of agriculture. But at the critical moment Dr. Tolmie evidently could not remember Mr. McKelvie's Christian name. Dr. Tolmie hesitated. The House laughed. Mr. McKelvie whispered and Dr. Tolmie smilingly made the presentation in the usual form.

ANOTHER FORWARD MOVE FOR P. E. ISLAND HOSPITAL

Arrangements Completed for Installation of Up-to-Date Laboratory for Pathological and Bacteriological Examinations.

The Trustees of the P. E. Island Hospital have completed arrangements for the installation of a laboratory in the hospital building and it is expected to have it in operation early in the Spring. This is the one link required to place the Prince Edward Island Hospital on a level with the best in Canada. It is already supplied with the main essentials, capable doctors, a competent lady superintendent and nursing staff. It has always been felt as a drawback that any pathological or bacteriological examinations required had to be done elsewhere, usually in Montreal, in which case valuable time was necessarily lost. By the installation of the new laboratory all this will be avoided. Analysis and examination will be conducted on the spot under a capable bacteriologist and with all the necessary equipment. This addition to the Hospital is a move in the right direction and the Trustees deserve every commendation for it. They are leaving nothing undone to carry out the great purpose of the institution which is to save life and to relieve suffering. And they have been eminently successful. The Hospital has much to its credit; from every portion of the province words of commendation and gratitude and the addition of a modern and up-to-date laboratory will, it may be assumed, be hailed with pleasure by all the friends of the Hospital.

State troops are actively engaged and people are fleeing toward British territory. The capital of the district is located in the city of Tonk, about 50 miles south of Jaipur. CITY HEALTH OFFICER'S REPORT FOR THE YEAR

Following is the report of Health Officer, Dr. McMillan submitted at the regular monthly meeting of the City Council on Monday evening.

To His Worship the Mayor, Chairman of the Board of Health, (Sir)—I have the honor to submit a report on the year's work in the Health Department. I may say the past year was uneventful as regards public health. The occurrence of more typhoid cases than usual during the early autumn occasioned some alarm, but the majority of these cases had their origin outside the city and there was no need for alarm in this regard. There were fewer deaths from tuberculosis last year than for many years giving hope that education along lines of public health is a factor in the reduction in the mortality from this dread disease.

In December many cases of measles were reported from all parts of the city and there was quite an epidemic but this is one disease that it is well for children to encounter in their earlier years as the older the patient, the worse the disease and its complications. A most important forward step was taken last spring by the City Council in the appointment of a qualified man, Dr. K. W. MacKinnon to fulfill the important duties of meat and milk inspector for the city and the results of his repeated examinations show clearly the need for such inspection.

The sanitary condition of the city yearly shows marked improvements owing in a great measure to the replacement of old unsightly buildings by modern up-to-date dwellings all equipped with sewerage.

A nuisance which I have often referred to and which still exists is the keeping of pigs within the city limits. It may be possible to keep a pig sty clean but you cannot keep down the odor as anyone living near a pigsty will testify, and again I say the only remedy is "cut them out entirely." The Free Dispensary continues its good work among the poor and saves the city many dollars in this regard, so it is worthy of generous support financially from the City Council.

The Sanitary Officer, Sergt. P. Bradley has faithfully attended to his duties during the past year. A report of Infectious and Contagious diseases and of deaths is appended.

The coldest during Monday night was 9 above zero. At 9 a. m. yesterday it was 9 above. The highest temperature was 13 above. At 9 o'clock last night it was 2 below zero. Between Sunday night and Monday morning the mercury went down to 7 below.
