Pigskin Phenoms Of 1929

Dartmouth seems to be personified at football this season by Al Marsters, a great back; and Marty Brill is already exciting avid public interest as one of Knute Rockne's latest edition of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen."

Brill, without seeking it, got a great publicity break when acclaimed by certain critics as Notre Dame's "Mystery Man" soon after he flashed brilliantly among the 1929 "Horsemen."

Offered Match

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Promoter Paddy Harmon, of the Chicago Stadium, today wanted a reply from Jackie Fields, world welterweight champion, to an offer of $50,000 for a title bout with the winner of the Sammy Mandell-Jimmy McLarnin meeting at the stadium tonight.

Both McLarnin and Mandell have agreed to terms offered by Harmon for a title meeting with Fields early next year. The offer was sent to Fields' manager, St. Rooney, at San Francisco, where the champion will meet Young Corbett in an overweight bout next week.

Giants Release two 1929 Coaches

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, began work on his 1930 team by announcing the release of Ray (Cracker) Schalk and Bert Nichoff, his 1929 coaches.

The announcement created quite a stir along the paths in West 42nd street, for Nichoff, the first base watcher, and Schalk, who usually flagged the runners at third, had seemed to the Polo grounds crowds to have put in a good year's work.

Schalk has acted as McGraw's assistant more or less during the season, taking charge of the team on several occasions when McGraw went on scouting trips through the minor leagues and in the colleges.

Nichoff probably will return to the Southern League, in which he was the successful manager of the Atlanta club before coming to the Giants. It is said that he may get another team to lead down there.

1904 WILSON'S BACHELOR 1929 SILVER ANNIVERSARY

"a better Cigar? most Decidedly!"

SMOKERS are enthusiastically in favour of the foil wrapped Bachelor Cigar.

They say the foil wrapper DOES preserve the freshness... that there seems to be a more intriguing aroma, a more delicate flavour to the whole cigar.

And, of course, the sealed foil wrapper protects the cigar against cracked and broken wrapper and frayed ends, which so often spoil a cigar when carried unprotected in the pocket.

"Yes, sir!" says the smoker, "the Bachelor IS a better cigar because of its foil wrapper."

100% Havana filler, and unusual mildness.
