LAST Friday evening while driving on the Lot 40 road near Alexandria, Mrs. Henry Jones and Miss Susan Jones, Hazebrook, were run into by a drunken man driving an express wagon. They were both thrown from their carriage and severely bruised and shaken up. The wagon was also badly smashed and the reckless and incompetent driver of the other team was left sitting in his express while the horse with the front shafts went on his way. The injured ladies are recovering although still confined to their beds.

FOR some time past the people to the southern side of the Hillsboro who cross by the ferry service have been complaining of the bad state of Alyward's Hill at the head of the Southport Wharf. Much work has been put on the hill at different times but it was not sufficient to place it in the best condition. Recently however Commissioner of Public Works Comynsky has had a great improvement made. The steepest part has been cut down, and macadam has been placed for a foundation and then covered with ashes. It now has the grade considerably lessened and is in the easiest possible shape for hauling and for general travelling.

Some Dealers Think They Have a Monopoly of Buying Furniture

Let them think so, it does nobody any harm, and it pleases them. But for fear the public might be led away by their extravagant utterances, we humbly rise to remark, that we have been and are still buying from almost every manufacturer in this broad Dominion—and further we are content to sell at a much smaller profit than most people ask. We would like the opportunity of showing you our furniture, and would like you to compare, and we think we can convince you that what we say is true.
