Cantankerous, Obstinate Watches

If you are the owner of a cantankerous, obstinate watch, that refuses to behave itself decently and tell time correctly, why not bring it to the E. W. Taylor Store and let our expert repairers diagnose its case? An erratic, unreliable watch is little better than no watch at all. The longer you allow it to misbehave, the more difficult the repairer's task will be in the end and the greater the cost of repair. Putting off the fixing of a watch or clock that has gotten out of order is a losing and shortsighted policy. Has this any home application to any of your timepieces? If so, our Repair Department is ready and waiting.
