All readers, when writing to advertisers in this or any other issue of this paper, are requested to mention The Guardian.

The Arena Rink was opened for the 1909-10 season on Christmas night. The few days frost previous to the 25th had enabled the proprietors to lay on a firm sheet of good ice. The playing of the Citizen's band was most enjoyable and their work was fully up to the expectation of the managers. There was a large crowd present.

At the annual meeting of the Marshfield Farmers Institute the members took that opportunity to present their Sec-Treas, L. H. D. Foster, with a sum of money as an expression of their appreciation of the faithful services he has rendered the Institute during the past year. Mr. Foster felt deeply the honor conferred on him and in a few words thanked one and all for their kindness.

Miss McKinnon of Prince Street School has received from J. S. Fry & Sons, Ltd, Bristol, Eng., a box containing a full demonstration of the manufacture of Fry's chocolate and Cocoa from the bean to a box of delicious assorted chocolates and cans of cocoa. The box was specially prepared for school and should prove a most interesting and instructive study.

Persons unable to get No 133, The Guardian news department, by phone at any hour are asked to ring 124 as it is useless to call up any other number. In the interim, between the hour of closing Saturday night and that of opening in the early morning of Monday, communications and news can be dropped in the letter box of The Guardian main entrance, and further inquiries can be made by phoning above.

An event of unusual interest was awaiting the manager of New Wonderland on Friday evening, when she arrived before the evening show commenced. An atmosphere of mystery prevailed about the theatre in the afternoon, which was of course accounted for by the season—but when going into her office in the evening a voice was heard reading some well chosen words of affection and respect for herself individually, she listened in wonderment—and the wonder increased, when the words were supplemented by the gift of a beautiful desk chair on the part of all the staff. The address was read by Charles Mitchell, the member of the staff who had been longest in the employ of the manager, and the presentation made by Mrs. J. F. Trainor—who comes next in that respect. Surprise was mingled with more than ordinary pleasure as Mrs. Hogg, failing to find words to suitably express her appreciation and gratitude, said so in a manner which none the less showed both the mutual pleasure on behalf of both the recipient and those who gave the gift was so genuine, that it spread a glow of Christmas good will and happiness about the theatre which will long cause New Wonderland to be remembered on the Christmas Eve of '09 as one of the brightest Eves of the happiest season of any year. The address was written and composed by Charles J. Mitchell, and the names of each member of the staff appended to it, making it a worthy souvenir of itself, and the chair is a most beautiful one of rosewood and satin.

The ice at the Arena tonight will be as perfect as a sheet of glass.

The mail train arrived in this city Saturday night at eleven twenty-five.

The plan of seats for "Christopher Jr." will be open this morning at nine o'clock.

G. S. Inman, Montague, came to the city Saturday night on the mail train.

J. E. Thomson, Edmonton, was among the passengers to the city Saturday night on the express. He registered at the Victoria.

Tom Davies, who has been with a survey party at Edmonton, arrived home last week to spend Christmas with his people, Sir Louis and Lady Davies, Ottawa.

The congregation of the White Sands Methodist Church have added a new Page wire fence around their church grounds adding greatly to the appearance.

The coldest temperature recorded Saturday was fifteen degrees above zero and the highest was twenty-six above at 11:30 p. m. The coldest recorded the previous night was twenty above.

The many customers of A. R. McKay were greeted Saturday morning with a "Happy Christmas to all" charmingly printed in black in the centre of a red Maple Leaf on the stopper of each milk bottle. His thoughtfulness was much appreciated.

Those who attended the Bijou theatre, Saturday, were treated to an excellent show. The program was a special one for Christmas and included good clear films and appreciative music and song. The house was crowded by audiences to witness the program and everybody thoroughly enjoyed it.

Rev. S. J. Woodroffe, formerly of St. Paul's Church, in this city, has just concluded a series of lectures before the Church of England Institute in Halifax. The subject of the series of four was entitled "The Four Gospels." They proved to be of more than ordinary interest and drew large audiences in each instance.

The death of William Young occurred at his home at Wood Islands on Friday, Dec 17th, the deceased was 68 years of age and leaves a widow to mourn her loss. The respect in which the deceased was held was evidenced by the large concourse of people who accompanied the remains to their last resting place in Wood Island Cemetery.

An interesting service in connection with the White Sands Sunday School was held last Sunday. Several of the boys and girls received prizes for learning scripture and other verses. Five of these bright young people committed to memory the sermon on the Mount. One of the number, who is very ill, on his sick bed completed learning the chapters. They were awarded the S.S. medals.

All persons interested in the missionary operations of the Church Universal must rejoice in the news which come from China, Japan, Korea, India, Africa and the Islands of the Sea, the fields indeed already ripe for harvest and crying out for the reapers. The Methodist Church especially must rejoice in the substantial increase in the missionary givings of their people, their being an increase of fifty thousand dollars in the general missionary fund and over twenty four thousand in the Woman's Society. It is to be hoped that this year will show still greater advances. In this increased giving, Vernon River and Cherry Valley have done their share to the extent of giving over seventy dollars, twenty of which was from one house. The collectors this year are, for Vernon River Mrs. James McEachern (formerly Miss Edna Lea), Miss Bessie McDonald, for Cherry Valley, Miss Annie Tweedy. It is to be hoped that they will be greatly encouraged. In addition to the regular subscribers there are double the number of young people who could give all the way from a dime to a dollar without hurt to themselves and to the great benefit and blessing of all concerned.

New Wonderland tonight "Tone-The White Squaw." A grand Indian picture.

The City of Naples (a journey of interest.) The Hypnotic Wife. (A comedy in earnest.) Her Generous Way. The first "Imp" film ever run here. Its a comedy of comedies. Illustrated song and specialty.
