Gay Law Is Winner Of Junior Free-For-All

Captures Last Two Heats After Rhea Mae Wins First

Taking the same pattern as on opening day favorites continued to take a licking yesterday afternoon in the second day of the Old Home Week racing program with Janette Dale, Willard Kelly's fast stepping pacer the only betting favorite to come through winning the 2:28 pace in straight heats while Purple Valley was providing the first upset of the day by trotting off with the 2:24 Trot and Gay Law made it number two for the underdogs by pacing away with the junior free-for-all, feature event on the card.

Gay Law had to do it the hard way to achieve his victory. As the big crowd rose hysterically to their feet Joe O'Brien took Rhea Mae home in front in the first mile; in the second trip Gay Law, with a blazing burst of speed came on in the stretch to whip Kavola who had raced into the lead at the three quarters, and the Allen-driven horse completed his victory by outfooting the field to the wire from the three-quarters pole in the final.

The big holiday crowd that jammed the stands and the bleachers and overflowed onto the centre field again witnessed stirring battles of the turf. In most cases it was gruelling, wide-open stretch battles to the wire that decided matters while over the fast track one horse took a new win race record, Janette Dale stepping the first two miles of the 2:28 pace in 2:13 3-5.

And when drama of the racing trip was not being unfolded before them the racing fans witnessed vaudeville acts on a par with the fine performances given in past years. Starter Dr. F. C. Dougan together with all the officials connected with the meeting again came through with fine performances and as a result the entire program was completed shortly before six o'clock.

Today the feature event of the four-day racing meet will be held when seven free-for-allers come to the wire in a battle for a thousand dollar purse and this together with three other classes should give the fans an outstanding day of harness racing.

2:24 Trot

First Heat: Purple Valley repeating a startling upset that occurred a year ago, gave a repeat performance as he came through in the stretch to win the heat from Kelly's Nightmare and Mac Fingo in a three-horse, blanket finish that took a photo finish picture to decide, with Mac Fingo just a step behind and Kelly's Nightmare who had led most of the mile. After Marion L., the favorite and Nell Kalmuck had jumped it off after the word, Mac Fingo moved up to second followed by Purple Valley on the outside. Around the three-quarters and into the stretch the leaders maintained their places but it was Purple Valley on the outside who got the nod, Mac Fingo second, the Nightmare third and the others strung out several lengths back.

Second Heat: Purple Valley, trotting steadily all the way, made every post a winning one in the second heat. Marion L., Kelly's Nightmare and Nell Kalmuck all tried to head him at different stages out the Andrew-driven horse had too much trot. Marion L. moved up to second in the stretch, Nell Kalmuck was third a head in front of Kelly's Nightmare with Geo. Mac, Peerless Hanover, and Mac Fingo, the latter off to a bad start seventh.

Third Heat: Stretch battles were coming in every heat and in the final mile of the class the crowd were again brought to their feet as Nell Kalmuck, driven by Willard Kelly came through in the stretch to nip Marion L. after the latter had led from the word. Mac Fingo, making a bid for the lead had raced on the outside of Marion L. right to the three-quarters until a break ruined his chances. Marion L. was still in front 50 yards from the wire but in the last few yards Nell Kalmuck got her head in front to take the heat. Geo Mac, going a great mile, was third. Kelly's Nightmare was again fourth and the remainder strung out.

2:28 Pace

First Heat: Janette Dale, the favourite, brought the packed stands to their feet as she paced from far back in the field to win the stretch battle by two lengths as C. Albert Budlong's closing rush placed him second. Off on the third score Billy Conn was on the rail only to lose it to Nellie Worthy. With positions changing rapidly Billy Conn and Nellie Worthy were like a team coming by the stands; halfway up the backstretch Janette Dale made her move followed by C. Albert Budlong. At the top of the stretch Janette was on even terms with the leaders and outpaced them to the wire; C. Albert was second, Nellie Worthy third, Billie Conn fourth, Mickey Budlong fifth, and Try On, who was drawn for the second heat, finishing sixth.

Second Heat: There was no catching Janette Dale. She took the field away on the second score and was never headed. Coming by the half it was Janette, C. Albert Budlong, Billy Conn, Mickey Budlong and Nellie Worthy and they finished in the same order. C. Albert and Billy Conn both tried the leaders in the stretch but were still a length and a half back at the wire.

Third Heat: Coming on with terrific speed from the seven-eighths pole Janette Dale made it a straight heat victory by catching Nellie Worthy just at the wire. C. Albert Budlong, Mickey Budlong and Billy Conn were bunched at the half but breaks by C. Albert and Mickey put them out of the running. Nellie Worthy paced into the picture at the three-quarters, showing ahead of Billy. Nellie looked to have the heat won ten yards from the wire but Janette made the grade in the last few strides to win by a nose.

Junior Free-For-All

First Heat: The mile produced another upset as driver Joe O'Brien took Rhea Mae out at the half to head Gay Law to the wire in another great stretch battle. The Walnut Abbe had the rail going away and led her field around by the half. At the turn O'Brien took the winner out in front to make every post a winning one. But the horses all bunched at the top of the stretch made a pretty sight as they came pounding down the stretch in chase of Rhea Mae, but there was no catching her. Gay Law moving up to second a half length back of the leader, with Royal At Law third, Doctor B. Grattan fourth and the other four just a couple of lengths back.

Second Heat: It was another blazing finish with Gay Law showing terrific speed in the stretch beating Kavola out by half a length. Rhea Mae led the field around by the stands and up the backstretch but lost the lead when Kavola, showing sensational speed paced by four horses to lead at the three quarters but she yielded to Gay Law's closing spurt. Jean Henley was third a length back, Royal At Law fourth, Rhea Mae fifth, with Doctor B. Grattan, Alcyone and The Walnut Abbe in that order.

Third Heat: It was Gay Law who paced off with the heat, coming from the three quarters to open up a big gap and win handily. Strung out at the first half, it was Royal At Law followed by Rhea Mae and Gay Law. On the back side the second time Kavola opened out first but Gay Law, also pulling out, paced to the front to stay there. Kavola and Royal At Law had a neck and neck duel for second with the latter winning. Rhea Mae was fourth, Doctor B. Grattan fifth, and Jean Henley, Walnut Abbe and Alcyone in that order.

Bunny "Ace" McCloskey, Maritime middleweight boxing champion last night had to be content with a draw decision at the end of a gruelling, hard-hitting ten-round non-title match at the Forum with Roger Whynott, Dominion middleweight champion. McCloskey came in at 161 pounds to Whynott's 152½.

But in the minds of the majority of the fans who saw the scrap McCloskey was the winner and the fans gave vent to their feelings in no uncertain manner when the decision was announced. One judge gave McCloskey a one-point margin at the end with the other favoring Whynott by the same margin. Referee "Kid" O'Neill's verdict was final, the Halifax arbiter calling it a draw.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

In this writer's opinion Bunny never won a fight if he didn't have the edge in last night's scrap. Throughout the entire fight he did the forcing, and judged by rounds this writer's score card showed McCloskey with seven, Whynott two and one even.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

It was a heartbreaking decision for the local youngster to have to take but he took it in full stride like the sportsman he is and all he wants now is a return crack at the champion, the next time with the title at stake.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

Lest the above let one think McCloskey had his own way, such was not the case. Whynott was proved to be a tough, capable scrapper and very smart. On two or three occasions he staggered McCloskey with smashing right hands and was dangerous right to the final second, but last night he was faced by a better man, a man who now has forced a title match by the power contained in his two fists.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

The event the fans have been waiting for will be held this afternoon at the Exhibition race track when seven free for allers, all with a chance of coming through, come to the wire for the $1000 event. And before the race is decided the rabid race fans who are crowding the City these days should witness stirring battles as the cream of Maritime horseflesh tangle in their looked-for duels of speed.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

While the remainder of the Old Home Week program always provides thrills and excitement, some way or other the free for aliers usually draw the spotlight. It is the same way this year. For the past two days now the fans, worked to a high pitch of excitement, have been eagerly awaiting today's free for all and according to the talk among keen horse followers the same fans will witness today one of the most thrilling battles in recent years.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

The heavyweights will have their innings at the Forum tomorrow night in a boxing show that should attract a lot of attention and fans. Promoters Archer and McLellan have matched hard-hitting Wallace McLeod, Maritime heavy champion, against R. Brisson of Lewiston, Maine and feel confident that they have hit another sensational show in the matching of the above pair.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

McLeod, winner over Billy Shaw of Montreal in a recent performance here, gained a lot of followers by his undoubted punching ability and gameness at that time and it is a safe bet that they will be back in even larger numbers tomorrow night to watch him pit his skill against the challenge of Brisson.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

It will be Brisson's first performance here and advance notices have him as a tough, rugged, willing type of fighter. He is said to carry plenty of T.N.T. in both hands and should furnish a rather stiff challenge for the present reigning Maritime heavy titleholder.

Taking a breather during the Old Home Week program, members of the Brighton Horseshoe Club will get back into harness next week in earnest and uppermost in their minds is the holding of the Island Open tournament starting next Monday night.

Ralph Harley of Moncton won his morning round 3 and 2 over Gaston Amyot of the host club, Royal Quebec, but lost in afternoon play to Phil Farley, five times Ontario amateur champion, 6 and 4. Harley was last year's two-province champion of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island.

Former Mountie Wins Tough Match At D.C.R.A. Shoot

CONNAUGHT RIFLE RANGE, South March, Ont., Aug. 13 —(CP)—A big burly former mountie who became chief of police of Fredericton, N.B.—Jack O'Connell—put his home town on the map today by winning the rich and tough Macdonald Match at the annual meeting of the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association.

Wearing his old R.C.M.P. uniform, stripped of its staff-sergeant stripes, the Fredericton chief sweated out two shoots over 300 and 600 yards to post a remarkable score of 120, five short of possible, and capture first prize money of $100 and a silver medal.

While the majority of the 400 marksmen in the match were affected by the heat—approximately 100 in the shade—"old Jack" shot consistently and accurately. He plunked 10 shots into the target at 300 yards for 48 of a possible 50 and then moved back to 600 yards where only three of 15 bullets missed the bull's-eye.

Behind him came five snipers with 119, one a team mate, two from the west and two from Ontario. They were Sgt. J.L. Ward of Sunny Brae, N.B., Sgt. W. E. Gore of Winnipeg, Maj. L.C. Willoughby of Vancouver, Flt.-Lt. D. Reynolds of Ottawa and Capt. S.W. Graham of Toronto. Seven posted 118 and 14 finished with 117.

Whynott Given Draw In Rugged Battle With McCloskey

Bunny "Ace" McCloskey, Maritime middleweight champion, and Roger Whynott, Dominion middleweight boxing champion fought to a savage ten-round draw in the main event of the boxing card staged at the Forum last night. Whynott's title was not at stake, McCloskey coming in at 161 lbs. with the champion weighing 152 1-2.

The decision was not a popular one with the crowd as one judge voted for McCloskey, one called it even and referee Kid O'Neill named it a draw.

The biggest crowd to attend a boxing show here in years saw the two smart ringmen hit each other hard and often in the ten heats with neither going down. At the end Whynott had a badly gashed lip and McCloskey's right eye was puffed badly.

But it was a rugged fight all the way through. In the opening round, content to feel each other out, action speeded up towards the end as McCloskey came through with a couple of smashing lefts and Whynott a right to the jaw that shook each other up, but at the end Whynott was wild with several hard right hands.

Continually forcing the pace McCloskey, after landing a couple of light lefts ran into trouble when Whynott tagged him on the chest with a hard right that nearly sent him to the canvas, but at the end McCloskey was throwing lefts and rights at his fast moving target.

Throughout the next five sessions McCloskey kept stalking his opponent looking for an opening but it failed to materialize. Several times he shook Whynott up with smashing left hand wallops to the mid-section and chin, with Whynott retaliating with whistling right hand shots of his own, but neither battler would go down as Whynott called upon his inhalator between rounds from the third on.

In the eighth, McCloskey again had a decided edge as his left hand found the range and he was keeping Whynott off with a flicking right but in the ninth Whynott, showing to his best advantage, definitely took the play away from his opponent and set the stage for the pair to open out wide in the tenth and final heat that appeared to be fought on very even terms.

Peterson Wins In Fourth

"Big Boy" Peterson flung back another challenge for his Island heavyweight championship when he won on a technical knockout from Doug Nicholson in the fourth round of a scheduled six-rounder.

Trailing slightly on points in the first two heats Peterson opened up in the third as he started to find the range and a right uppercut sent Nicholson down for a nine count but he came back up to wade in again.

The end was in sight as the fourth opened. Nicholson, obviously tired, was down for a one-count in the opening seconds and Referee Danny McCormack stopped the fight at 1:33 of the round with Nicholson groggy and practically out on his feet.

Young Bud Lund scored his second straight win in a local ring when he came through with a technical two-round knockout over Hughey Doyle. Lund, master of Doyle at boxing had Doyle down for a nine count early in the second heat before the referee stepped in to save Doyle from further punishment.

Bennie Mathieson and Harry Poulton staged a real slugfest in the less than four rounds the fight lasted with Poulton winning by a technical knockout in the fourth after the game Matheson had been on the floor four times only to come back up and pile into his opponent with rights and lefts. But when the end came Matheson was in no condition to continue after Poulton had opened up a long cut over his left eye.

In the curtain raiser Keith McKinnon and Young Bowley went three rounds to a draw, the two youngsters giving a good exhibition in each and every heat.
