Barbara, Joel Co-Star Again In New Film

Romantic drama played against the vast sweep of our own vast country with the thrills and power that went into its development is headed this way in Paramount's triple-starring film, "The Great Man's Lady," with Barbara Stanwyck, Joel McCrea and Brian Donlevy.

Due to arrive today at the Prince Edward Theatre, "The Great Man's Lady" is said to combine the excitement of the highly successful "Union Pacific," in which the three stars appeared together for the first time, and the romantic fireworks of "Ball of Fire". The story covers a span of many years, showing Miss Stanwyck first as a girl of sixteen when she elopes from her staid Philadelphia home with McCrea, a Lochinvar in buckskins, and carrying her through a whirlwind life to the point where the world waits on her doorstep to learn the secret behind "The Great Man's Lady."

Advance reports have it that the picture has more than its share of thrilling moments, and that the three stars top everything they have ever done before—individually and collectively. That ought to make "The Great Man's Lady" one of the outstanding films of the year.

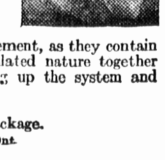
"The Maltese Falcon" To Show At Capitol Starting To-day

The Capitol Theatre's new feature attraction, starting to-day will be "The Maltese Falcon," starring Humphrey Bogart. Adapted for the screen from the Dashiell Hammet novel, the film is a well-conceived mystery drama with a liberal dash of comedy and romance.

For "The Maltese Falcon," Warner Bros. have assembled a fine cast of seasoned performers. Besides Bogart, there is charming Mary Astor in the romantic lead, Gladys George and Lee Patrick to give her some competition with the hero, Peter Lorre, in one of his most sinister roles, Sydney Greenstreet, well-known stage actor, from the cast of the Lunt-Fontaine play, "There Shall Be No Night," Elisha Cook, Jr., Jerome Cowan, Barton MacLane and others.

Centering around the search for a porcelain statuette of fabulous worth, the story of "The Maltese Falcon" is one of the most intriguinv mystery stories ever written. Hammett's witty way with mysteries is well-known to film-foers from their acquaintance with his "Thin Man" series, and John Huston, who wrote and directed the screen play has used his material well, keeping the story going at a fast clip, and sustaining the suspense perfectly. Bogart's performance as the debonair—but tough—private detective whoeventually solves the mystery is said to be one of his best, and Miss Astor is said to do an unusually fine job in the other starring role.

Help the Young People To Health - Happiness



What a common sight to see a young person whose bloodless face and feeble frame are evidences of poor circulation and weakness where bounding health and rosy cheeks should reign.

Young people in such a condition are generally of an anæmic nature and require a preparation containing iron to improve the blood content.

Milburn's Health and Nerve Pills meet this requirement, as they contain three concentrated forms of iron of an easily assimilated nature together with other valuable ingredients indicated for building up the system and helping to improve the blood content.

Price 50c a box, 65 pills, at all drug counters.

Look for our trade mark a "Red Heart" on the package.

POLICE COURT—In the Police Court Saturday morning a drunk was given a twenty days suspended sentence.

IT'S A BEAUTY—Mrs. Malcolm McSwain, Kingston, showed the Guardian on Saturday an Alexandra apple picked in her orchard which tipped the scales at one pound 5 ounces.

FUNERAL TODAY —The funeral of George Chilton will be held this afternoon from the Cutcliffe Funeral Home, service starting at 3.30 p.m. Interment St. Peter's Cemetery.

PROMINENT ODD FELLOW DIES— Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of this Province will regret to hear of the death at St. Stephen, N.B., of past grand master L.M. Robinson. He had visited this Island on many occasions in the interest of the Order and on pleasure and not only was he a hard worker in the interest of Oddfellowship but a great admirer and booster of this Province.

FUNERAL SUNDAY — The funeral of the late Mary Frances Taylor was held on Sunday, Oct. 25th, 1942, from the MacLean Funeral Home. The service at the Home was conducted by Rev. SKUNKS INVADE CITY — The skunks have invaded Charlottetown according to reports emanating from City Police Headquarters. Police say that they received many calls from citizens during the week-end complaining about the skunk nuisance. Apparently the unpopular animal has by-passed the outskirts of the city and is now entrenched in the central section. Some of the calls received were within a couple of blocks of the Police Station. One "kitty" crawled into a cellar when chased by a policeman. Apparently the officer thought in this case "discretion was the better part of valor" and refrained from following his prey to the confines of the basement. Only recently the Provincial Government doubled the bounty on skunks in an endeavor to rid the province of this menace which has shown an alarming increase in the past few years.

ST. JAMES CHURCH

The Sacrament of The Lord's Supper was celebrated by a large and devout congregation in The Kirk yesterday morning when the beautiful Communion Service of The Scottish Church was conducted by the Minister, the Rev. T.H. Bussell Somers, M.A., B.D., assisted chorally by the choir under the direction of Miss E. Lilian McKenzie, Mus. Bac.

In the evening the Minister preached on the text, "I sleep, but my heart waketh" (Song of Solomon 5:2) and concluded as follows: "It is no mere fancy that in every age God has been thought to speak to man in slumber. It is the infinite mystery of heaven in touch with the infinite mystery of earth. It is God approaching in these very hours when time and space have vanished from the soul, in the enlargement and liberty of sleep. In every one of us there is a haunting sense that we are spiritually greater than we know, a sense of distance and infinity, far beyond our toiling and our tears. And how that sense is kept alive by sleep, by the simple common fact of nightly sleep, we shall never fully know till we waken in the morning when sleep shall be no more."

FALSE ALARM — Almost a year from the date of the disastrous fire which destroyed the Agricultural Hall on Fitzroy Street, firemen were again called to the scene yesterday afternoon for what was feared to be a blaze in the only portion of the building left standing. This was a rear annex which was saved when the large Agricultural Hall burned. However, when City Firemen arrived on the spot about 4:30 yesterday they discovered that the cause of the alarm was nothing more than an old car smoking in the building. The owner was experiencing difficulty in getting the car started and it was sending forth bellows of smoke. When this began seeping out of the building and rising skyward a lady living nearby thought the building was on fire and immediately turned in the alarm. The real cause of the trouble, however, was soon traced when firemen arrived on the scene.

ST. DUNSTAN'S BASILICA

The annual Feast of Christ the King was fittingly observed in St. Dunstan's Basilica last evening when several hundred school children took part in the procession around the church. The event is of a missionary character and is held each year when a special collection is taken for the advancement of the work of the Missions.

The children were wearing colorful costumes depicting the various religious orders, crusaders, and the native apparel of numerous foreign countries. As they proceeded around the church they sang appropriate hymns. A large congregation was present to witness the impressive ceremony which was in charge of Rev. Louis A. Dougan.

Rev. Desmond Stringer, Ottawa, who returned from the mission fields of China about a year ago, was present and preached a stirring sermon. He told of his many and varied experiences while a missionary in China and painted a vivid picture of conditions as they existed in that country before his return to Canada.

The observance was brought to a close with Solemn Benediction. The celebrant was Father Stringer assisted by Rev. J.A. Sullivan as deacon and Rev. L.J. Ayers as sub-deacon. His Excellency, Most Rev. J.A. O'Sullivan was present in the sanctuary and he was assisted by Rev. R.V. MacKenzie and Rev. Richard Ellsworth, D.D.

The girl's choir of Notre Dame assisted with the music and there were also three violinists present. Mrs. Joseph Dougan was organist.
