FLYING BOAT AT WHARF— A big yellow amphibian which circled Charlottetown Harbour and then landed in the water close to the Marine Wharf caused a great deal of curiosity yesterday afternoon. After landing, about 4 p. m., it taxied in to the wharf near the Yachting Club and was moored there. The smartly uniformed air force crew climbed out of the machine and stretched their legs a bit as several citizens gathered around to get a close up view of the sea plane. Inquiries revealed that the craft was carrying the baggage of H.R.H. the Duke of Kent, younger brother of His Majesty King George VI, who arrived in the province, landing at Summerside Airport, at approximately the same time. The number registering yesterday was divided as follows: Second year, 220; third year, 58 and fourth year, 17. This was an increase over last year's registration in these classes but the exact figures could not be obtained last night. The reason for this jump is partly caused by the fact that students entering college for the first time last term were required to attend again this year before being granted a teacher's license. Previously a student was allowed to teach after one term at the institution. Another reason advanced for the increase was that a number of students who completed grade eleven in Summerside and Montague schools have registered also. They will commence classes tomorrow. Vice Principal, Prof. J. H. Blanchard is in charge.

He is to be replaced here by Capt. W. Mercer of the Simonds Street Corps, St. John, N. B., who will arrive in Charlottetown Sept. 11 with Mrs. Mercer to take over his new duties. Adjutant and Mrs. Hawkes came to this city 14 months ago and assumed charge here. Since that time they have won a host of friends in Charlottetown and other parts of the province and it is with genuine regret that citizens learn of their transfer. They will leave here next Tuesday and will hold their farewell service on Sunday. Adj. Hawkes was stationed in St. John before coming here.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER. — On Monday evening, August 25th, upwards of two hundred friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mrs. Harry Webster, Augustine Cove, to tender a miscellaneous shower to her daughter, Doris, who is to be one of the season's brides. The house was tastefully decorated by girl friends of the bride. The evening was pleasantly spent by games and social intercourse. Later in the evening the bride-to-be was led by Miss Kathleen MacFarlane to her seat under a beautifully decorated arch. The many and beautiful gifts which included silver, china, linen, etc., were opened by Miss Margaret MacFarlane and Mrs. Earl Dodge while Mrs. Sheldon Dixon read the accompanying humorous verses. Miss Ferne Bell tastefully arranged the gifts on the table. The bride-to-be then, in her pleasing manner, thanked all present for their lovely gifts after which a hearty "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow" was sung. Dainty refreshments were then served by the ladies.

H. the Duke of Kent at the Charlottetown Hotel Tuesday evening and again at the breakfast at Government House the following morning. When the call went out for the trout prior to the banquet it was met with a ready response from two well-known sportsmen—one at each end of the Province. Several beauties were soon sent in by Mr. Cecil Dennis of O'Leary and a number of other fine specimens were shortly forthcoming from Mr. Neil S. MacPhee of Elmira both "with regards."
