The latest news, first of all.

The mail train arrived shortly after noon yesterday.

Fred Dillon, has arrived home from Boston to visit his parents William and Mrs. Dillon, Grafton Street.

Prof. W. A. Hawley, City, is making good use of his bicycle, now that the streets are clear of snow.

The many friends of Mrs. John Murphy, New Glasgow and formerly of Stanley will be pleased to learn that she is doing nicely after her recent operation at the P. E. I. Hospital.

The Unique was crowded to the doors last evening and many had to wait for admittance. The pictures and vaudeville were amusing while the new singer was an immense success.

The Victoria Hockey club of this City has received a telegram from Moncton asking for a game to be played in Moncton, before January 20th for the Starr trophy. The club have not yet decided.

The illustrated lecture in New Waverland last night was well attended and the pictures much enjoyed. The program for this week will include an amateur dancing contest on Thursday the entries for which can be made at any time.

Arthur Vimicombe, City for a number of years with A. Home & Co. has accepted a position with the International Harvester Co., Ottawa. His many friends while regretting his departure will be pleased to learn of his success in securing such a good position. Mr. Vimicombe left last night.

The cold weather makes the demand good for smelts and eels on the American market and to supply the demand Healey & Lyons, commission fish merchants, 184 Atlantic Avenue, Boston. They will make satisfactory daily returns at highest market prices and send stencils upon application.

As a tribute of respect to the memory of their late Brother, David Small, a Memorial Service will be held under the Auspices of Prince Edward Division, No. 1 S. O. T. in Wright's Hall, Thursday evening next, at 8 o'clock. The speakers will be Revs. G. E. Ross, H. E. Thomas and G. R. White. All members and friends of the late brother are cordially invited.

A correspondent from Nine Mile Creek says D. D. McNeill has recovered from his accident. Neil McNeill, Cornwall, has returned from a visit to this place. A new horse shed has been completed for the Church. Allan McDougall's little son is recovering from his recent accident. John McDougall has been visiting in Morell and A. A. McNeill in Alberton.

J. D. Jenkins & Co., who are paying the highest prices for furs state that nearly every day they receive muskrat skins that have been killed in cellars and root houses. The cause seems to be the dry condition of the swamps the water lowering below the level of their burrows, becomes frozen, and forces them to seek for food and shelter in barns and outbuildings. One man in Fort Augustus killed seven trying to burrow into his root house.

The teachers and scholars of the Bell River Sabbath School, on New Year night met at the home of their superintendent, B. McLaren and presented him with an address accompanied with a gold watch chain and a walking cane, with his initials engraved thereon. He was greatly taken by surprise and feelingly replied, thanking them for the expressions of good will contained in the address and the valuable tokens of appreciation and esteem conveyed by these gifts.

A meeting of the Hillsboro Hose Company was held in their room last night. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. Everything showed the company to be in a flourishing condition. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—Captain, George L. Gouldin, re-elected; Lieutenant, Francis Hennessey; Sec'y, Andrew A. Hennessey. The Lieutenant made a suitable speech for the occasion thanking the members for their courtesy and the retiring Secretary also spoke in glowing terms of the company and thanked them for their past favors. At the close of the meeting a smoker was held to which members of the different companies were invited and everything proved favorable for the year 1909.

The fortnightly dance of the Thursday evening assembly, will be held this (Tuesday) evening in Smallwood's Hall. 1-12d11pd.

Miss R. McLean of Lyndale and Miss Florence McLeod, Orwell are visiting in the City.

The last issue of The Wesleyan contains a cut of the late David Rogers of FreeTown and an extended account of his life.

Stanley Opie, son of Rev. R. Opie formerly of Pownal has been transferred from the Bank of Montreal at Bathurst to Glace Bay.

The chaperons for the dance in Smallwood's Hall on Friday evening, will be Mrs. F. I. Hazard, Mrs. Percy Pope and Mrs. A. A. Bartlett.

At the recent closing of Hampton School the children after an enjoyable Christmas tree and program presented their teacher Miss Florence Davidson with a nice dressing case and address.

The Presbytery of P. E. Island is now 88 years of age. Its first moderator was Rev. John Keir, D. D. Five of the congregations now in the Presbytery formed the original wide field cultivated at first by Dr. Keir.

Consul Hale of this City left last night for Georgetown en route to Halifax to attend a meeting of the Council of Conference and will return the latter part of the week. Mr. Hale was accompanied by his daughter Miss Susan who is to visit friends in her old Vermont home.

True success and how obtained, was the subject of the lecture at the meeting of the B. Y. P. A. in the Baptist Schoolroom last evening. E. Parkman gave an interesting and helpful address and several other speakers added to the interest of the meeting.

Barclay, Clements Co. 136 Atlantic Avenue, Boston, pay special attention to consignments of smelts and eels from this Province. With their long experience they are familiar with the wants of their customers and always display their goods to the best possible advantage and make a strenuous effort to secure the highest market prices at all times for their customers.

There are three classes of people who find lost articles, those who want return them to the owner, those who will return them if they see them advertised, and those who will advertise that they have found them. As there are few of the first class in this City or Province, the loser is likely to get the article he loses if he advertises it in The Guardian as everybody reads the classified ads.

Last week, Rev. Dr. Huestis received the sad news that death had entered the parsonage at Chatham, and that little Jack, aged five and a half years had been called away. Several members of the family have been sick with scarlet fever. Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Dawson and family will have the sympathy of many. Wesleyan. Mr. and Mrs. Dawson will have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in this Province.

Among the outward passengers from this City last evening were J. E. Wyatt accompanied by his two daughters to attend College in Halifax, Hon. S. E. Reid and J. B. Matthews to Georgetown, Mr. McIntyre returning to Toronto, after attending the funeral of his mother, A. E. Ings and Miss Ings who is to attend Edgemoor College, Windsor, N. S., Mrs. P. P. Archibald, City to Boston.

The marriage of John E. Monaghan, Hillsboro, Lot 48 to Miss Annie Gellan, proprietress of the Cavendish House, City, takes place this morning at St. Dunstan's Cathedral. The Father McLellan will officiate. The bride will be attended by Miss Nellie McKenna, while Frank Berrigan will support the groom. After a bountiful repast the happy couple will leave for the country. The many and valuable gifts received bear testimony of the esteem in which the bride and groom are held.

Standing room only was the sign hung out at the Unique Picture Palace last night at 8.30. Knight and Seaton created a grand impression being one of the most artistic, amusing and cleanest vaudeville teams now before the public. Percy Haywood, the new illustrated ballad singer, also went big. He possesses a voice of rare mellowness that is particularly adapted to illustrated ballads.

"Sons of England joint installation of officers of Lodges Eton and Prince Edward takes place tonight in the S. O. E. Hall at eight o'clock sharp. H. M. Chandler, District Deputy.
