A NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

Miss Kelly Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health.

Newark, N. J.—"For about three years I suffered from nervous breakdown and got so weak I could hardly stand, and had headaches every day. I tried everything I could think of and was under a physician's care for two years. A girl friend had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and she told me about it. From the first day I took it I began to feel better and now I am well and able to do most any kind of work. I have been recommending the Compound ever since and give you my permission to publish this letter."—Miss FLO KELLY, 476 So. 14th St., Newark, N. J.

The reason this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, was so successful in Miss Kelly's case was because it went to the root of her trouble, restored her to a normal healthy condition and as a result her nervousness disappeared.

HOCKEY

One of the most interesting games of the season was played in St. Peter's Bay Ring on Tuesday night Feb. 4th. when the "Dreadnaughts" of Morell went down to defeat before the St. Peter's "Pioneers". It was a fast game, mostly clean, although the ever-watchful eye of the referee, Mr. Ronnie McInnis, detected several incidences of "tripping" and the usual penalties were handed out. The game was played in the three serial style "Long-shot Rattary" true to his title netted some "beauties", ably backed up by Gillis the never-tiring Cover Point. Quigley as Point played a splendid game and although a light weight succeeded in carrying the puck the whole length of the ice several times regardless of his heavy-weight opponents. The Wings, Lewis and Anderson did some good combination work, this being Carl's first work on the senior team. Some excellent stops were made by the 16 year old goaler Roddie MacDonald. On the Morell side the whizzbang rushes of Murphy and McEwen resulted in some goals for the Dreadnaughts. The wings, Coffin and Anderson played good combination the latter being moved to point during the last period. Coffin in the net did some good stopping.

At the end of the game the score was 14-9 in favor of St. Peter's. The return match will be played in Morell rink Thursday night. The line up was as follows:—

- Pioneers: Goal L. Coffin, Point E. Anderson, Cover Point I. Murphy, Centre C. McEwen, Left Wing W. Coffin, Right Wing B. McEwen. Dreadnaughts: Goal L. Coffin, Point E. Anderson, Cover Point I. Murphy, Centre C. McEwen, Left Wing W. Coffin, Right Wing B. McEwen.

MERCHANTS DAY HORSE RACES

The Merchants days races on Wednesday and Thursday of this week are sure to be a success as all classes except the Free-For-All will fill easily. Notwithstanding liberal offers of expenses etc., it has not been possible to get the St. John and Nova Scotia Free-For-Allers here so the Driving Club have regrettably cancelled the class and have substituted a 230 pace. Summerside and the West will have three entries in it namely Merry Widow, Casey Cresceus and Minola. The following are among the probable starters in the various races. Wednesday Feb. 12. FREE-FOR-ALL TROT. The British Soldier 2:15 1/2 (W. S. McKie), Colorado L. 2:10 (H. Kelly), Brenton H. 2:16 1/2 (H. Hooper), Mac Cresceus ? (I. Carr) 2:19 PACE (ROGERS HARDWARE CO.
