Diamond Jubilee Celebration Has Caught On

The proposals made by the Orillia Diamond Jubilee Committee for an adequate celebration of the sixtieth anniversary of Confederation next year, have evoked a great deal of enthusiasm throughout the Dominion.

It will be recalled that the movement had its genesis in an address by Mr. C. H. Hale to the Orillia Kiwanis Club last July. His suggestion that advantage should be taken of the sixtieth anniversary of Confederation next year to stimulate the national spirit, and to impress upon the rising generation the significance of Dominion Day was well received...

1. A children's picnic in every community in the Dominion on July 1st.

2. Ten thousand beacon fires to be lit in every city, town and hamlet across Canada on the evening of Dominion Day.

3. A great national banquet at Ottawa, at which as many as possible of our leading public men should be gathered together.

4. Services of re-dedication and consecration on Sunday, July 3rd.

5. And, to cap all, and lend dignity and distinction to the celebration, that an invitation be sent to King George and Queen Mary to grace the occasion with their presence.

On making their proposals public, the committee found that other bodies had been moving in the matter, notably the Association of Canadian Clubs, and the Toronto Empire Club, both of whom had committees. At their annual meeting the Association of Canadian Clubs, acting on the request of the Orillia delegates, Mr. O. Garnet Smith, embodied all the proposals in the programme which it was arranged to lay before the Government, and ask them to take up. The Quebec and Ontario District Kiwanis convention also passed a resolution introduced by the Orillia Club, heartily commending the movements, and calling upon all Kiwanis Clubs to co-operate.

Public Men Approve Among the first to reply, for instance, was Sir Hugh John Macdonald, of Winnipeg, son of the old Canada under whom Confederation was carried out who says: "I think the three main features you have outlined are just what they should be."

The Hon. Frank R. Hertz, Governor of Prince Edward Island, writes at length, and enthusiastically, and finds the programme "exceedingly complete." He singles out the idea of inviting the King and Queen as "very ambitious, but I am sure it will commend itself to our people from coast to coast."

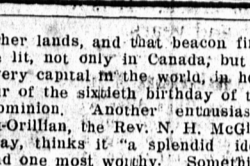

The Hon. W. H. Newlands, Lieutenant Governor of Saskatchewan, sends his approval of the suggestions. The Hon. M. Cumming, Secretary of Agriculture in Nova Scotia, says the movement may spread over all Canada.

The Hon. W. R. Cottingham, Legislative Counsel of Manitoba, expresses hearty approval of the suggested programme and urges that organization should be taken up at once. Sir Richard Turner, of Quebec, considers the proposition a big one, and says the spirit of understanding Canada must be developed.

From far off Yukon, Mr. Robert Lowe, member of the Territorial Council for Whitehorse, writes that he is "in hearty accord with each and every suggestion. I have also read your letter to many others, and all are heartily in accord with the idea. I am quite satisfied the citizens here will enter into the celebration wholeheartedly."

Councils and School Boards Will Help

Turning to municipal institutions which have endorsed the project, Mayor Foster, of Toronto, wrote very cordially, and also assisted by addressing the Prime Minister on the subject. The Toronto Board of Control referred the Committee's circular to a special committee for consideration and report. Letters were also received from the Mayors of Saskatoon and Alameda in Saskatchewan, of Edmonton and Camrose, Alberta, and of Gananoque and Chesley in Ontario.

A number of School Boards also have expressed their approval and willingness to co-operate in the celebration among those which passed resolutions to this effect, being the Boards at Cobalt, Carleton Place, Dundas, Sudbury, Elmira and Orillia in Ontario; Vancouver and Duncan in British Columbia, in Saskatchewan; Calgary and Lethbridge in Alberta.

Boards of Trade Endorse Movement

Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce also have been warm in their endorsement of the celebration. In the East, the President of Prince Edward Island Associated Boards of Trade, Mr. J. O. Hyndman, writes asking for a couple of dozen copies of the circular letter, in order that he may place them in the hands of the various Boards of Trade, Farmers' and Women's Institutes and other organizations on the island. The Summerside, P. E. I., Board of Trade also asks for a supply of any printed matter that may be issued.

The Hon. A. P. McLaughlin, Minister of Education for Saskatchewan, says: "To my mind this would seem a very fitting celebration, and could not help but inspire loyalty and a fine national spirit."

The Hon. J. D. McLean, Minister of Education for British Columbia, promises to do all he can to further the movement. The Hon. W. H. Newlands, Lieutenant Governor of Saskatchewan, sends his approval of the suggestions.

From far off Yukon, Mr. Robert Lowe, member of the Territorial Council for Whitehorse, writes that he is "in hearty accord with each and every suggestion. I have also read your letter to many others, and all are heartily in accord with the idea. I am quite satisfied the citizens here will enter into the celebration wholeheartedly."

Dominion are equally enthusiastic in their support. President Reynolds of the Guelph Agriculture College, says: "I am sure that all good Canadians will agree that a great feature should be made of the event, not so much to indulge in boasting as the Gentiles also, but for instruction and inspiration, specially for the younger generation, and for searching of hearts and improvement to grownups, that will lead them to inquire if they are doing what ought to be done to advance prosperity and unity in the Dominion."

Other leading educationists who write, many of them at considerable length, approving of the proposal are: Principal Graham, of Moosejaw College; the Rev. Dr. MacKinnon, of the United Church College at Halifax; Prof. A. L. McCrimmon, of McMaster University, Toronto; President Murray, of the University of Saskatchewan; Principal Gandler, of Knox College, Toronto; Dean Sherwood Fox, of the Western University, London, Ontario; Prof. G. M. Wynn, of Toronto University; Superintendent C. E. Reamen, of the Boys' Training School, Belleville, and a number of School Inspectors in various parts of the Province.

Communications promising support were also received from the Kiwanis Clubs at Calgary, Alberta, Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, Nova Scotia, and from the Lions Club at Winnipeg.

Strange to say, the feature of the proposed programme which evoked least response has been the national service of consecration and re-dedication proposed for Sunday, July 3rd. A number of church leaders acknowledge receipt of the circular letter, and express approval of the movement in general terms, but not one of the Committee's correspondents undertakes to move in the direction of having his church take up the proposal that the celebration should have a religious side to it, though some of them are in positions of influence where they could give effective help. However, this may come later.

Altogether, the movement for a proper celebration of Canada's Diamond Jubilee may now be said to be fairly launched, only requiring official action to set the machinery in motion from coast to coast. This action, it is expected, will be taken shortly, by the Association of Canadian Clubs, through their Executive, having undertaken to keep in close touch with the situation, and to press the whole matter upon the attention of the new Government at the earliest possible opportunity.

Many of the big office buildings in the downtown section house thousands of people. And when the elevators begin to pour them forth into the streets for lunch it takes traffic squads of policemen to handle the streaming crowds.

THE LATE RODERICK MacKINNON

The death occurred at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Large, on Oct. 7th, of Roderick McKinnon, who had reached the three score mark.

The late Mr. McKinnon, who was a son of the late Donald and Euphemia McKinnon, was born at Colville Road in 1866. He followed the occupation of farming most successfully until twenty two years ago when he removed to this city, and entered Falconwood Hospital as Nursing Attendant in which position he served efficiently until last March when his health became impaired and he was obliged to resign.

Although suffering for six months the late Mr. McKinnon bore up patiently and with true Christian resignation until he passed peacefully away.

The deceased was a faithful and

The Red Lamp

(Continued on page 2) Q. Did he ever mention a letter written by him to a Mr. Cameron, here in the city? A member of the Society for Psychological Research? Relative to the house? A. Never. But I know wof the letter. Cameron sent me word of it a day or so ago. Q. Are you a believer in spiritualism? A. I never have been. Recently, however, I— (Note: Here I caught a warning glance from Halliday and changed what I had intended to say.) Recently I have been trying to preserve an open mind on the subject. Q. Why recently? A. For one thing, Mr. Bethel had found the house queer; so had the secretary. Q. On the day you asked the secretary to luncheon, the intention was to allow Mr. Bethel to go through his room? A. Bethel? Certainly not. Q. I shall read you this entry from Gordon's diary, (reads) "Porter asked me to lunch to-day, so

B. could go through my room. They left the knife, but at least they know I have it." A. That's a lie! I asked him to luncheon so Halliday could search his room. It was Halliday who found the knife. You can ask him. Q. We'll let that go, just now, and come to the night you were found in the house, Mr. Porter, by Mr. Halliday. A. I wasn't found in the house by Mr. Halliday. We had started for it together. The maid, Annie Cochran, had reported a quarrel between Mr. Bethel and Gordon, and that Gordon had gone away. You must remember that we suspected the boy of being the killer. I was anxious, and went for Halliday. Q. What time did the maid tell you this? A. About seven thirty, possibly eight o'clock. Q. And when did you go for Mr. Halliday? A. It was about eleven, I imagine. Q. What did you do in the interval? A. She was nervous, and I took her home. After that we had callers. (To Be Continued) Minard's Liniment for all pains.
